Dear Carleton Alumni and Friends:

We are pleased to sponsor RIVER LIFE ALONG THE WATERWAYS OF HOLLAND AND BELGIUM, a unique opportunity to experience the true character of life in the Low Countries and to celebrate the beauty and spirit of springtime as Holland's legendary tulips burst into full bloom.

This itinerary, one of the highly successful and innovative travel programs in the VILLAGE LIFE series, is ideal for exploring the fascinating history, rich artistic legacy and daily life of Holland and Belgium. This is the optimal time—and only in Holland—to see rippling fields of more than 1,000 varieties of tulips alongside daffodils and hyacinths stretching as far as the eye can see throughout magnificent Keukenhof Gardens and along the calm canals that weave through the countryside. Throughout the program, enjoy accommodations aboard the five-star M.V. HEIDELBERG, one of Europe's newest and most luxurious river vessels.

Among the many included features of this travel program is the unique VILLAGE FORUM, where local residents share their insights into life and culture in the Low Countries. Expert-led excursions encompass the region's most notable landmarks, from the 17th-century Royal Delft porcelain factory and the legendary windmills of Kinderdijk to the medieval merchant houses of Bruges and Antwerp. These tours combine with a comprehensive program of lectures, cultural enhancements and opportunities to sample local culinary specialties like Belgian beers and chocolate to further enhance your appreciation for the region's rich history and deep-rooted culture.

An exceptional value including accommodations, meals and excursions and the convenience of unpacking only once combine with a fascinating destination to create a truly enticing travel program. This has been a very popular travel program in the past, so we encourage you to join fellow alumni and friends and make your reservation today!

Sincerely,

Althea Dotzour '99

RIVER LIFE

A WAY OF LIFE ALONG THE WATERWAYS OF HOLLAND AND BELGIUM

RIVER LIFE ALONG THE WATERWAYS OF HOLLAND AND BELGIUM is designed for those travelers who know that the true character of a region is best found along its waterways, on the backroads and around the local market squares. This comprehensive week-long program offers you a cultural and educational experience like no other. For one full week, cruise the waterways of Holland and Belgium to charming canal-lined towns where the past seamlessly blends with the present, including perfectly preserved medieval Bruges, the historic port of Middelburg and the market towns of Delft and Volendam, whose character has remained unchanged since the height of the Dutch Golden Age in the 17th century. Stroll in the footsteps of Rembrandt van Rijn and Peter Paul Rubens along the boulevards of Amsterdam and Antwerp, and in Kinderdijk, explore the inner workings of Holland's most famous windmills. This itinerary has also been carefully planned to coincide with the height of spring when the Dutch countryside is carpeted with a dazzling display of flowers in full bloom, and includes a visit to Keukenhof Gardens where millions of tulips, daffodils and other varieties of flowers create a breathtaking tapestry of colors and scents.

The M.V. HEIDELBERG has been specially selected for this travel program as it features deluxe accommodations, superior service and skillfully prepared regional and international cuisine.

Kinderdijk's authentic 18th-century windmills evoke Holland's old world ambiance and are perfect examples of innovative Dutch engineering.

AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

Ringed by concentric canals lined with 16th- and 17th-century row houses, charming houseboats and world-renowned museums, Amsterdam is brimming with history and artistic wealth. A private canal cruise offers a glimpse of some of the city's most noteworthy landmarks from a unique perspective and an opportunity to witness the integral role waterways and canals continue to play in the life of the city. Then tour the Van Gogh Museum, and see the world's preeminent collection of paintings by the noted Dutch Impressionist.

DELFT

Tree-lined canals, Gothic churches and a beautiful 17th-century Markt (Market Square) flanked by a magnificent Renaissance-style Stadhuis (town hall) are hallmarks of Delft, which proudly displays its heritage from the Dutch Golden Age, when it was a home port for the Dutch East India Company. Today, Delft continues to maintain its 17th-century character and is synonymous worldwide with its magnificent "Delft Blue" porcelain, which has been hand-crafted and painted in the Royal Dutch Delftware Manufactory De Porceleyne Fles for generations. Established in 1653, it is the last delftware factory still in operation from the Dutch Golden Age.

