ACT WEEKLY BULLETIN

Week 9, Nov 9nd - Nov 13, 2009

Programs & One-Time Events

Hour of Power: Swimming for a Good Cause!

Tuesday November 10th from 4-5 is the annual Ted Mullin Hour of Power Swim Relay for Cancer Research at the West Gym Pool.

Come down to West Gym for delicious snacks, to buy a coveted "Cancer Sucks" T-shirt, and to cheer on the swimmers as they swim their hearts out for one hour in memory of a great captain and friend, Ted Mullin.

Any questions about the event can be directed to sloank or gazelm. T-shirts will also be sold in Sayles Tues, Nov. 10 so stop by and check out what you can do to help!

Art + People + Volunteering = Awesome

Would you like to help promote local art? Help solicit, assist with, and secure artist information using survey cards at the Northfield Arts Guild on Friday, November 13 from 6-10pm.

You will need to have a planning meeting with the event coordinator prior to the party. We're looking for some really friendly and outgoing volunteers for this, so if that's you please email marrenj asap!

You Guys Rock!

The PD for WomenCircle would like to thank "all of the dedicated, amazing, fantastic volunteers that make this program the bomb."

Got tech skills? Use them to help out in Northfield!

The Northfield School Board is looking for a technologically inclined volunteer to help make changes to their webpage and also to format their newsletter, approximately once a month. If you're interested (you know you are) email marrenj.

Campus Driver Training!

Make sure your club or group has access to Fleet Services Vehicles this winter term. Campus Driver training courses are only offered twice per term and are an important part in the Campus Driver certification process. Leighton 330, 4:30pm.

"Paid intern" is not an oxymoron!

Get paid to engage in a social justice internship during the summer of 2010. Students accepted to a low-paying or unpaid internship/training programs are eligible to receive up to $3,000 to fund their social or environmental justice experiences. Stop by the Career Center or the ACT Center for more info!

Help Fight World Hunger!

The MN-based organization Feed My Starving Children will be hosting a food packaging event here in Northfield on Saturday Nov. A group of Carleton volunteers will be headed to the Northfield Armory at 2:15pm. Transportation will be provided if necessary. Contact muellers with any question or to sign up! Limit 20 people.
