

Richard Salisbury Student Fellowship

<http://go.carleton.edu/fellow>

- Created to expand the number and range of opportunities available to students to pursue intellectual and creative interests, especially in Africa or Latin America
- Up to $4,000 given to the fellow chosen
- Provides valuable opportunities for independent research in any field taught at Carleton College or to undertake projects in the creative or performing arts.
- These grants allow students to pursue academic interests outside the classroom during summer or winter break.
- Intended for juniors to use during the summer or winter break of senior year.

Information Meetings:
Tuesday, November 10,
2009, 8:00 PM in LDC
104.

Wednesday, January 6,
2010 7:00 PM in LDC
104

Deadline: Applications due to
Associate Dean Elizabeth
Ciner, Laird 131 by 5 PM on
Friday, February 12, 2010

Interested in studying in Africa or Latin America?