Help a Carl, Host an Extern

Carleton externships are one- to three-week career preparation and exploration experiences. Each December, alumni, parents, and friends of Carleton host students at their workplaces or for remote work and provide exposure to jobs in a wide variety of career fields. These unpaid “mini internships” give Carls the chance to experience a workplace or industry area directly with enough depth to guide their career decisions. Any member of the Carleton community looking for Carleton talent is encouraged to become a host.

Top 3 Ways to Help A Carl

- 1 Hire A Carl
Offer a tangible opportunity for Carls by creating a job, internship or short-term project for students with your organization. You can also share leads about a full-time position or internship for students to consider.
→ Share an opportunity: go.carleton.edu/hsacarl
- 2 Refer A Carl
Respond directly to a Carl's request for help in the Carleton College Alumni LinkedIn group. Alumni can offer advice, recommend opportunities, and suggest professionals with whom the students can network.
→ Join the group: go.carleton.edu/linkedinccarl
- 3 Connect A Carl
Fill out the Carls4Carls Resource List form and be available for students to reach out to you directly.
→ Sign up: go.carleton.edu/signupccarl
