

Carleton College Alumni Adventures presents:

Odyssey of Wonders: Ancient & Modern Egypt

With Rob & Teresa Oden

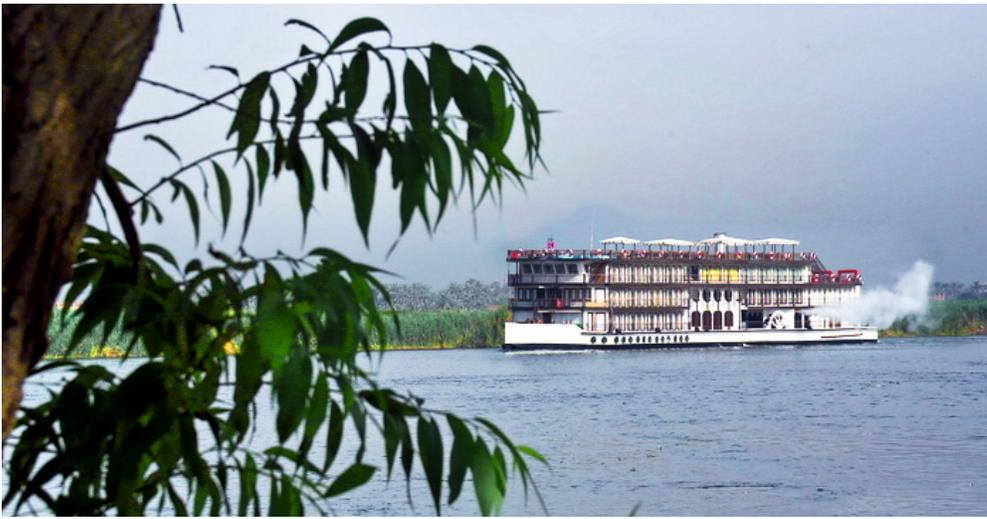

March 10-21, 2012

Group Size:	36-42 travelers
Pricing:	$6,345-$7,145 per person
Single supplement:	$3600

Explore the forces of time that have shaped a fascinating nation from its ancient history through its contemporary struggles for cultural and political clarity. In early 2011, the world watched, transfixed, as Egypt's citizens engaged in a peaceful revolution that brought down the autocratic and corrupt Mubarak government and led to the ongoing process of establishing a peaceful democracy, a new constitution, and free and fair elections. Now, stability has returned to the streets and Egypt's people have embarked on this new era of freedom and self-government. We invite you on an amazing trip to an age-old and ever-fascinating destination.

Egypt is safe and welcoming, and Rob and Teresa Oden are eager for you to join them for a trip designed for intrepid minds and curious souls. You will bask in views of the pyramids and other ancient monuments, experience modern Cairo, and taste ancient and modern life along the Nile during a week-long cruise on the SS MISR, a ship with modern comforts and early-20th-century regal ambience. You will also talk with Rob's on-the-ground colleagues in-country, and learn from Rob himself in daily lectures and ongoing conversations about Egyptian history and influences. This unique trip explores the cultural, historical and intellectual heart of Egypt.

Trip Leaders

Robert A. Oden Jr. was the president of Carleton College from 2002-2010, president of Kenyon College from 1995 to 2002 and headmaster of the Hotchkiss School from 1989 to 1995. President Oden holds a BA from Harvard College and advanced degrees from the Harvard Divinity School and from the University of Cambridge, where he was a Marshall scholar. He earned a PhD in Near Eastern languages and literature from Harvard University. He was a professor in the Department of Religion at Dartmouth College, where he received Dartmouth's first Distinguished Teaching Award. During his tenure at Dartmouth, he twice served as the academic director and lecturer on a Dartmouth Alumni Seminar Abroad: "Egypt, the Red Sea, and Jordan." He has been on the Board of Trustees of the American University in Cairo since 1990. He and Teresa led a Carleton trip to Egypt in 2008.

Oden is the author of five books, including The Bible Without Theology, and scores of scholarly articles, as well as a number of articles on fly-fishing. His chief research interests are in ancient Near East languages and history and comparative religion. In 1989 he was selected to be among the first of the Teaching Company's "Superstar Teachers," recording several series of lectures on comparative religion and the Old Testament

Teresa Oden earned a BA in classics from Brandeis University. She has worked as a computer programmer and as an administrator in the nonprofit sector and has published articles and a book about issues facing the partners of academic leaders. Passionate about local history, she wrote about college history for the Kenyon College Alumni Bulletin and, after moving to Minnesota, she wrote a history play in honor of Northfield's sesquicentennial in 2005. A resident of Hanover, NH since 2010, she has now shifted her research and writing to that town's history. Teresa enjoys gardening and "just about anything that requires handling beautiful fabrics."

