Name: Friedrich von Schiller
Significant people, places and/or things in my life are... The masked people who carry me through random events on campus. We always have a good time but sometimes I wonder - do I really like these guys or is it Stockholm Syndrome?
I spend my time... Wrapped in someone's old sweater in a dark closet. They take me out every now and then for a "showing" and then it's back into the closet. Showing/closet/showing/closet/showing/closet. How about a trip to the Reub or something? And how about washing the sweater? It STINKS! Hey guys, a little Downy softens your laundry AND makes it smell better.
My favorite spot or memory from Carleton is... Anywhere outside of the closet.
The '80s song we must play at Reunion... Anything by Prince. Love that guy! Little Red Corvette is PURE GENIUS!
If I were enrolling at Carleton today I would ... Sit in the Arb and write poetry Past the despairing wail-- And the bright of the Elysian vale Melt every care away! Delight, that breathes and moves forever, glides through sweet fields like some sweet river!
A book, movie, place to go, thing to see that I would recommend... The Dead Poets Society. It resonates with my personal experience.
My personal "Bald Spot Comb Over" (something I'm doing now that wasn't on my radar 25 years ago): I had a facelift recently so I'm looking much better than I did 25 years ago. Joan Rivers has nuthin' on me!
Something I still want to do.... Get out of the closet
You are coming to Reunion, right? (circle one) Yes Maybe No
Why/why not? I never know when they will take me out. Keep your eyes peeled...
Any links? (To make a hot link, provide full URL address.) www.schillerinstitute.org
Which social networking sites do you belong to? I have no hands so I can't log onto a computer. Bummer.
