Thursday, April 27

5 p.m.  Registration and reception – Williamsburg Inn
6 p.m.  Welcome Dinner – Williamsburg Inn
        Introductions and Overview of the Weekend

Lecture – Professor Cliff Clark
“Thoughts about Contemporary Political Issues and Our Understanding of History”

“Colonial Williamsburg’s Bell Labs: R&D for History Museums,” slide lecture by Cary Carson ’63, Vice President for Research, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation

Friday, April 28

8 a.m.  Group Breakfast – Williamsburg Inn

Lecture - Professor Clark
“Living History Museums and the Search for Authenticity”

Overview of logistics for the day – Cary Carson ’63

9:30 a.m.  Board bus at Williamsburg Inn

9:45 a.m.  Behind-the-scenes Tour of Bruton Heights Education Center – Cary Carson ’63
          Conservation Labs, Collections Division
          Rare Books and Manuscripts, Rockefeller Library
          Eighteenth-century Fox Studios, Media Division

11:30 a.m.  Bus back to Historic Williamsburg

Noon  Lunch on your own in or near the Historic Area

1 p.m.  Tour Historic Area exhibition buildings and trade shops

2:30- 4:30 p.m.  Williamsburg’s latest experiment in public programming,
          “The Revolutionary City: Citizens At War,” Capitol precinct, east end Duke of Gloucester Street

5:30 p.m.  Group dinner at King’s Arms Tavern – dutch treat
Saturday, July 28

8 a.m.  Group Breakfast – Williamsburg Inn

Lecture - Professor Clark
“The Curious History of the Study of Objects”

9:30 a.m.  Board bus outside Williamsburg Inn

9:45 a.m.  Visit to the Williamsburg’s Archeology Lab (Cary Carson ’63 and resident archaeologist)

10:45 a.m.  Tour restored 18th-century building with an architectural conservator (Cary Carson ’63 and Thomas Taylor)

Noon  Group Lunch – Box Lunch to be delivered

1 p.m.  Board bus for field trip to Jamestown

1:30-4 p.m.  Visit excavation and tour archaeological collections at Jamestown (Cary Carson ’63 and staff of Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities)

4 p.m.  Bus returns to Williamsburg Lodge

6:45 p.m.  Dinner at Christiana Campbell’s Tavern – dutch treat

Sunday, April 30

9:30- 10:30 a.m.  Farewell Continental Breakfast and discussion, an opportunity for final questions for Prof. Clark and Cary Carson ’63 – Williamsburg Inn