Robin Weber Pollak, Carleton Class of 2004 and director of JOURNEYS International, will also accompany the trip. Robin worked for five years in experiential education and received an MBA from The George Washington University before returning to JOURNEYS, a family business that has offered worldwide nature and culture adventures since 1978.

Itinerary

Day 1 • Saturday, March 10

ARRIVE CAIRO (depart U.S. on Friday, March 9)

Upon arrival at the Cairo International Airport, you will be met and transferred to the Cairo Marriott Hotel to check in, relax, and freshen up. In the evening, enjoy a welcome reception with your group and tour leaders, followed by dinner in the hotel. (D)

Day 2 • Sunday, March 11

Pyramids, Memphis, Saqqara

After breakfast, begin your exploration of Ancient Egypt with a trip back through the history of Egypt's Pharaonic Old Kingdom. Drive to the Giza Plateau, where you will see the pyramids and the enigmatic Sphinx, and visit the Solar Boat Museum. Visit Memphis, the once resplendent capital of the Old Kingdom where you will see the reclining statue of Ramses II. Enjoy the countryside and riverbank sights along the short drive from Memphis to Saqqara, Egypt's largest archaeological site, and the burial place of the pharaohs of the Old Kingdom. Here, your guide will take you to the Step Pyramid of Zoser, the world's oldest stone monument, built around 2660 BC, where ongoing archaeological work continues to this day. Tour other burial chambers in the complex, marveling at the well-preserved wall murals and paintings, then return to your Cairo hotel for the evening. (B, L, D)

Day 3 • Monday, March 12

American University of Cairo, Luxor, Board the SS MISR

Spend this morning at the American University of Cairo, where Rob Oden is arranging a private tour and a chance to hear from a pre-eminent expert on Egypt past and present (details to be announced as the trip approaches). After lunch, transfer to the Cairo Airport for the short flight to Luxor, where you will meet your Nile River ship. The SS MISR will be your home for the next week. We set sail southward to Esna before the sun sets and enjoy the riverbank sights during our first evening aboard. (B, L, D)

Day 4 • Tuesday, March 13

Esna / Edfu and Aswan (SS MISR)

Begin the morning sailing through Esna Lock before reaching Edfu and visiting its temple, dedicated to the god Horus. The Ptolemaic Temple of Horus, the falcon god, is the largest and most completely preserved temple in Egypt, rich with hieroglyphs and other imagery, so be prepared for an informative morning with your guide. Learn about the significance of the temple's many well-preserved reliefs and the valuable information they have provided to archaeologists about temple rituals and the power of the priesthood of ancient Egypt. Enjoy lunch aboard the ship while sailing to Aswan, where the Nile narrows at the rocky First Cataract, an old strategic site on ancient routes to the Sudan and Nubia. Arrive in Aswan by evening, where you will dock overnight and rest up for a full day of exploring tomorrow. (B, L, D)

Day 5 • Wednesday, March 14

Aswan (SS MISR)

Aswan will be our base for today's explorations, starting early in the morning, when we travel by small boat to Philae Island to absorb the romantic aura and grandeur of the complex of the Temple of Isis, goddess mother of nature and protector of man, and one of Egypt's most legendary tourist attractions. The ruins on the island date back from about 400 BC through the next 500 years and are extensive, varied, and starkly beautiful. The massive stone temple complex was disassembled, moved to, and painstakingly reconstructed on this island, stone by stone, by UNESCO between 1972 and 1980 to save it from the rising waters of the Aswan High Dam. Next, visit the Unfinished Obelisk, remarkable for its huge size and, at 2.3 million tons of granite, the heaviest single piece of stone the Egyptians had ever fashioned. Also visit the massive Aswan High Dam, with its views over the sparkling deep green-blue waters of Lake Nasser, the world's largest man-made lake. The High Dam is a massive structure that supposedly contains about 18 times the amount of material used in the great pyramid of Khufu in Giza (which contains more than two million limestone blocks weighing 2.5 tons apiece!).

