The Mediterranean Through the Centuries
A Voyage from Rome to Lisbon including Sicily, Sardinia, Tunisia, Spain & Morocco

Aboard the All-Suite, 50-Cabin Corinthian
October 14 – 25, 2015
Dear Carleton College Alumni and Friends,

You are invited to join Carleton Professors Dana and Stephen Strand this October, cruising from Rome to Lisbon aboard the all-suite, 50-cabin Corinthian. Discover a rich and diverse cultural heritage along the shores of the western Mediterranean and beyond the Straits of Gibraltar, including the Greeks and Normans in northeastern Sicily, the Carthaginians and Romans in Tunisia, and the Moors in Spain and Morocco.

On Sicily you will visit Segesta’s Doric temple, a masterpiece of Greek architecture. Peer into the legacy of Carthage and admire splendid mosaics in Tunis. Explore seldom-visited Sant’Antioco, Sardinia, an ancient base for both Carthaginians and Romans. Delve into the history of Almeria, Spain, whose name comes from the Arabic al-mariyya, or watchtower, in reference to the port’s grand, 10th-century fortress of Alcazaba. In Morocco, explore the monuments of fabled Marrakech; tour the elegant capital of Rabat; and see Tangier’s Dar el Makhzen, former palace of the sultans.

During your cruise, Carleton faculty leaders Dana and Stephen Strand will share their expertise in 20th- and 21st-century French and Francophone literature (particularly of North Africa), and the economics of Mediterranean Europe, respectively; and Ambassador Mark Johnson will draw upon his 30-year career as an American diplomat to discuss the history, politics, and culture of the region. Dartmouth Professor of Classics Roger Ulrich will provide insights on Roman art and architecture.

With 50 suites (all exterior), accommodating no more than 100 guests, Corinthian is an ideal small ship for this splendid itinerary. She features a beautiful dining room, two comfortable lounges, a gym, library, spa, and broad sun decks, ideal for sunning or watching passing scenery. An elevator serves all decks.

Please join the Strands aboard Corinthian for this exploration of historic islands and cities of the western Mediterranean, where centuries of intimate contact between different civilizations has produced a unique legacy of architecture, art, and culture.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Smulian, Class of ’78
President, Carleton College Alumni Association

PS. Corinthian has only 50 cabins (all suites) and this program is co-sponsored by other organizations, so I encourage you to contact the Alumni Adventures office at carleton@studytours.org or (800) 811-7244 to reserve your space today.
Cruise, Learn & Be Inspired

Our voyage is accompanied by experienced lecturers and expert local guides who will introduce you to the culture and history of these unforgettable lands.

CARLETON COLLEGE FACULTY LEADERS

Dana Strand is Andrew W. Mellon Professor of French and the Humanities at Carleton College, where she teaches courses on 20th- and 21st-century French and Francophone literature, with a special emphasis on North Africa. The founding director of the European Studies concentration at Carleton, she also serves on the Middle Eastern Studies Initiative. Dana has led student programs to Paris, southwestern France, and Morocco.

Stephen Strand is the Raymond Plank Chair of Incentive Economics at Carleton College. He has recently taught courses in the Economics of the European Union, the Political Economy of the Turkish Republic, Turkey and the European Union, and a two-term course in Accounting and Management Science. Steve recently spent a fall term at Georgetown University’s McGhee Center for Eastern Mediterranean Studies in Alanya, Turkey, as an Affiliate Visiting Professor. He has led student programs to Egypt, Turkey, and Morocco; to Paris; and to Cambridge University in England.

ALSO ONBOARD

Ambassador Mark Johnson was a career foreign service officer, serving as Ambassador to Senegal, as Deputy Inspector General of the State Department, Deputy Chief of Mission in Kuwait in 1991, and as Deputy Chief of Mission in Cairo, Egypt. He was involved with the Middle East peace process and the Iranian hostage crisis. Mark is the former national Vice Chair of the World Affairs Councils of America and is the Founder of the World Affairs Council of Montana. He is a Mansfield Adjunct Professor at the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center at the University of Montana.

