

True-life Tales from the Carleton class of 1989

My name:

Where I live these days, and who with:

What I do to make a living and what I do for the sheer joy of doing it:

My classmates would be surprised to know that I:

The top three songs on the playlist entitled My Carleton Years: The Soundtrack are:

I'm proudest of:

A thing I learned at Carleton that I use all the time is:

A Carleton moment that's burned into my brain forever is:

If you're curious about a book/movie/travel destination/Web site that I love, check out:

What really pisses me off is:

The big questions I'm pondering include:

This sheet will be reproduced and included in the reunion bio book sent to members of the class of '89.
Please return by Friday, October 31 via e-mail (ptrusty@acs.carleton.edu), fax (507-222-4445), or U.S. mail (Carleton College, Office of Alumni Affairs, 1 N. College St., Northfield, MN 55057).