In the afternoon take a guided river cruise on a small Nubian-captained sailing boat (felucca), passing by the Agha Khan Mausoleum, Elephantine Island, and the Botanical Island of Lord Kitchener. Later, you will have free time to explore Aswan's lively souq and riverfront, or perhaps take a taxi to the atmospheric Old Cataract Hotel, where Agatha Christie wrote Death on the Nile, for coffee. After dinner on board the ship, the evening is yours at leisure. (B, L, D)

Day 6 • Thursday, March 15

Aswan to Kom Ombo (SS MISR)

Set sail for a relaxing trip to Kom Ombo, enjoying lovely views of river activities and shoreline towns from one of the ship's open-air sun decks as you leave Aswan and head down the Nile for Kom Ombo. Time permitting, we may be able to visit the huge cattle market held on the outskirts of town on Thursdays. The main attraction, though, is the riverside temple of Kom Ombo, unique in Egypt for its dual dedication to the crocodile god, Sobek, and the falcon god, Horus. Visit in the afternoon when the light is perfect and crowds have thinned. Admire the location, all the hieroglyphs and colors that still remain, and the temple's rugged beauty. Enjoy dinner onboard the ship near Kom Ombo, where you will moor for the night. (B, L, D)

Day 7 • Friday, March 16

Kom Ombo to Luxor via Esna and Edfu (SS MISR)

After breakfast, set sail on a leisurely trip down the Nile, continuing north toward Luxor, watching the sights along the way, and descending the Nile River locks at Esna, not far north of Edfu. Keep an eye out for the Ptolemaic-Roman Temple of Khnum, the ram-headed god who created mankind, near the boat landing in Esna. Arrive at Luxor late in the day and enjoy dinner onboard the ship. (B, L, D)

Day 8 • Saturday, March 17

Luxor (SS MISR)

Rise before dawn for breakfast followed by a quick boat ride across the river to Luxor's West Bank for a fascinating exploration of the Valley of the Kings and Queens. Your visit will include excursions inside the amazingly well-preserved tombs of several rulers of old Egyptian dynasties. Visit the Mortuary Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, one of Egypt's most successful pharaohs as well as the longest-reigning female, and the Colossi of Memnon, a tourist attraction since Greco-Roman times and the only remaining components of the Mortuary Temple of Amenophis III. Return to Luxor's East Bank and your ship for lunch. In the afternoon, tour the strikingly-graceful Luxor Temple in the heart of town and the temples in the massive two-square-kilometer Karnak complex, whose ancient name means "the most perfect of places." Have dinner onboard, then consider an evening outing – perhaps tonight is the night to try a traditional sheesha (water pipe)? Return to your ship for the night. (B, L, D)

Day 9 • Sunday, March 18

Qena, Dendara, and Luxor (SS MISR)

During breakfast we will sail about 35 miles north to the provincial town of Qena and the nearby spectacular ruins of Dendara. The Temple of Hathor at Dendara remains almost completely intact and is therefore an iconic Egyptian sight. Although this site had been a religious center since about 2320 BC and the goddess Hathor had been worshipped here since the days of the Old Kingdom, the current great temple was largely built by the Ptolemies with later work done by Romans. The great columns, dark crypts, stairwells, and carved hieroglyphs all add to the atmosphere. There are even remains of a small 5th century AD Coptic basilica at the site. Return to Luxor, enjoy your last night in town moored on your riverboat, and consider one last outing to enjoy the ancient capital of Thebes, perhaps the world's greatest open-air museum. (B, L, D)

Day 10 • Monday, March 19

Return to Cairo

After breakfast, disembark the riverboat and transfer to nearby Luxor Airport for your flight to Cairo, where you will be met on arrival and transferred to the Cairo Marriott Hotel for check-in. We are also working on setting up a visit today with one or more of Rob Oden's Cairo contacts (details to follow when arrangements are complete). Dinner and overnight at the hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 11 • Tuesday, March 20

Old Cairo, mosques, markets, and farewell

Immerse yourself in the exploration of Cairo, the heartbeat of Egypt, also known as the "Mother of the World." This city has a rich history, having been part of the Persian, Ptolemaic, Roman, and Byzantine empires and home to Christians, Jews, and Muslims alike. Following breakfast at the hotel, embark on a guided exploration of old Cairo. Begin with a visit to Islamic Cairo and the panoramic hilltop Citadel of Saladin which also houses Muhammad Ali Pasha's 19th century alabaster mosque. Walk the cobblestone streets of Old Cairo, the oldest quarter of the city, with its ancient churches and the synagogue of Ben Ezra. Visit Khan al-Khalili souq (market), including Fishawi's Coffeehouse. See Tahrir Square, the site of the January 2011 protests that tipped the political forces of the nation. After lunch, continue your exploration at the Egyptian Museum of Antiquities. One of the most impressive exhibits of many here are the antiquities from Tutankhamen's tomb with its nested burial containers, golden inner sarcophagus, and assorted funerary treasures. Visit the Royal Mummy Room, home to the bodies of Ramses II, Seti I, and Tuthmosis II. Tonight, for your last night in Egypt as a group, enjoy a unique farewell dinner. (B, L, D)