Roger Ulrich, Ralph Butterfield Professor of Classics and former Chair of Classics at Dartmouth College, teaches Roman art, archaeology, and Latin. He has lectured to alumni groups in Italy, Spain, France, Jordan, Egypt, and Croatia, and has conducted field research in Spain, Italy, Greece, and Tunisia. He was the senior editor of Blackwell’s Companion to Roman Architecture and author of Roman Woodworking. He has also consulted for the Department of Defense by developing training materials about fragile archaeological sites for U.S. soldiers in the Middle East.

Lecturers are subject to change.
Itinerary

Wednesday, October 14, 2015
USA
Fly from the U.S. to Rome, Italy.

Thursday, October 15
ROME, Italy | CIVITAVECCHIA | EMBARK
Arrive in Rome, transfer to Civitavecchia, and embark Corinthian. (D)

Friday, October 16
TRAPANI, Sicily | SEGESTA
Drive up winding roads to Segesta for a visit to its magnificent Doric temple, built in 420 B.C. and among the best preserved ancient Greek sites. The temple escaped destruction by the Carthaginians in the late 5th century. (B, L, D)

Saturday, October 17
BIZERTE, Tunisia | TUNIS | CARTHAGE | BIZERTE
Arrive in Tunis and tour storied Carthage, founded in the 9th century B.C. Also tour the Bardo Museum, the country's top museum with a magnificent collection, including well-preserved Roman mosaics, rare Phoenician artifacts, and early Islamic ceramics. In Tunis, visit the sprawling medina with its souks, cafés, and historic palaces and mosques scattered throughout. (B, L, D)

Sunday, October 18
SANT'ANTIOCO, Sardinia, Italy
Call in the morning in Sant'Antioco, a small port in the southwest corner of Sardinia. Technically an island, Sant'Antioco has been connected to the Sardinian mainland by a causeway since Carthaginian times. Serving as a base for the Carthaginians and later for the Romans, Sant'Antioco’s upper town has been continuously inhabited since the 8th century B.C., when it was founded by the Phoenicians. Tour the excavated remains of the Carthaginian acropolis, including the Tophet and the Catacombs, and visit the Archaeological Museum, which contains finds from the excavation. (B, L, D)

Monday, October 19
AT SEA
Enjoy Corinthian’s amenities and onboard lectures as we cruise to Spain. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, October 20
ALMERIA, Spain
Our exploration of this historic port city includes the Alcazaba, a Moorish fortress originally built in the 10th century; the imposing 16th-century Cathedral built in Renaissance style; the Chanca, a picturesque neighborhood with many of its houses built into caves; and the Paseo de Coches, a palm-lined seaside promenade. (B, L, D)

Wednesday, October 21
TANGIER, Morocco
Founded by the Phoenicians in the 7th century B.C., Tangier was subsequently held by the Romans, Vandals, Byzantines, and Visigoths, followed by the Arabs in A.D. 709, who used it as the base for their invasion of Spain. Spend the afternoon exploring the medina, a classic Moroccan town of narrow lanes and stepped passages, dominated by its old citadel, or kasbah. Also visit the Dar el Makhzen, the former palace of the sultans, now a museum of antiquities and crafts, and the Old American Legation, a former palace given to the U.S. government in 1777 to house America’s first embassy. (Morocco was the first country to recognize the independent United States.) (B, L, D)

General Information

PAYMENT SCHEDULE: A deposit of $1,500 per person is required to reserve your space on the tour. For your convenience, you may charge your deposit to your American Express, Visa, Discover, or MasterCard. Final payment is due 90 days prior to departure. Credit cards are not accepted for final payment. However, personal checks are accepted for both deposits and final payment.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS: All cancellations are subject to a $300 per person fee. Cancellations received 61-90 days prior to departure will be assessed a penalty equal to 50% of the total program cost per person. Cancellations received within 60 days of departure are subject to 100% cancellation penalties.

INSURANCE: We strongly recommend the purchase of trip cancellation insurance, which is available for coverage of expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident. Baggage insurance is also recommended. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Insurance information will be provided upon registration.

ITINERARY: The itinerary, accommodations, and arrangements are subject to change at the discretion of Travel Dynamics International Ltd.

