Carleton ends non-conference play at Upper Iowa
Carleton concludes its nonconference schedule by traveling south to Fayette, Iowa, to face Division II Upper Iowa University. The Peacocks, a former Division III member of the Iowa Conference, is now a DII independent.

Broadcast Information
Thursday's contest will be broadcast by KWMG 95.3 FM out of Independence, Iowa. Upper Iowa carries their broadcast live via their website or on sportsjuice.com.

Last time out – Carleton 82, UW-La Crosse 68
Kyle Beste continued his torrid scoring pace, delivering 24 points, and Carleton set a new school record for field-goal accuracy, canning 61 percent of its shots an 82-68 victory at UW-La Crosse on Monday, Dec. 13. Beste made 8-of-11 shots from the floor and 8-for-9 from the line in posting his second 20+ scoring output of the season.

Dan Forkrud added 20 points and six boards for the Knights, who were playing their final game before the holidays. Carleton has now won three of its last four games. Tommy Drake added 13 points and Anthony Baquero chipped in with 12.

The hosts shot a season-high 48 percent from the field and 81 percent from the free throw line, but the Knights canned 25-of-41 from the floor (61.0 percent) and 27-for-29 from the line (93.1 percent), nearly breaking the school record for free-throw percentage.

Last meeting: Nov. 25, 2003, Carleton 76, Upper Iowa 46
Tanner Schieck ’04 scored 20 points and grabbed 14 rebounds for his 12th career double-double and Kyle Beste added 14 points as host Carleton rolled past Upper Iowa, 76-46, in the season opener for the Knights.

Dan Forkrud added 11 points and six rebounds for the Knights, who held a 45-23 edge on the glass and outscored the visitors 24-4 in second-chance points and 34-18 on points in the paint.

Aaron Carter paced the Peacocks with 12 points.

Carleton raced to a 12-0 lead in the first four minutes. The Peacocks trimmed the Knight advantage to 19-13 on consecutive triples by Nick Joyce and Jamin Trost, but the Knights ripped off nine consecutive points, including a lay-up and three-pointer by Khalid Lakanwal, making his first career start.

The Peacocks never got any closer than 16 points, as Carleton maintained a minimum of a 20-point advantage over the final 10 minutes of the game.

Beste named MIAC player of the week
Kyle Beste was named the MIAC’s player of the week after two huge games during the week of Dec. 6-12. Beste averaged 22.0 points, 75 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 2.0 steals and shot 51.5 percent from the floor in Carleton’s two contests last week, surpassing the 1,000-point plateau in the process. In Monday's 76-49 win at St. John's, Beste exploded for 26 points on 11-of-17 shooting and added six boards and two steals. He tallied 16 points in the second half, scoring seven of Carleton's first nine points of the half to help the Knights blow the game open. In Wednesday's loss to Augsburg, the senior scored 18 points, gathered nine rebounds and dished out six assists. He is the 18th player in Carleton history to score 1,000 points in a career. Beste currently leads the Knights with an 19.0 point-per-game average. He's posted 5.6 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game as well.

Beste continues climb up scoring chart

Kyle Beste continues to move up the Carleton career scoring list. With 68 points over the last three games, the senior moved past the 1,000-point mark for his career. He currently sits 16th on the school's scoring list with 1,050 points in 85 career contests. He needs 19 more points to pass Howard Rosenblum '55 and 21 to surpass former teammate Scott Christensen '03. At his current pace, Beste could move into Carleton's top five in all-time scoring.

Knights three-point attack heats up

Carleton has posted a number of impressive three-point shooting performances during its first six games. Sophomore point guard Jake Phillips canned 6-of-8 three-point attempts against Chaminade on Nov. 27. The six 3-pointers tied for eighth-most in a single game in Carleton history and the .750 three-point percentage ranks fourth all-time at Carleton, with a minimum of five attempts. Against Hawaii Pacific on Nov. 29, Anthony Baquero canned seven triples, matching his career high and ranking him fourth on the single-game Carleton list for most three-pointers made. Carleton made 28 three-pointers in the first three games combined, including 22 in the final two games. They added 30 in its first three MIAC games combined, going 30-for-72 (41.7 percent) from beyond the arc in conference action, ranking second in the MIAC.

Upper Iowa-Carleton Series

Carleton owns a 3-1 advantage in the series with Upper Iowa. The Peacocks won the first meeting on Feb. 21, 1919, one of only two Carleton losses in a 9-2-1 campaign. Carleton has won the last three contests, including victories on Dec. 30, 1975, and Dec. 28, 1977, at a holiday tournament. This marks Carleton's third trip to Fayette, where it is 1-1.
Guy Kalland enters his 21st year at the helm of the Carleton men's basketball program as one of the most successful coaches in the MIAC. A 1974 graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Kalland has led his team to the MIAC playoffs 11 times in the past 15 seasons and 12 times overall. The 2002-03 season marked another milestone in his storied career, as he passed his predecessor, Jack Thurnblad, as Carleton's all-time winningest coach. He also reached a coaching milestone with his 250th win on Dec. 6, 2003, against Augsburg College. Kalland, a former assistant men's basketball coach at the University of Minnesota from 1979-80, spent four years at Inver Hills (Minn.) Community College, leading the team to a 1982 state championship and runner-up honors in Region XIII. Kalland also coached for three years at Eagle Bend (Minn.) High School and Cannon Falls (Minn.) High School. He runs numerous successful basketball camps during the summer, and is a professor of physical education, athletics and recreation at Carleton. Kalland and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Abby, a 2004 graduate of Carleton and a former member of the Knights' women's basketball and softball teams.

Kalland is 264-247 in his 21st season at Carleton and overall. He is one of only four MIAC coaches with 250 or more wins at his respective school.
