for Carleton, seven for Bethel). It marked the sixth-most three-pointers made in a single game in Carleton history and the most in four seasons.

The Knights rallied from a 13-point deficit in the second half primarily in the three-point shot. Trailing 53-40 less than five minutes into the second half, the Knights connected on a trio of threes, two by junior Dan Forkrud, eventually outscoring the hosts 11-0 after a pair of Forkrud free throws to pull within two, 53-51.

Bethel, however, wouldn’t relinquish the lead, bumping it back to as many as seven points before the Knights’ final push. Tommy Drake hit a three, Baquero canned a jumper and made one of two free throws and a second Drake bucket brought the Knights with one, 71-70, with under two minutes left. Bethel’s Travis Jones stemmed the tide momentarily with a basket, but Baquero’s fourth long-range connection of the game tied the game at 73-73.

On Bethel’s next possession, Trent Perry fouled Isaac Hinrichs alone under the basket for two. Carleton missed on a three-point attempt by Beste in the corner with four seconds left, and Perry calmly sank both free throws after being fouled to seal the win for Bethel.

Baquero’s 17 points paced the Knights and Forkrud added 16 points and five rebounds for the Knights, who dropped into a third-place tie with the Royals with the loss. Kyle Beste added 12 points, four rebounds and four assists and Drake added 11 points, eight rebounds and five assists.

Last meeting: Jan. 10, 2005, St. Thomas 67, Carleton 66

Dan Forkrud scored a career-high 25 points and added 11 rebounds, five assists and three steals, but for the second time in six days Carleton lost on an improbable shot as St. Thomas banked home a three-pointer with five seconds left to beat the Knights, 67-66.

With his team trailing by two, UST’s Sean Sweeney dribbled to the top of the key and let fly a three that hit the glass, rolled around the rim and home. His heroics offset a monster performance by Forkrud, which came one game after he scored a career-worst two points against Macalester this past Saturday. He was 10-for-17 from the field and held UST’s leading scorer, Isaac Rosefelt, to eight points and four turnovers.

Kyle Beste tallied 18 points and Tommy Drake added 12 points, eight rebounds and three steals. Anthony Baquero was also in double figures with 11 for Carleton. After a Carleton miss with 1:14 left and the game tied, the Tommies threw the ball away. Beste scored on a pull-up jumper at the right elbow with 25 seconds left, and a subsequent Tommie turnover with 14 seconds appeared to seal UST’s fate.

On the inbound play, however, Carleton’s return pass to the inbounder hit the end line. It set up Sweeney’s game winner, although Carleton had more...

one more chance. With three seconds showing on the clock, the Knights set up a play. After the ball was inbounded and the Carleton player took two dribbles, the official waved the play dead, saying the clock wasn't started on time. On the restart, Jake Phillips' desperation three was just off the mark.

Beste continues move up career scoring list

Kyle Beste added 12 points to his career total on Wednesday moving him just eight points away from Roy Hanson '79, who is in seventh place on Carleton's all-time scoring list. On Monday he scored 13 points against St. Mary's, which moved him past his former teammate Tanner Schieck '03 and into eighth place by himself on the Carleton all-time scoring list. He currently has 1,997 career points. His 18.9 points per game scoring average is fourth best in the conference. At his current pace, Beste could move into Carleton's top three in all-time scoring.

Baquero among nation's long range shooting leaders

Anthony Baquero is currently ranked among the nation's leaders in three-pointers made and three-point percentage, through games of Jan. 16. The senior ranks 81th with 3.5 three-pointers made per game and 19th in percentage at 46.2 percent. Currently, his 3.57 three-pointers made per game in tops in the MIAC, and his 46.2 percent shooting is fifth best in the conference. He is also the MIAC's sixth leading scorer, as he is averaging 16.0 points per game.

Carleton-St. Thomas Series

Saturday marks the 72nd meeting on the hardwood between Carleton and St. Thomas, with the Tommies holding a 44-23 spread, dating back to the first meeting on Feb. 15, 1918. Three of last even meetings have been decided by two-points or less, including last week's 67-66 Tommie victory. In last season's game in St. Paul, Carleton posted its biggest win ever over St. Thomas, 79-42, on Jan. 14.

About St. Thomas

The Tommies enter tonight's contest as the last unbeaten team in MIAC play. Steve Fritz's ball club has benefited from a trio of transfers this season, most notably sophomore Isaac Rosefelt from Bowling Green and the return of Sean Sweeney from UW-Green Bay. Sweeney started for the Tommies in 2002-03 as a freshman. Brian Schneitler transferred from UW- Superior and leads the team in three-point shooting percentage.

Rosefelt leads the team in scoring and rebounding, with his 12.2 rebounds per game ranking him sixth in the nation. He is also averaging 15.2 points per game. Senior Neal Anderson, last season's feel-good story in the MIAC after not making his high school team yet earning All-MIAC honors a year ago, is second on the team in scoring with 14.1 points per game. Junior Joey Shimek has been a great compliment to Rosefelt down low, averaging 12.2 points per game scoring and shooting a gaudy 61 percent from the floor. Sweeney, whose bank three-pointer broke the Knights' hearts last week, is the fourth in conference play in assists with 5.2 per game.

The Tommies are coached by Steve Fritz, who is in his 25th season at St. Thomas. He has run one of the most successful programs in the MIAC, as the Tommies have suffered only one losing season during his tenure.

Jottings

Today's game is a matchup of the best and worst rebounding teams in the conference... St. Thomas is averaging 76 more rebounds per game than their opponents, while Carleton is averaging 5.8 rebounds less than their opponents... Knights point guard Jake Phillips is averaging 4.6

assists per game in MIAC play, which is third best in the conference... Carleton's consecutive overtime games against Concordia and Macalester marked the fourth time such a thing had occurred in Knights' history, the last being the 1998-99 season... Before Saturday's game against St. Olaf, the Knights honored senior forward Kyle Beste for scoring his 1,000th career point. Beste scored his 1,000th point in the Knights' Dec. 6 victory over St. John's... Carleton forward Dan Forkrud is third in the conference with 33 offensive rebounds per game in MIAC play.

Guy Kalland

Guy Kalland enters his 21st year at the helm of the Carleton men's basketball program as one of the most successful coaches in the MIAC. A 1974 graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Kalland has led his team to the MIAC playoffs 11 times in the past 15 seasons and 12 times overall. The 2002-03 season marked another milestone in his storied career, as he passed his predecessor, Jack Thurnblad, as Carleton's all-time winningest coach. He also reached a coaching milestone with his 250th win on Dec. 6, 2003, against Augsburg College. Kalland, a former assistant men's basketball coach at the University of Minnesota from 1979-80, spent four years at Inver Hills (Minn.) Community College, leading the team to a 1982 state championship and runner-up honors in Region XII. Kalland also coached for three years at Eagle Bend (Minn.) High School and Cannon Falls (Minn.) High School. He runs numerous successful basketball camps during the summer, and is a professor of physical education, athletics and recreation at Carleton. Kalland and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Abby, a 2004 graduate of Carleton and a former member of the Knights' women's basketball and softball teams.

Kalland is 269-250 in his 21st season at Carleton and overall. He is one of only four MAC coaches with 250 or more wins at his respective school.
