Happy New Year! It’s 2019. It’s real. It’s been nearly 25 years since graduation and we are ready to celebrate. We’re looking forward to seeing each of you at our Class of ’94, 25th Reunion, June 20-23, 2019 to reconnect, fondly remember fabulous moments, and make new ones.

Between now and then we have a few important things to accomplish together:

First, we invite each of you to fill out the Bio Book by January 31st. Even for those of you unable to attend Reunion in June, we’re excited to hear about your experiences over the past 25 years! That’s what we mean by our theme of “100% of you.” It’s not about the number of people: it’s the totality of our experiences. Hop on over there now while you’re thinking about it and spend a few minutes musing, laughing (at the Zoo Book pic styles from 1990), typing and, ideally, smiling as you check out some of the posts already there. There are only 10 questions and your responses can be quick and spontaneous. For those of you who want a tactile reminder of Carleton and the quirky amazing people who made it special to you, about 94 more of us need to share and fill out the Bio Book by January 31st so that we can arrange for a print run.

Second, and while you’re on the Class of ’94 25th Reunion page anyway, add your name to the Who’s Coming list and check out who is already planning to make the trip to Northfield this June. If this spurs you to reach out and encourage others to come to Reunion, that’s fantastic!

Third, since you already are reminiscing, hop on over and join our Carleton Class of ’94 Facebook page. It is a great way to get updates on Reunion plans and connect with your fellow ’94 grads ahead of the fun in June. If the moment inspires you, post a pic, tag a friend, or share why you come back to Northfield and support Carleton.

Fourth, celebrate and add to your support for Carleton during our 25th Reunion drive. We have $227,268 in commitments and a participation rate of 27% so far!

Finally, and most importantly, get ready to hop online again on March 1st to register for Reunion and get excited to connect in person June 20-23, 2019!
