ETHIOPIA PRE-TOUR EXTENSION

ADDITIONAL READING SUGGESTIONS
FROM PROF. NANCY WILKIE

For Ethiopia:

Gary K. Vikan, Director, Walters Art Museum, Baltimore, MD. (Carleton College class of 1967)
Ethiopian Art: The Walters Art Museum
An excellent overview of the Christian art of Ethiopia.

Abraham Vergese
Cutting for Stone
A best-selling novel set mainly in Addis Ababa.

Ryszard Kapuscinski
The Emperor
A look into the life of Haile Selassie, the Emperor of Ethiopia.

Donald Johanson and Maitland Edey
Lucy: The Beginnings of Humankind
An account of the discovery of one of the best known hominid fossils, Lucy, in the remote Afar region of Ethiopia.

Philip Briggs
Ethiopia, Bradt Travel Guide

For hominid evolution in general:

John Reader
Missing Links: In search of human origins
Reader outlines the most significant discoveries in the field of human origins, while at the same time providing insights into the politics of paleoanthropology.

For exploration in Africa:

Martin Dugard
Into Africa
The most recent account of the well known encounter between Dr. David Livingstone and journalist Henry Morton Stanley.