KINDERDIJK

Little has been altered since the mid-18th century, when 19 tall, wooden windmills were erected side by side at Kinderdijk to drain the Alblasserwaard, one of many regions in the Netherlands below sea level. Though no longer used to monitor water levels, the windmills are still one of Holland's most picturesque sights and represent exceptional examples of the advanced levels achieved by 18th-century Dutch engineering. Designated a national monument and a UNESCO World Heritage site, Kinderdijk offers an opportunity to see firsthand a windmill's internal workings.

MIDDELBURG/THE DELTA WORKS

The quaint 13th-century port of Middelburg is defined by the marvelous fortifications, bastions and strategic moats that symbolize its long and prestigious history. One of the oldest towns in Holland, its cobblestone streets lead to the central Market Square and the monumental Gothic Town Hall. Inspired by Brussels' legendary town hall, it encompasses a highly distinctive bell tower and the Burgerzaal, a former cloth hall furnished with authentic antiques.

Just to the northeast of Middelburg stands one of the most impressive feats of hydraulic engineering in the world, Holland's famous Delta Works. Developed over the past 50 years, this vast and complex system of locks, sluices, channels, bridges, slides and storm-surge barriers was built after the catastrophic floods of 1953 to protect southwestern Holland from the encroaching North Sea.

Canals, like this tree-lined canal in Delft, have played an integral role in the daily life of The Netherlands' residents for hundreds of years.

BRUGES, BELGIUM

From the Market Square to the Chapel of the Holy Blood, Bruges exudes the timeless atmosphere of Europe on the eve of the Renaissance. One of the best preserved medieval towns in Europe, Bruges was built around a double ring of picturesque canals and is connected by arched foot bridges. The magnificent façades of deftly crafted stone guildhalls, where merchants conducted business, and opulent cathedrals stand as reminders of the enormous wealth and power Bruges once possessed. See historic Burg Square and the lively Grand-Place Market, the center of life in Bruges, and enjoy a sample of Belgium's world-acclaimed chocolates.

GHENT

The rich history and commercial heritage of Ghent are reflected in the splendid 12th- to 17th-century guildhalls lining the quay. In St. Bavo's Cathedral, admire the Van Eyck brothers' magnificent polyptych, the altarpiece of the Adoration of the Mystical Lamb.

ANTWERP

Repository of the 17th-century Baroque masterpieces of the city's native son, Peter Paul Rubens, Antwerp preserves its Flemish charm in its Old Town. A labyrinth of squares and narrow passages lead into the spectacular Grote Markt, where beautifully preserved guildhalls once bustled with merchants and tradesmen. See Rubens' masterpieces, Resurrection and Assumption, in the Cathedral of Our Lady, the pride of Belgium with its remarkable 47-bell carillon and soaring 404-foot, delicately ornamented spire.

Visit the restored Rubenshuis, the elegant Renaissance-baroque home where Rubens once lived and worked, that now exhibits a collection of his paintings.

VOLENDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

Eighteenth-century row houses, sleepy canals and a picturesque waterfront evoke the glory days of the Zuiderzee and typify the beauty and charm of Dutch fishing ports like Volendam, where many residents still don traditional dress. Built along the top of a dike, the village's primary thoroughfare is lined with colorful cafés and shops offering fresh fish and a myriad of traditional Dutch crafts, including hand-made cheeses and wooden clogs. A quieter side of Volendam can be found on the other side of the dike, on the tranquil, narrow streets where the town's fishermen and merchants have lived for centuries.

HEIDELBERG, join us on this exclusive optional two-night stay in Amsterdam featuring accommodations in the first-class Crowne Plaza Amsterdam, a landmark property located in the heart of the city. A brilliant and breathtaking tapestry of colors and fragrance, Keukenhof Gardens is deservedly known as the “Greatest Flower Show on Earth.” Our program has been planned for the height of Holland’s spectacular spring flower season, when more than seven million flowers bloom across this 77-acre wooded park in a dazzling display of color unlike any other on earth.

Keukenhof’s name translates to “kitchen garden” and was inspired by the grounds’ history. In the early 15th century, the Countess Jacoba of Bavaria, who resided in a nearby castle, maintained her herb garden on this site. Currently a showcase for Dutch bulb growers, the gardens feature more than 1,000 varieties of tulips, daffodils and hyacinths, which are meticulously planted and landscaped amidst an idyllic setting complete with tranquil ponds, gently flowing streams and winding tree-shaded paths.
