

The Richard T. Newman Family Fund for Language Study Internships Abroad is intended to support and encourage Carleton students to pursue internships in foreign countries that can lead to career opportunities in the field of foreign languages. The primary language used in the internship shall be one of the languages offered at Carleton: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Japanese, Latin, Russian and Spanish.

N E
W
M
A
N

PROFILES OF RECIPIENTS AND HOST ORGANIZATIONS

Tyler Boddy-Spargo '12, Music

Hometown: Friendship, WI

Tyler, on his first trip abroad, will be working for Pro Linguis, a prestigious language education school, teaching English to small groups of eight to thirteen year-old children attending the institution in Belgium.

Cameron Combs '12, Latin American Studies

Hometown: Bozeman, MT

will be working with the group Sustainable Bolivia based out of the city of Cochabamba. Cameron expects to be doing work conducting research on legal, political and international issues.

Jake Reznick '12, Environment and Technology Studies

Hometown: New York, NY

will be working this summer with Greenriver, a Chinese environmental protection NGO based in Chengdu, Sichuan, China. Jake will be responsible for Greenriver's Youth Climate Forum this summer, and his responsibilities will include translation, information collection and collation, project conclusion and committee affairs arrangement.