ROBINSON Elizabeth Lee Graves Robinson died August 16, 2003. Born in Pittsburgh, PA, she had lived in Jacksonville for more than 20 years. A graduate of Carleton College and Jacksonville University, she had retired from St. Marks Episcopal Day School where she developed the computer education program. She was a member of St. Elizabeth's Episcopal Church, where she was a lector and had served on the vestry. Elizabeth is survived by her husband, Samuel Robinson, III, her sons, Samuel A. and Houston, her father, Houston W. Graves, Jr., brothers, Houston W. Graves, Jr. (Karen) and Alexander J. Graves (Beth), her sisters, Anna Graves Sanders and Dorothy Graves Jackson (Lowell), nieces and nephews, and many, many friends. Her mother, Dorothy Virginia Graves, predeceased her. Services will be 1:00 p.m., Saturday, August 23, 2003 at St. Marks Episcopal Church, 4414 Oxford Ave., Jacksonville, the Rev. David Barr, celebrant. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to St. Marks Episcopal Day School in her name HARDAGE-GIDDENS FUNERAL HOME, 4315 Main St. Please sign the Guestbook at Jacksonville com

Copyright © 1999-2003 American Family Archives & Chronicles, Inc. - All rights reserved