Carleton gets back to MIAC play, faces Gusties

Carleton, after two non-conference tilts, resumes MIAC play by traveling to St. Peter, Minn., to face Gustavus Adolphus College. The Gusties, the defending regular-season champions, have qualified for the NCAA Tournament four consecutive years.

Broadcast Information

Carleton’s new radio partner, KQCL 95.9 FM/Power 96 will broadcast the game, with award-winning sports director Gordy Kosfeld on the call. The game can also be heard live on the Gustavus Website (http://www.gustavus.edu/oncampus/athletics/audio.cfm). The Carleton site will carry the Knights-Gusties women’s game.

Last time out – Carleton 68, Upper Iowa 61

Kyle Beste scored 20 points and added eight rebounds and four assists as Carleton won its final non-conference game of the 2004-05 season, beating Upper Iowa University, 68-61. Dan Forkrud added 18 points and seven boards for the Knights, who won for the fourth time in their last five games. Tommy Drake also scored in double figures, notching 11 points and snatching six rebounds.

Upper Iowa, a NCAA Division II institution, was paced by John Banks’ game-high 22 points and 11 rebounds. It marked the Peacocks’ 10th consecutive loss. Carleton took a 32-29 halftime lead, as the Knights shot 48 percent from the field over the first 20 minutes. The Knights extended their lead to as many as nine points before UIU pulled within three late in the game, but the visitors were able to hang on for their fourth consecutive win over Upper Iowa all-time.

Carleton limited the hosts to a 3-for-17 performance from behind the arc and held a sizable 15-5 advantage in free-throw points. The Knights were 15-of-26 from the line while the Peacocks went 5-for-6. Carleton held a slight 38-37 edge on the glass, although they did commit 14 turnovers to UIU’s 13.

Last meeting: Feb. 21, 2004, Gustavus 66, Carleton 46

Tanner Schiek ‘04 scored 10 points in what proved to be his final home game as Carleton fell to league-leading Gustavus, 66-46. The Gusties shot a red-hot 56 percent from the floor, including a mind-boggling 8-for-11 from three-point range. Tim Brown paced the Gustie attack with 21 points and Phil Sowden added 10.

Beste named MIAC player of the week

Kyle Beste was named the MIAC’s player of the week after two huge games during the week of Dec. 6-12. Beste averaged 22.0 points, 75 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 2.0 steals and shot 51.5 percent from the floor in Carleton’s two contests last week, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau in the process. In Monday’s 76-49 win at St. John’s, Beste exploded for 26 points on 11-of-17 shooting and added six boards and two steals. He tallied 16 points in the second half, scoring seven of Carleton’s first nine points of the half to help the Knights blow the game open. In Wednesday’s loss to Augsburg, the senior scored 18... points, gathered nine rebounds and dished out six assists. He is the 18th player in Carleton history to score 1,000 points in a career. Beste currently leads the Knights with an 19.0 point-per-game average. He’s posted 56 rebounds, and 29 assists per game as well.

Beste moves near top 10 on scoring chart

Kyle Beste’s 20-point performance against Upper Iowa pushed him past Howard Rosenblum ’55 on the Carleton career scoring chart and into a tie with former teammate Scott Christensen ’03. Beste’s 1,070 points matches Christensen’s career total, currently 13th in the school’s scoring list. Beste has scored 88 points over the last four games and has scored 20 or more points three times this season. At his current pace, Beste could move into Carleton’s top five in all-time scoring.

Knights three-point attack heats up

Carleton has posted a number of impressive three-point shooting performances during its first six games. Sophomore point guard Jake Phillips canned 6-of-8 three-point attempts against Chaminade on Nov. 27. The six 3-pointers tied for eighth-most in a single game in Carleton history and the .750 three-point percentage ranks fourth all-time at Carleton, with a minimum of five attempts. Against Hawaii Pacific on Nov. 29, Anthony Baquero canned seven triples, matching his career high and ranking him fourth on the single-game Carleton list for most three-pointers made. Carleton made 28 three-pointers in the first three games combined, including 22 in the final two games. They added 30 in its first three MIAC games combined, going 30-for-72 (41.7 percent) from beyond the arc in conference action, ranking second in the MIAC.

Gustavus-Carleton Series

The Gusties lead the all-time series 29-22, including a 23-9 record at home. The Knights haven’t won at Gus Young Court since Feb. 15, 1997, a span of eight games. The Gusties have beaten the Knights in 18 of the last 20 meetings. Carleton head coach Guy Kalland is 10-33 against the Gusties.

About Gustavus

The Gusties, the defending regular-season and MIAC Playoff champions, lost four starters off last year’s squad, headlined by Tom Brown’s departure. The All-American win averaged nearly 25 points per game and knocked down 54 percent of his shots. Senior wing Doug Espenson has stepped in and leads the Gusties in points (19.0 ppg), rebounds (6.8 rpg), steals (2.0 spg) and blocked shots (1.7 bpg). Guard Adam TeBrake is second in scoring (12.5 ppg) and first in assists (3.3 apg).
Guy Kalland enters his 21st year at the helm of the Carleton men’s basketball program as one of the most successful coaches in the MIAC. A 1974 graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Kalland has led his team to the MIAC playoffs 11 times in the past 15 seasons and 12 times overall. The 2002-03 season marked another milestone in his storied career, as he passed his predecessor, Jack Thurnblad, as Carleton’s all-time winningest coach. He also reached a coaching milestone with his 250th win on Dec. 6, 2003, against Augsburg College. Kalland, a former assistant men’s basketball coach at the University of Minnesota from 1979-80, spent four years at Inver Hills (Minn.) Community College, leading the team to a 1982 state championship and runner-up honors in Region XIII. Kalland also coached for three years at Eagle Bend (Minn.) High School and Cannon Falls (Minn.) High School. He runs numerous successful basketball camps during the summer, and is a professor of physical education, athletics and recreation at Carleton. Kalland and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Abby, a 2004 graduate of Carleton and a former member of the Knights’ women’s basketball and softball teams.

Kalland is 265-247 in his 21st season at Carleton and overall. He is one of only four MIAC coaches with 250 or more wins at his respective school.
