15th Reunion
June 18-21, 2009

Dear Classmates-

Next June the class of 1994 will be celebrating the 5th anniversary of its 10 year reunion!

That’s right, it’s been fifteen years since we ate Saga food in the dining halls, went to (or skipped!) convo each week, and enjoyed our days in the town of Cows, Colleges and Contentment™. So mark your calendars for June 18-21, 2009, when we’ll get together in Northfield to do it all again.

What we’ll be doing: lots of stuff. Bring the whole family—in addition to Camp Carleton, other kid-friendly events may include story time and a movie night, and babysitters will be available. Don’t have kids? There’ll be plenty of fun stuff for the rest of us, with many opportunities to socialize with fellow Carls. (And if you have any ideas for reunion programs or activities, let us know at carleton94@gmail.com!) More details will come in the next weeks and months.

We hope you’ll all be able to come to reunion: June 18-21, 2009. Contact your friends, your old floormates, your comps group, or that 1991 crush you never acted upon, and let them know you’d love to see them there, too.

Fondly,
←(Us)

P.S. This is the last year that members of our class are eligible to receive the In the Spirit of Carleton Award, which recognizes a young alum who’s made a significant contribution to civic or professional organizations and who demonstrates the attributes of Carleton’s liberal arts education. Nominations are due soon, so if you know someone you think is deserving, more details are available at http://apps.carleton.edu/alumni/council/awards/.
