Dear Classmate,

First we must solicit your strictest confidence in this transaction.¹ You have been recommended by an associate² who has assured me in confidence of your ability and reliability to prosecute a transaction of great magnitude involving a pending business transaction requiring maximum confidence.

We are official representatives of the State Actuary Governmental Authority (SAGA³) of the government of Goodhuevia⁴. We wish to import goods into your country, but at presently our source of funding has been trapped and detained at the express orders of Gen. Leighton Evans⁵ himself. It is our most express desire to transfer these funds from our bank account in Goodhuevia to your bank account, the latter being a total of $21 million U.S. Dollars (US$) of which portion we will give you 10%⁶ for your confidence and reliability in processing this transaction.

Please be ensured that this transfer will be 100% safe⁷ to you at all times, as the proceeds come from steam tunnel revenues which were grossly over-billed and then doubly collected at all times, the latter portion being spilled. To collect this money transferable, we need the necessary license-fee funds from you to release the funding, please following the follow steps:

1) Go to www.Carleton.edu expressly;
2) Poke around a bit, and then click on the link that says “Giving to Carleton”;
3) Follow the simple, on-screen instructions.⁸

Once you have made your most generously transfer of funds, the $21 million U.S. Dollars (US$) will be wired into your account most expressly, the complete picture of the account being sent to you once you have made contact.

Remember, this is a Deal so treat with the utmost confidentiality.

Most Sincerely⁹ Yours,

Dave Hoppe

² Who shall remain nameless. We never give up our sources.
³ As Homer Simpson would say, “Mmmmm…..Saga…….”
⁴ This is only a scam. There is no “Goodhuevia”. At least not yet.
⁵ You will know him by his bald spot.
⁶ 10% of $21 mil?? I’m no math major, but I could use 13 million bucks! Count me in!
⁷ Safe. And effective!
⁸ Of course you can also use the enclosed envelope, but, either way, Goodhuevia only sends money back if you give until it hurts.
⁹ Actually, insincerely. The truth is this is only a fund-raising scam disguised as, well, a fund-raising scam. But please give anyhow. It’s a swell college, and they do swell things with the money. Trust us.
