Class of ’74 Memory Tour
Saturday, June 21
2:00-3:15

We will meet at the front entrance of Myers Hall at 2:00 and work our way across campus until we arrive at Skinner Chapel at 3:15 for our class photo. After the photo, we will continue our tour to selected places in the Arb.

Stop 1: Myers Hall
Suggested by: Mansco Perry
Myers Hall is where many lifelong friendships first began. We will try to get a quick look at the main lounge and one of the floors during this stop.

Stop 2: Nourse Little Theater
Suggested by: Marc Cohen
Even though it stood in the shadows of the much larger new Music and Drama Center, the Nourse Theater was the setting for many productions during our Carleton years.

Stop 3: Music and Drama Center
Suggested by: Ellen Marchessault
The new Music and Drama Center opened after some delays during our freshman year. We remember recitals in the Concert Hall, performances in the new theater, and art in the lower level.

Stop 4: Laird Basement/Computer Lab
Suggested by Martha Dolson Adamson
Data processing and computer applications were in their primitive formative years during our Carleton experience, but many classmates have fond memories of the Laird Basement.

Stop 5: Library Stacks
Suggested by: Kari Moe
We all know that the façade and the top level of the library has undergone dramatic changes, but do the stacks in the lower levels still look like they did when we were on campus?
Stop 6: Bald Spot/Ice Rink
Suggested by: Dick Marchessault
In the heat of a June afternoon, who can recall some memories of the ice rink on the Bald Spot and the warming house located right behind Skinner Chapel?

Stop 7: Sayles Hill
Suggested by: Brian Olshansky & Martha Dolson Adamson
The big old dark gymnasium has been renovated, but we still have fond memories of registration, room draw, and rock concerts with celebrity performers like Leo Kottke and The Outsiders.

Stop 8: Severance Great Hall
Suggested by: Dick and Ellen Marchessault
In addition to being a comfortable lounge, Great Hall has been the location for a variety of special events, dinners, presentations, meetings, and even weddings over the years.

Stop 9: Severance Tea Room
Suggested by: Janet Newkirk
Many of us remember family-style meals at the T.R., late night snacks, the “Bird Wall”, alumni gatherings, and many other special events during and after our years at Carleton.

Stop 10: Willis Hall
Suggested by: Jim Stiles
Willis Hall was a central gathering place for all of us as we checked our mail every day and met friends after class. What does it look like today after the renovations?

We are scheduled to meet in Skinner Chapel for our class photo at 3:15. As noted above, the memory tour will continue to include a few selected places in the Arb after we do our class photo. We will have time to some of the locations that we remember best before we regroup in the Cassat lounge at 5:15 for our class reception.
