Draft OAC Reunion 2019 Schedule

Thursday, October 10

3:00–8:00 pm
Check-in and onsite registration open, Bird House

6:30–9:00 pm
Welcome Reception/dinner, Alumni Guest House and Patio or Weitz 236

Friday, October 11

7:00 am - 7:00 pm
Check-in and onsite registration open, Bird House

7:30 - 8:15 am
Breakfast in dining halls or in local hotels (on your own)

8:30 - 9:20 am
Option I: Morning walk/tour of the arb
Option II: Campus tour including new science center, Weitz Center, new admissions and career center, and the GSC
Option III: Oral history and archiving project, Gould Library

9:30 - 10:40 am
President’s Welcome and Panel: “Returning as the New Me: Stories of Coming Out in the 60’s, 70’s, 80’s, 90’s, 00’s, and 10’s” Panelists (confirmed to far): David Shannon ’68, Great Hall

10:50 - 11:50 am
Convocation: Rochelle Gutiérrez, Skinner Memorial Chapel

12:00 - 1:15 pm
Lunch, see options below
*Lunch with Convocation speaker
Career Center mentoring hosted lunch with students and alums (tables with topics including: gender identity in the workplace, navigating the interview process, etc.), Great Hall

1:30 - 2:30 pm
The History and Founding of Out After Carleton:
Matt Fikse, Lee Mauk, Ruth Waterbury, Steve Lewis, Great Hall

2:40 - 3:40 pm
Option I: Campus tour including new science center, Weitz Center, new admissions and career center, and the GSC
Option II: Writing our coming out stories (to compliment the time to share stories), Sayles-Hill 251
Option III: Afternoon tea/coffee—relax, connect, make conversation and help build community, Upper Sayles
Option IV: Oral history and archiving project, Gould Library

4:00 - 5:00 pm
LGBTQA+ Life at Carleton:
Carolyn Livingston, Dean of Students
Danny Mathews, GSC Director
Current Students
Great Hall

5:15 - 6:15 pm
President’s Reception

6:30 - 8:00 pm
Dinner, Weitz 236

8:15 pm
Film screening of new documentary by Diana Fraser: Patient No More, Weitz Cinema

9:30 pm
Movie: Kings, Queens and In Between, Weitz Cinema
Saturday, October 12

7:30-8:15 am Breakfast in dining halls or in local hotels (on your own)

8:30-9:30 am Option I: Panel discussion or talk on intersectionality- RJ Holmes
Option II: Shared space to tell stories
Option III: Panel on LBGTQA+ parenting: panelists: Helen Raizen ‘70, Eden Kaiser ‘03, Patti Hague ‘73, Jo Young?
Option IV: Oral history and archiving project, Gould Library

9:45-10:50 am Politics in the Trump Era: talk with Jonathan Capehart ‘89, Skinner Chapel

11-12 pm Andrea Jenkins, Lifting Up What Works: Equity in the 21st Century, Skinner Chapel

12:15-1:15 pm Lunch and gaymes

1:30-2:30 pm Option I Campus tours including new science center, Weitz Center (and new addition), new admissions offices, and new career center offices, GSC Center
Option II: Book signing by Out After Carleton authors
Option III: Queer and Transgender Representations in Television with Assistant Professor of Women's and Gender Studies & Cinema and Media Studies, Candace Moore
Option IV: Performances from current students
Option V: Oral history and archiving project, Gould Library

2:45 pm Reunion Photo, Sayles-Hill Steps

3:00-4:00 pm Pushing Policy: Todd Larson’s ’83 journey from the Peace Corps to the United Nations to the Obama Administration, fighting for LGBTQI rights within the world’s most complex bureaucracies.

4:00-5:00 pm Gender and Sexuality Center Tea Time and Open House, Clader House

5:30-7:00 pm Dinner, Great Hall

7:00-8:00 pm Keynote: An Evening with Cleve Jones
Cleve Jones is an AIDS and LGBT rights activist. He conceived the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt which has become, at 54 tons, the world's largest piece of community folk art as of 2016. In 1983, at the onset of the AIDS pandemic Jones co-founded the San Francisco AIDS Foundation which has grown into one of the largest and most influential People with AIDS advocacy organizations in the United States. Skinner Memorial Chapel

8 - 8:30 pm Book signing, Skinner Memorial Chapel

8:30-9:30 pm Coming out Stories

8:30-12:00 pm Dance and DJ (Demetrius Bagley), The Reunion Restaurant

Sunday, October 13

9:30-10:30 am Option I: UU/National Coming Out Day chapel service, Skinner Memorial Chapel
Option II: Morning Yoga, Cowling Dance Studio
Option III: Morning walk/tour of the arb

10:45 - 12:15 pm Farewell Brunch, Great Hall