KNIGHTS NEWS AND NOTES

- LAST GAME: Blaise Davis tallied a career-best 15 points and converted the game-winning layup to propel Carleton to a 66-64 victory over visiting Augsburg. He scored 10 of the Knights’ final 21 points as Carleton erased a 10-point second-half deficit and moved into sole possession of third place in the conference standings. Augsburg led 52-42 with 13:30 remaining, but Carleton finished the contest with a 24-12 run to secure the two-point victory.

- For the sixth time in his career—and second time this season—Zach Johnson was voted the MIAC Men’s Basketball Athlete of the Week for Jan. 5-11. Johnson was also selected to the D3HOOPS.com national team of the week.

- Bryan Rossett is the only MIAC players to rank among the league’s Top 15 in points, rebounds and assists.

- Carleton has owned a definite three-point advantage this season. The Knights lead the MIAC in three-point shots made per game converting 7.8 triples a game. While the Knights are making more three-pointers than anyone else, they are also limiting their opponents to the lowest three-point field goal percentage (27.9%) and the fewest made treys (53) in the MIAC.

- Carleton defeated two Division II teams earlier this season: Western New Mexico University (80-70) and Chaminade University (74-69) (which lost to Big Ten’s Indiana University by two points the week before).

- Zach Johnson is third in school history with 1,723 career points (SEE CHART BELOW)... He is currently 180 points behind Gerrick Monroe for second and 244 behind Josh Wilhelm for the top spot.

- Johnson is the only active MIAC player to score 36 or more points in a game twice in his career and the lone Carleton player to accomplish the feat on multiple occasions.

- Q: Who’s next in line to join Zach Johnson in the 1,000-point club?
  A: Bryan Rossett, who has 751 career points.

- Carleton has hit at least one three-pointer in all 294 games since the start of the 1997-98 campaign. It is believed to be one of the 10 longest active streaks among Division III teams.

- On January 21, Guy Kalland coached his 600th career game for Carleton. He is one of only five coaches in MIAC history to have won 250 conference games.

- LAST SEASON: Carleton clinched a MIAC Payoff berth last season for the seventh consecutive season and 16th time overall

MACALESTER COLLEGE NOTES:

- Macalester is in the midst of a rebuilding year. The Scots two best players are sophomores. Colin Keeley averages over 12 points and 5 rebounds a game, and Kyle Hambleet averages almost 12 points, 3 rebounds and 2 steals a game.

- Macalester has not received a lot from anyone other than those two and it has resulted in what is so far a winless season. Most nights the Scots have a hard time staying competitive with their opponents. They have only had two games all year where Macalester was within 10 and in only five of their fourteen games have the Scots been within 20 at the final horn. However, Macalester has picked their play recently. Against St. Olaf, Macalester was ahead at halftime before falling by six.