RESPONSIBILITY: Please read carefully the following terms and conditions, which constitute the sole, legally enforceable agreements between the passenger and Travel Dynamics International Ltd and the tour’s sponsoring organization. The passenger is also advised to review his/her separate ticket contract with the ship’s owner/operator, which will constitute the sole, legally enforceable terms of carriage for this cruise and is available on request from Travel Dynamics International Ltd. Travel Dynamics International Ltd and the tour’s sponsoring organization act solely as agents for the passenger with respect to all transportation, hotel and other tour arrangements. In that capacity, we exercise all reasonable care possible to ensure the passenger’s safety and satisfaction, but, we neither assume nor bear any responsibility or liability for any injury, death, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity arising in connection with the services of any ship, airplane, train, automobile, motor coach, carriage or other conveyance, or the actions of any third-party, involved in carrying the passenger or in affecting these tours. We are not responsible for damages, additional expenses, or any other losses due to strikes, lockouts, delay or other changes in air or other services, sickness, weather, strike, war, civil disturbances, acts or threats of terrorism, travel warnings or bans, termination or suspension of war risks or other carrier insurance, quarantine, acts of God or other causes beyond our control. All such losses must be borne by the passenger, and tour rates provide for arrangements only for the time stated. In the event of cancellation, delay or rescheduling mandated by any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by us, or else, receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as we are able to recover on the passenger’s behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc., but, we shall not have any obligation or liability to the passenger beyond the foregoing. We reserve the right to make alterations to the tour’s itinerary and to substitute hotels, ships, or lecturers if this is required. We reserve the right to cancel, delay, or reschedule any tour prior to departure, and, so long as this is not due to any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall be entitled to a full refund of all monies paid to that point if he/she so desires. No refund shall be made for any unused portion of any tour. By forwarding their deposit(s), the passenger certifies that he/she and/or their dependents, minors or others covered thereby do not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that could create a hazard for them or other passengers. We reserve the right to decline to accept or to decline to retain any person as a member of any tour should such person’s health, condition or actions adversely affect or threaten the wellness or safety of other passengers or impede the tour. Baggage or valuables brought on the tour shall be transported, handled or stored at the passenger’s risk entirely, and, we shall not have any obligation or liability to the passenger beyond the foregoing. We reserve the right to make alterations to the tour’s itinerary and to substitute hotels, ships, or lecturers if this is required. We reserve the right to cancel, delay, or reschedule any tour prior to departure, and, so long as this is not due to any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall be entitled to a full refund of all monies paid to that point if he/she so desires. No refund shall be made for any unused portion of any tour. By forwarding their deposit(s), the passenger certifies that he/she and/or their dependents, minors or others covered thereby do not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that could create a hazard for them or other passengers. We reserve the right to decline to accept or to decline to retain any person as a member of any tour should such person’s health, condition or actions adversely affect or threaten the wellness or safety of other passengers or impede the tour. Baggage or valuables brought on the tour shall be transported, handled or stored at the passenger’s risk entirely, and, we shall not have any liability or responsibility for any damage or other loss thereto. Passenger tickets are not transferable and are not subject to alteration by the passenger. No suit shall be maintainable against the carrier, or vessel, for any losses, accidents, damages to person, property, personal injury (including death or other types of bodily injury) of the passengers, unless written notice of the claim, with full particulars, is delivered to the carrier or its agents at its office at the port of sailing or at the port of termination within six months from the day when such incident occurred. In no event shall any such suit or any claim against the carrier or vessel for any losses, accidents, damages to person, property, personal injury (including death or other types of bodily injury) of the passenger be maintainable unless such suit is commenced within one year from the day when the incident causing such losses, accidents, damages to person, property, personal injury (including death or other types of bodily injury) of the passenger occurs, notwithstanding any provision of law of any state or country to the contrary. Resolution of any disputes arising hereunder shall be brought within the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, pursuant to the applicable general maritime law, and applying the applicable general maritime law and Federal maritime statutes. RATES: Tour costs are based upon current airfares, tariffs, and currency values. While we do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. FUEL SUPPLEMENT: Travel Dynamics International Ltd. reserves the right to charge a fuel supplement, without prior notice, if the NYMEX oil price exceeds $85 per barrel. This supplement may be charged even if the cruise fare has been paid in full. SHIP’S REGISTRY: Malta