Day 12 • Wednesday, March 21

Depart for home

After breakfast at the hotel, meet your representative and transfer to the airport for your journey homeward or on to your next destination. (B)

Terms & Conditions

Welcome to your trip!

Carleton College Alumni Adventures and JOURNEYS International welcome you to register for the Odyssey of Wonders: Ancient and Modern Egypt.

Pricing & Payment

Reservations are accepted and confirmed after we receive a deposit and a Reservation Form signed by each adult on the trip, and if space is available. The deposit is $500 per person.

An invoice will be sent with your reservation confirmation. An additional deposit of $800 per person is due four months prior to departure. Your invoiced balance is due in full 60 days prior to departure regardless of whether extensions or other arrangements are pending. Failure to deliver complete payment 60 days prior to departure will be considered notification of cancellation by default and is subject to cancellation charges as stated below. Both trip deposits and land cost payments may be made by check or credit card. You will be requested to authorize in writing these credit card payments each time the payment is due. Payment for airfare is required at time of ticketing.

Note: Trip costs are subject to change both before and after sign-up due to currency exchange rate fluctuations, fuel surcharges and other circumstances beyond our control.

Reservations

Early reservations are encouraged. We cannot confirm your space without a deposit and a signed Reservation and Information Form. This form includes a detailed assumption of all risks. A final trip packet including last minute reminders, tickets, and local contact information for your destination will be mailed approximately 2-3 weeks prior to the trip departure date.

Cancellations & Refunds

If you must cancel before departure, money will be returned less the cancellation fees as follows:

LAND CANCELLATION FEES PER PERSON / PER TRIP

Days Prior to Departure	Fee
121 or more	$500
91-120	30% of land cost
61-90	75% of land cost
0-60	100% of land cost

Departure is defined as the date of the first flight from the continental 48 states, or the trip departure date as indicated on our Trip Schedule, whichever comes first. Cancellation and determination of cancellation fee is effective on the date of receipt of your written notification. In addition, you are responsible for all airfare and transit accommodation cancellation penalties, which are not included above. Payments due at the time of cancellation remain the responsibility of the client.

No partial refunds are possible for unused hotel rooms, air or land travel, or other sight-seeing arrangements included in the land cost. JOURNEYS strongly recommends you purchase trip insurance including trip cancellation and interruption insurance, which may reimburse you for cancellation penalties and extra trip expenses should a circumstance covered by the policy force you to cancel or interrupt your trip.

Air Fares

We can handle both air and land arrangements. If you decide to make your own air arrangements, you will be required to furnish JOURNEYS with a complete copy of your air itinerary showing departure and arrival flights and times. If you arrive at your destination on other than the group arrival time, you may be charged an additional fee to cover the separate transfer, contingency, and coordination costs which frequently arise from arrival and departure on flights different from our regular bookings. You should arrange your own air if you are using mileage credit or originating outside North America.

Expenses Covered

Normally, we include the cost of all guides, leaders, permits obtained after arrival, land accommodations, food and entry fees as specified, and all surface transportation associated with the planned itinerary.

Expenses Not Covered

Costs not covered in land prices include some meals as noted in the Trip Notes or itineraries, and prior to arrival in base cities; transfers if not arriving or departing according to the scheduled group flights; soft drinks and liquor; medical expenses, costs of hospitalization or evacuation from remote areas; laundry; airport departure taxes not included on your ticket; accommodations en route to base cities; visas; airfares and insurance. If a trip must be extended or an itinerary modified due to weather, road conditions, lack of transportation, political or civil disputes, medical emergency or other causes beyond our control, all associated costs including any nonrecoverable costs are not included in the trip rates or refunds. You must obtain trip cancellation insurance to cover these costs.

Tier Group Pricing

In some cases it is necessary to adjust prices to reflect small group size. A small group supplement may be assessed in the event the group has fewer than 36 travelers.

