

CITIZENSHIP IN THE 21ST CENTURY

*FACULTY FROM CARLETON AND ST. OLAF ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN A 4-PART WORKSHOP EXPLORING
THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF CITIZENSHIP IN A
GLOBALIZING WORLD*

FEB 15th: WHAT IS A CITIZEN?

Caroline Danielson of the Public Policy Institute will lead a discussion of the history and meaning of American citizenship

MARCH 8th: IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALISM

APRIL 12th: GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

Kathryn Sikkink, professor of political science at the University of Minnesota, will give a public lecture at St. Olaf and join us for dinner and conversation.

MAY 3rd: THE STATE AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

MEETINGS WILL TAKE PLACE AT CARLETON AND ST. OLAF
BEGINNING AT 6:00 P.M. DINNER IS INCLUDED.
YOU MAY SIGN UP FOR AS MANY SESSIONS AS YOU LIKE.
PARTICIPANTS WILL RECEIVE A STIPEND.

TO SIGN UP, CONTACT JENNIFER COX JOHNSON, jcoxjohn@carleton.edu, ext. 4192.

QUESTIONS? ASK KIM SMITH (ksmith@carleton.edu) or
KRIS THALHAMMER (thalhamm@stolaf.edu)

This workshop is supported by the Mellon Faculty Lifecycles Grant and St. Olaf College.

