

PUBLIC HEALTH

CARLETON COLLEGE

The courses listed below may not focus explicitly on public health, but are related areas that support the study of public/global health.

FALL 2015 COURSES:

HIST 100 - American Farms and Food

HIST 100 - Drunks & Teetotalers

HIST 205 - American Environmental History

IDSC 100 - Measured Thinking

POSC338 - Politics of Inequality and Poverty

PSYC 260 - Health Psychology

MATH 215 -
Introduction to Statistics

WINTER 2016 COURSES:

BIOL 101 - Human Reproduction and Sexuality

BIOL 310 - Immunology

ECON 264 - Health Care Economics

HIST 308 - American Cities and Nature

PHIL 222 - Topics in Medical Ethics

SOAN 262 - Anthropology of Health and Illness

MATH 215 -
Introduction to Statistics

SPRING 2016 COURSES:

ECON 284 - Inequality in an Interconnected World

HIST 263 - Plagues of Empire

SOAN 233 - Anthropology of Food

SOAN 395 - Ethnography of Reproduction

MATH 215 -
Introduction to Statistics

PUBLIC HEALTH-RELATED RESOURCES:

Pathways: https://apps.carleton.edu/pathways/health_wellness/public_health/

Pre-Health Program: <http://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/prehealth/>

Center for Community and Civic Engagement (CCCE):

<http://apps.carleton.edu/ccce/issue/health/>