

The Office of Alumni Relations, in conjunction with the Alumni Council, the student-run Black Student Alliance \(BSA\), the Carleton Student Association \(CSA\) Senate, the Multicultural Alumni Network \(MCAN\), and other alumni volunteers, recently launched the Community Support Resources for Carls site to provide ways to support change on campus and across the country.

Alumni Association Award Recipients and Reunion 2020

Although Reunion 2020 did not take place on campus this June, there were opportunities to come together virtually and, we hope, in person next year. On Saturday, June 20, we shared a program with a video greeting from President Poskanzer and messages from Derek Fried '93, president of the Alumni Council; and Karen Schilling '78, chair of the Alumni Annual Fund Board. Additionally, we honored the 2020 Alumni Association Award recipients and celebrated the generosity and spirit of the classes of 1995 and 1970.

Top 3 Ways to Help A Carl

- 1 Hire A Carl
Offer a tangible opportunity for Carls by creating a job, internship or short-term project for students with your organization. You can also share leads about a full-time position or internship for students to consider.
→ Share an opportunity: @carleton.edu/hireacarl
- 2 Refer A Carl
Respond directly to a Carl's request for help in the Carleton College Alumni LinkedIn group. Alumni can offer advice, recommend opportunities, and suggest professionals with whom the student can network.
→ Join the group: @carleton.edu/linkedinacarl
- 3 Connect A Carl
Fill out the Carls4Carls Resource List form and be available for students to reach out to you directly.
→ Sign up: @carleton.edu/signupacarl

The Carleton Career Center is working diligently to take care of all students. While their work continues, alumni have an opportunity to support current students, including the Class of 2020, as they embark on life after Carleton. Check out the Top 3 Way to Help a Carl and the Carls4Carls resource hub for Carls of all generations—as well as their parents and friends—to support the career cultivation and career development experiences of students and young alumni.

Alumni Annual Fund Thank You

More than 600 Alumni Annual Fund (AAF) Volunteers, led by the Alumni Annual Fund Board (comprising members of classes from 1964 through 2019) worked tirelessly from July to June to contact their classmates inviting them to support current students with a gift to the AAF. Together, donors and volunteers continue a long tradition of (financial) stewardship of the college. We thank you!

Quiet Town benefits community

A new poetry chapbook, Quiet Town addresses themes surrounding the COVID-19 virus and pandemic through a collection of Carleton student poetry and artwork. We hope to use this project to encourage people in our communities to support the Northfield Community Action Center's vital frontline coronavirus relief work. This project demonstrates the importance of connection and community while coping with times of crisis, and finding relief through openly shared experiences through art and poetry. The PDF for Quiet Town is available here. As this book was created as a fundraiser, we ask that you please donate to the Northfield Community Action Center before or after reading. The recommended donation is between $5 and $10, but please give what you can. Thank you for your support!
