LAST GAME

Zach Johnson scored a game-high 27 points to lead Carleton College to a 76-65 victory over visiting Concordia College-Moorhead. Johnson scored 15 second-half points and finished the afternoon with 5 rebounds, 5 steals and a career-best 7 assists.

The Knights did not trail in the contest and jumped out to a 13-2 lead. Concordia trimmed the gap to three points, 27-24, on Erik Lien's breakaway dunk with 3:27 remaining in the first half, but Carter Biewen knocked down a pair of triples as Carleton pushed the lead back up to eight at the break.

During the first half, the Cobbers scored 22 points in the paint compared to only 12 for Carleton. The Knights however were thriving from the outside, knocking down 7-of-10 shots from beyond the arc during the first 20 minutes.

Midway through the second half, Carleton went on a 13-0 run—keyed by four Johnson steals—to pull away. Concordia came up empty on seven consecutive possessions and quickly found itself trailing by 19 points, 64-45. The Cobbers managed to cut the deficit to under 10 with less than a minute remaining, but Carleton took care of the basketball and secured the victory.

Biewen and Jeremy Sutherland also reach double digits, contributing 11 points apiece for Carleton.

- Carleton is 2-0 in MIAC play for the first time since 2004-05. Over the last night years, the Knights began 3-0 in conference action only once, the 2003-04 campaign.

- Carleton already has four road wins this season after posting a 5-10 mark away from home last season.

- The College Sporting News announced its Preseason All-MIAC Team last week. A pair of Carleton Knights were second team selections, as Tommy Drake and Zach Johnson received the honor. This week, Carleton will get a look at first-teamers Brady Brink of St. John’s and Tim Madson and Mike Moberg of Bethel.

- Tommy Drake and Zach Johnson both eclipsed 1,000 career points this season (see chart below). The next closest player on the Carleton roster to reaching that milestone is Bryan Rosett who has 276 career points.

- Head Coach Guy Kalland is one of only five coaches in MIAC history to have won 250 conference games.

Scouting the Johnnies:
The 2007-08 season marks Jim Smith’s 44th season as head basketball coach in Collegeville with a 674-463 career record (.593).

Saint John’s finished second in the MIAC and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2006-07.

Like Carleton, the Johnnies are 2-0 in conference action following wins over Concordia (71-62) and St. Mary’s (80-77).

Senior Randy Lieser is the only starter returning from last year’s tourney team.

This season, the bulk of the SJU scoring has come from Lieser (20.3 ppg) and fellow wing Brady Brink (23.3 ppg). They rank sixth and fourth respectively among MIAC players.

Brink was named the 2006-07 MIAC Sixth Man of the Year award winner and is averaging a double-double this season, pulling down 11.0 rebounds a night.

He’s not the only Johnnie cleaning the glass as freshman Aaron Burtsel has pulled down 10.3 rebounds a game while adding 9.3 points a contest.

• The Johnnies are holding opponents to only 40.6% shooting, including 34.4% from long range.

Bethel College Royals

Scouting the Royals:
The high-scoring Bethel Royals feature four returners with significant varsity playing experience. That group includes juniors Tim Madson and Mike Moberg, who were All-MIAC selections for 2006-07.

Bethel went 18-8 overall a year ago and finished third in the MIAC with a 13-7 mark.

In their loss to Hamline on Saturday, the Royals had a one-point lead with a minute remaining, but the Pipers’ Eric Clute scored five unanswered points and Hamline went on to win 87-81.

A year ago Madson was second in the conference with 19.5 points per game, while shooting 40% from the 3-point line. This year he is accounting for 28.0 points a contest, tops in the MIAC. He is second in the league to Carleton’s Zach Johnson with 14 steals.

Moberg has chipped in 21.3 points and 9.8 boards a night.

• Bethel has averaged 87.2 points a game, but is allowing 85.6 points. The Royals have scored at least 81 points in each game and broken 90 twice.

• The Royals are 3-1 at home this year and 0-1 on the road.
