KNIGHTS NEWS AND NOTES

- LAST GAME: Seth Jonker made the best of his first collegiate start by posting a double-double (11 points and 10 rebounds), but the Knights still lost to Wisconsin-La Crosse 66-49. Carleton was ice cold from the field all night, shooting a season-worst 31.4 percent while La Crosse shot 54.5 percent.

- Coach Guy Kalland's team takes care of the basketball as they are second in the MIAC in assist/turnover ratio (1.46)... The Knights are averaging 8 three-pointers a game, tops in the MIAC.

- The Knights have, uncharacteristically, struggled from the free throw line this season. Carleton is shooting 61.4 percent from behind the charity stripe including 52 percent shooting in its recent loss to UW-La Crosse.

- Carleton has defeated two Division II teams this season: Western New Mexico University (80-70) and Chaminade University (74-69) (which lost to Big Ten's Indiana University by two points the week before).

- Zach Johnson is third in school history with 1,625 career points (SEE CHART AT RIGHT)... He is currently 278 points behind Gerrick Monroe for second and 342 behind Josh Wilhelm for the top spot.
  - Johnson is the only active MIAC player to score 36 or more points in a game twice in his career and the lone Carleton player to accomplish the feat on multiple occasions.

- Q: Who's next in line to join Zach Johnson in the 1,000-point club?
  A: Bryan Rosett, who has 661 career points.

- Carleton has hit at least one three-pointer in all 291 games since the start of the 1997-98 campaign. It is believed to be one of the 10 longest active streaks among Division III teams.

- On January 21, Guy Kalland coached his 600th career game for Carleton. He is one of only five coaches in MIAC history to have won 250 conference games.

- LAST SEASON: Carleton clinched a MIAC Payoff berth last season for the seventh consecutive season and 16th time overall

HAMLINE UNIVERSITY NOTES:

- The Hamline Pipers like to put pressure on the ball; as a result, they are second in the MIAC in steals (10.43 steals per game)
- On offense, the Pipers have demonstrated that they can put points on the scoreboard, averaging 73.3 points per game. Many of these points come from beyond the arc since Hamline averages 7.13 three-pointers a game.
- At 6-8, center Carl Hipp is a large presence for the Pipers. He leads the MIAC in offensive rebounds, and he is third in blocked shots.
- Senior guard Tony Thrasher leads the team in scoring (16.1), and shoots an impressive 48.3% from behind the arc.
