2007 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Last fall, the Knights notched 13 wins, one shy of the school record. They crafted an impressive run of nine consecutive wins late in the season, working their way into playoff contention. Carleton returns eight starters from last season and 15 of 22 players who saw action a year ago.

Melley Turner '09 led the team in scoring and ranked among MIAC leaders in goals (7) and assists (6). As a team, Carleton ranked fourth in the MIAC by tallying 2.06 goals per contest, while owning the league's second-strongest defense, which limited opponents to 0.83 goals per game.

Dylan Welch '08 was named to the NSCAA/adidas All-Central Region first team, while teammate Mia Zutz '10 was a third-team selection. Welch, Zutz, and Megan Molteni '08 were honored with All-MIAC first-team recognition, while Leigh-Anne Borkowski '11 and Sophie Wood '09 were tabbed with honorable mention.

MEET THE COACHES

Since being named Carleton's head coach in May 2006, Keren Gudeman has led the Knights to back-to-back 12+ win seasons and the second-best overall mark (25–10–3) among MIAC teams.

Gudeman came to Carleton after serving as the head girls' soccer coach at St. Paul Academy (SPA) from 2002–05. She led SPA to a runner-up finish in the 2004 Class A state tournament.

Gudeman played for the San Francisco Nighthawks of the Women's Premier Soccer League in 1999 and 2008 and for the women's U.S. Adult Soccer Association's state select soccer team for five years. She also holds a NSCAA national diploma and a USSF "D" license.

A 1998 graduate of Harvard, she led the Crimson to Ivy League titles in 1995, '96, and '97 and helped Harvard advance to the NCAA quarterfinals in 1997. An all-region third-team pick and a two-time All-Ivy League second-team selection, Gudeman still ranks among Harvard's all-time leaders in goals, assists, and points. She was also a member of Harvard's lacrosse team, earning All-Ivy first-team honors and first-team regional All-American recognition in 1998.

Assistant coach Neil Cassidy also joined the Knights staff in time for the 2006 campaign. Formerly a semi-professional player in his native England, he previously served as goalkeeping coach at Saint Mary's (Minn.) University and is involved with Minnesota Youth Soccer Association's Olympic Development Program, holding head coaching positions within the program and as a Region II staff coach. He holds coaching licenses from the United State Soccer Federation (USSF) and the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA), plus a goalkeeping license from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).
