

REUNION 2019

“Welcome to the Members of the Class of 1889.”

Thirty-three years ago (yeah I know the math seems wrong, but Tom's wife, the astrophysicist, checked it), Dean Roy Elveton greeted us with these words to our New Student Week at Carleton.

Do you remember the rush of meeting new people who were creative, engaging, intelligent, and humorous? We shared wonderful stories of our lives before Carleton and listened intently to the tales of others during these first days on campus.

We have the chance to experience that sense of wonder again next summer at:

Our 30th Reunion (aka, New (Old) Student Week) June 20 - 23, 2019

Come have fun with us even if you don't remember us! Let's face it. Some of us may struggle to remember much about our time or even our classmates at Carleton and perhaps, what we do remember, we may wish to forget!

But if there is any bonus to our age, it is that no one else actually recalls that stupid thing you did, were or said either. A 30th Reunion can be a clean slate!

Whether you have been to every reunion or have not yet attended even one, come join us for another New (Old) Student Week. Our classmates are even more interesting, gregarious raconteurs who want to hear about your life since Carleton.

We want to see you at the reunion of “The Most Interesting Class in the World”.

To get things going, we ask that you do 3 things right now:

1. Mark your calendar for June 20-23, 2019 and start making plans to join us in Northfield!
2. Begin to connect with each other by:
  - Updating your entry in our class Bio Book.
  - Posting to/joining our class Facebook Page
  - Looking for reunion updates on the 1989 class website
3. Nominate a classmate for an Alumni Association Award who has contributed an outstanding achievement to their field or community; or who has provided exceptional service to Carleton. Nomination submissions, award categories, and guidelines can be found here. The deadline for nominations is November 15.

We look forward to seeing you in Northfield next June!
