

"With its historical significance of 3000 years, nowhere but Israel is there such a dynamic interplay between people, culture, and religion. Jerusalem is one of the most fascinating and beautiful cities on earth."

Dan Curme '10
2008 Jonathan Paradise Israel Experience Scholarship recipient

"Summer study in Israel was fascinating. The chance to explore an intersection of history, religion, and politics, and to do so in Jerusalem with other students from around the world, was an unforgettable opportunity."

CARLETON COLLEGE

CARLETON COLLEGE

JONATHAN
PARADISE
ISRAEL EXPERIENCE SCHOLARSHIP

All materials must be submitted by Friday, February 20, 2009

PURPOSE:

This fund was established by Elie Alyeshmerni, Carleton's Hebrew instructor from 1978 to 1998, to honor his teacher, Professor Jonathan Paradise. Its purpose is to provide financial support to Carleton students who wish to learn more about the culture, history, and politics of Israel in order to better understand the global community in which they live. Three scholarships of up to $2,000 will be awarded to students for study in Israel either during the summer of 2009 or during the 2009-2010 academic year.

CRITERIA:

- Students must be enrolled in Israel in a structured educational program, which need not be a university.
- The College may take into consideration security arrangements provided by the sponsoring institution when making this award.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- All Carleton students in good academic standing irrespective of religious affiliation or knowledge of Hebrew.
- Students who can demonstrate a genuine interest in the history, language, and culture of Israel.
- Preference will be given to applicants who are rising sophomores and juniors, so that the award recipient(s) can come back to Carleton and share his/her experiences and insights into life in Israel.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Send three copies of the following to:

Jean Sherwin, Administrative Assistant
Classics Department
LDC 230

- A letter explaining the educational experiences that have prepared you for study in Israel and the ways in which this off-campus experience will contribute to your education
- Two reference forms from faculty
- An application form, including a budget

Student applications and faculty recommendation forms are available at <http://go.carleton.edu/paradise> or from Jean Sherwin, in LDC 230.

DEADLINE TO APPLY:

All materials must be submitted by 4:00 PM, on Friday, February 20, 2009 to Jean Sherwin, Administrative Assistant, Classics Department, LDC 230.

INFORMATION MEETING:

Tuesday, January 13, 2009 at Reynolds House, 7:00-8:00 pm. Hal Edmonson '09, Daniel Curme '10 will share their experiences studying in Israel in 2008.
