Carleton closes out pre-holiday slate at St. Mary’s

The Knights end an eight-game road stretch to start the 2004-05 season by traveling to St. Mary’s University. The contest also marks the third road game against a 2004 MIAC Playoff qualifier for Carleton, which plays 10 of its final 14 contests at West Gym this season.

Broadcast information

Saturday’s game can be heard in Northfield and the surrounding area on KQQL 95.9 FM, with pregame beginning at 12:45 p.m. It will also be broadcast worldwide on the web via Knights Online (www.carleton.edu/athletics/broadcasts/).

Last time out – Carleton 64, Augsburg 54

Katie Freeman claimed a double-double with 13 points, 10 rebounds, five assists and three steals, leading Carleton to its fourth straight victory, a 64-54 triumph over Augsburg on Wednesday.

Four of the five Carleton starters scored in double figures, producing 46 of the Knights’ 64 points. Megan Vig and Kari Christianson added 12 points apiece for the Knights, with Vig contributing nine rebounds, three blocks and two steals, and Christianson contributing seven rebounds and five steals. Beth Freeman had 11 points and six rebounds, and Kristi Colbenson scored 10 points with six rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Knights fall out of national polls for first time since 2001-02

With its trio of losses to start the season, Carleton fell out of the D3hoops.com top 25 poll and the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA top 25 poll. It is the first time since Jan. 20, 2002, the Knights won't be nationally ranked, a string of 36 consecutive polls. Carleton remains ranked 20th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll, as the new poll won't be released until Dec. 11. Carleton was ranked 20th in the preseason WBCA poll and 12th in the D3hoops.com preseason poll before rising to seventh.

Christianson finds groove in MIAC play

Kari Christianson has exploded onto the scoring scene since Carleton's first three contests. She averaged 5.2 points per game in the first three contests, but is averaging 14.8 points per game in Carleton's four MIAC games. This includes a career-best 18 points and seven rebounds in last Saturday's win over Hamline.

Vig nears all-time top 10

Megan Vig is nearing Carleton's all-time top 10 in scoring. She has 883 points entering Saturday's contest and needs 42 points to surpass Melissa Williams' 97 for 10th on Carleton's all-time list. Vig currently ranks 11th on the all-time list, as she recently surpassed Karissa (Kramer) Binder '03 for 11th on the all-time list.

About SMU

St. Mary’s returns four of five starters from last year’s club which qualified for the MIAC Playoffs for the fourth consecutive year. The Cardinals, however, have yet to win a conference tournament game. They hope earning a top-four finish in the regular-season standings and the home-court advantage that does with it will help overcome their post-season defeats. They’ve rolled to five consecutive wins to start the season, their best start since the Cardinals started the 1985-86 season 18-0. A closer look at their start, however, shows their five opponents are a combined 6-21.

Senior Jamie Rattunde keys the Cardinal attack, as she is second on the team in scoring and first in rebounds and assists. Her defensive strength and anticipation is second-to-none in the conference, as she set a new MIAC record with 94 steals in 22 conference contests last year. Guards Angie Arrington and Ashley Luehmann form a strong three-headed shooting combination for Coach Dan Messmann, as the trio accounts for more than half of the Cardinals’ points this season.

SMU uses the three-pointer, shooting nearly 25 shots from beyond the arc per game.

SMU-Carleton Series

The Cardinals lead the all-time series, 25-24, and have won 14 of the 24 meetings on their home floor. Carleton, however, has beaten SMU five consecutive times, with an average margin in those contests of more than 19 points. Carleton Coach Tammy Metcalf-Filzen is 10-4 as the Knights’ head coach against SMU.

Last Meeting: Feb. 4, 2004, at Carleton 79, St. Mary’s 68

Beth Freeman and Kristi Colbenson scored 18 points each as sixth-ranked Carleton shot 56 percent in the second half to defeat St. Mary’s University, 79-68. Beth Freeman was 8-for-9 from the field and added nine rebounds to lead the Knights. Colbenson grabbed seven rebounds and dished out three assists while matching her career-high scoring total. Jamie Rattunde of St. Mary’s led all scorers with 28 points, 18 in the first half. She also notched all nine of her steals in the first half and grabbed seven rebounds. Angie Arrington tallied 16 points and Ashley Luehmann added 12 for the Cardinals. Megan Vig chipped in with 16 points and seven rebounds for the Knights, who opened the second half on a tear, outscoring the Cardinals 14-4 to stretch the lead to 49-30 as Colbenson tallied six points during the string.

Up Next

Carleton is now off until after the holidays, when it opens its home schedule against Gustavus Adolphus College on Monday, Jan. 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen is in her eighth season as head coach at Carleton. In only seven seasons she has turned the program into a conference contender, leading them to four consecutive MIAC Playoff titles, 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament bids in 2000-01, 2001-02, 2002-03 and 2003-04. The Knights have won the MIAC’s regular-season title in 2002-03 and 2003-04. She was named the 2003-04 MIAC coach of the year, 1 year after she was named the MIAC co-coach of the year and repeated as WBCA Region Coach of the Year, leading the Knights to a school-record 25 victories. She earned the same honors in 2000-01. She previously served as head coach at St. Olaf and as an assistant at Temple and Minnesota. She is Carleton's all-time winningest coach.

Metcalfe-Filzen has presided over one of the most remarkable turnarounds in all of NCAA Division III women's basketball. When she took over prior to the 1997-98 season, the Knights had a program winning percentage of .323. Since Metcalfe-Filzen assumed the head coaching position, the program has winning percentage of .715 and has posted its first 20-win seasons. Metcalfe-Filzen has led Carleton to a 74-33 record over the last three seasons and 95-18 over the last four seasons, heading into the 2004-05 season.

Carleton has improved its record in each of Metcalfe-Filzen's first six seasons and her .688 winning percentage is the best in school history. A 1983 St. Olaf graduate, Metcalfe-Filzen earned her M.S. from the University of Minnesota in 1987. She won four varsity letters as a point guard for the Oles, twice earning All-MIAC honors, led the NCAA Division III in free-throw percentage in 1982-83, and was inducted into the St. Olaf Hall of Fame in 1999 and the Northfield Hall of Fame in 1992.

Metcalfe-Filzen owns a 165-83 record in 10 seasons overall and 139-57 in eight seasons at Carleton.