Pre-Departure Services

After receipt of your deposit we forward a pre-departure information packet. This contains medical information, visa and other permit forms, a recommended personal insurance policy, checklist, reading list, cross-cultural information, and an initial invoice for the balance due. You may call our office at any time for additional information.

Accommodations

Accommodations will be double occupancy hotel rooms, cabins or other facilities as described or otherwise noted. We will attempt to book specific accommodations, if specified, but we reserve the right to book and confirm available standard accommodations, if necessary.

Medical Requirements

Good physical and mental health are essential for the enjoyment of this trip. This trip requires some walking. By forwarding the deposit and signed Reservation Form, the passenger certifies that he/she does not have any physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other passengers. It is essential that any participant with a medical condition requiring regular treatment or which may be affected by vigorous activity, heat, other natural phenomenon, or particular foods, notify JOURNEYS and the trip leaders in writing at the time of deposit.

We assume no responsibility for medical care nor for special dietary requirements or vegetarian needs. Participants may be required to furnish a doctor's statement of good health. The company's or leader's judgement shall provide the ultimate determination of an individual's fitness to embark upon, or to continue a trip. Once a trip has been confirmed, medical circumstances will not be considered as exceptions to our cancellation policy. All participants must be covered by a current major medical insurance policy for the duration of their trip. Proof of such coverage may be requested.

Reservation & Information Form

Please complete fully, read and sign the reverse side. Return to JOURNEYS by mail or by fax to start your reservation process.
This may be photocopied for additional travelers. Questions? Call 800-255-8735.

Release of Liability & Assumption of All Risks

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY & SIGN BELOW

I hereby acknowledge that I am aware that throughout any cruise, or other trip in which I am participating under the arrangements of JOURNEYS International, Inc. (JOURNEYS) and Carleton College, and their agents and representatives, certain inherent risks and dangers are likely to arise. These include but are not limited to, travel by train, foot, automobile, aircraft, raft, boat or other means of conveyance; the hazards of traveling in undeveloped areas, the forces of nature, civil unrest, terrorism and accident or illness in remote regions without means of rapid evacuations or availability of medical supplies and facilities. I am also aware and clearly understand that JOURNEYS and Carleton College and their agents and operators will have no liability regarding the adequacy of any medical care, equipment, evacuation plan or supplies that may be provided.

I am voluntarily participating in these activities with full knowledge of the dangers and risks involved and agree to assume all risks, including injury and death.

I understand JOURNEYS and Carleton College do not have legal control or ownership of facilities, staff, services or transportation outside of the United States and act only as agents for the owners of such facilities, staff, services and transportation. I realize that standards of maintenance, construction and operation of facilities, accommodations, rights-of-way and transportation may be much less favorable and less protective of safety and health than would be permissible in the USA and may constitute additional risks and hazards for which I assume all responsibility.

In consideration of the right to participate in such activities, and the service arranged for me by JOURNEYS and Carleton College and their agents and representatives, I do hereby assume all risks of bodily injury, death, emotional trauma, property damage and/or theft resulting from negligence or any other acts, however caused, including those mentioned above as a result of my participation, and I release JOURNEYS and Carleton College and all of their agents and representatives from any and all liability, actions, causes of actions, suits, debts, demands that I may have for bodily injury, death or property damage, loss of income, and claims of every sort and nature whatsoever which have or may arise out of or in connection with my participation in a JOURNEYS and Carleton College trip or other activity.

This release of liability and assumption of all risks agreement is entered into on behalf of all members of my family, including any minors accompanying me or who travel on a JOURNEYS and Carleton College trip independent of me and for whom I certify that I am the parent or legal guardian.

This agreement is also binding on my heirs, administrators, executors, legal representatives and assigns. All applications are subject to acceptance by JOURNEYS and Carleton College. Upon acceptance of my application this agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into and performed in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and shall be construed according to the laws of Michigan only. In the unlikely event a legal dispute should arise involving any subject matter whatever, I agree that the dispute shall be settled by binding arbitration through the American Arbitration Association in Michigan. Should the arbitration provision prove to be unenforceable, I agree that any legal action shall be brought before the appropriate court in Washtenaw County, Michigan, or Federal Court in Michigan and that claims in such legal action will not exceed $500. I further agree that should the plaintiff fail to prevail in any legal dispute before a court said plaintiff hereby agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees for the defendant in the dispute.

I have carefully read this entire Release of Liability and Assumption of All Risks, and I have read the complete Terms and Conditions, including notification of cancellation penalties, attached. I fully understand all contents of this document and agree to same.
