KNIGHTS AND GUSTIES MEET IN THE PLAYOFFS...AGAIN

For the second time in a week Carleton and Gustavus will meet, but this time more is on the line as one team's season will end and the other advances to Saturday's MIAC Playoff Finals. The Gusties are 4-1 against the Knights in the postseason, including a 70-59 victory in last year's quarterfinals. The Gusties are making their 18th MIAC Playoff appearance, second most in the conference, and Carleton is in the conference tourney for the 16th time. The Gusties have nine MIAC Playoff titles.

MONDAY'S GAME: Zach Johnson totaled 22 points, 12 rebounds, 4 assists and 3 steals in leading Carleton to a 65-49 win over Saint John's. The Knights shot 51 percent in the game, including a blistering 70 percent in the second half to pull away for their sixth straight win. The Knights led 26-24 with 18:30 remaining and used a 14-0 run over the next four minutes to exert control over the contest. The Carleton advantage did not drop below 14 points, and grew as high as 21, over the tilt's final 14 minutes. Tommy Drake and Jeremy Sutherland added 12 points for Carleton, but it was their work at the defensive end the floor that paid biggest dividends for the hosts, who recorded their first playoff victory over the Johnnies in four tries. The pair limited Saint John's second and third-leading scorers, Ryan Leiser and Chris Schwartz, to 12 combined points on 5-of-23 shooting. The 49 points given up by the Knights was their second-best defensive effort in playoff history, exceeded only by a 55-48 win over Gustavus during the 2006 tourney.

Knights News and Notes

- Carleton clinched a MIAC Payoff berth for the seventh consecutive season and 16th time overall.

- The Knights’ 19 victories this year is the second-highest total in school history. The 2005-06 squad went 21-7.

- Carleton was 5-5 at home this year and a very impressive 13-2 on the road this season after going 5-10 away from home last year. The Knights, however, will be looking for their first victory on the road during the MIAC Playoffs. They are 0-13 away from home in the post-season.

- Carleton’s 6-game win streak is the longest active streak in the MIAC (men or women).

- Zach Johnson and Tommy Drake are the only players to rank among the conference’s overall leaders in points, rebounds and assists.

- Additional notes on Johnson
  - Sixth in school history with 1,424 career points, 15 points out of fifth place
  - Rated his career high with 36 points against Saint Mary’s on February 9.
  - Only active MIAC player to score 36 or more points in a game twice in his career.
  - Lon Carleton player to accomplish the feat on multiple occasions.
  - Ranks 46th in Division III by scoring 20.6 points per game...averaging 27.5 ppg over last six games.

- This year Carleton has been whistled for only 12.4 fouls per game, which leads all of the NCAA (regardless of division). The Knights committed only 4 fouls versus Augsburg on January 23. During the 2006-07 season, the Knights led all of the NCAA (regardless of division) in fewest fouls per game, as they averaged a mere 13.2 personal fouls in each contest.

- Other Division III rankings (entering the playoffs) for Carleton:
  - 65.6 points allowed (T-71st)
  - 47.6 team field-goal percentage (53rd); 38.0 percent of three-point shots (63rd)
  - 15.8 assists/G (T-47th) + 12.4 turnovers/G (24th) = assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.28 (13th)
  - 17 of the Knights’ 25 games this season have been decided by eight points or less, including six by two points or less (this includes both games versus Saint John’s).

- Carleton boasts a pair of 1,000-point scorers. Senior Zach Johnson enters today 6th on the school’s all-time scoring list with 1,424 points. Senior Tommy Drake, who ranks 10th with 1,258 points (SEE PAGE 4). Who’s next in line to join Drake and Johnson in the 1,000-point club? Bryan Rossett, who has 598 career points.

- INJURY NOTES: The Knights are basically back to full strength with the return of point guard Jeremy Sutherland to the lineup. The sophomore was cleared for action on February 9 after missing the previous 10 games with a displaced fracture in his shooting hand. He sustained the injury on January 5 at St. Thomas on the same play that Carleton leading scorer Zach Johnson suffered a concussion. Sutherland underwent surgery on Jan. 9 to insert two pins and had his hard cast last week. Carleton went 5-5 without Sutherland and is 14-2 with him on the floor. Wing Tommy Drake missed the Dec. 12 game at Wisconsin-La Crosse to have surgery to repair a broken nose, an injury that occurred during on December 1 versus Concordia.

- A strong start is important for every team, and Carleton is proving that this year. The Knights are 13-1 when leading at halftime. Carleton is 6-4 this season when trailing at the half compared to 5-11 a year ago. Dating back to Feb. 7, 2007, the Knights have come back to win 9 of the last 14 games in which they were behind at intermission.

- Carleton has hit at least one three-pointer in all 282 games since the start of the 1997-98 campaign. It is believed to be one of the 10 longest active streaks among Division III teams.

- On January 21, Guy Kalland coached his 600th career game for Carleton. He is one of only five coaches in MIAC history to have won 250 conference games.

Scouting the Gusties

The Gusties have lost three of their last five, including a 74-66 defeat by Carleton in the regular-season finale on Saturday.

Gustavus owns the top-ranked defense in the MIAC, allowing only 46.4 points per game with opponents shooting a league-worst 32.5 percent from the field. The Gusties are the top rebounding squad in the league and average nearly 12 offensive rebounds per contest. They are also second-best shooting team at 48 percent, including 39 percent from three-point land.

The Gusties top player is senior Trevor Wittwer, who averages 15.0 points, 6.4 rebounds, 2.0 assists and more than a block and a steal per game.

Sharpshooters Kane Sivesind (10.9) and Jesse Van Sickle (10.4) are extremely dangerous from the outside. Van Sickle is the top 3-point shooter in the MIAC (43.8 percent). Point guard Mike DesLauriers paces the league in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.08).

Previous Meetings--

Gustavus 70, Carleton 65

Carter Biewen finished with a career-high 17. Carleton got 62 of its 65 points from the foursome of Biewen, Zach Johnson (17), Tommy Drake (17) and Bryan Rossett (11). Before fouling out, Trevor Wittwer had 22 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Gusties attack. Gustavus was 10-for-20 from three-point land with an impressive 7-for-12 performance in the first half.

St. Peter, Minn. - Feb. 23, 2008:

Carleton 74, Gustavus 66

Zach Johnson knocked down several key shots and poured in 32 points as Carleton secured the third seed in the MIAC Playoffs. Carleton blistered the nets, shooting 68 percent from the field in the first half and an impressive 58 percent overall. The team’s traded a series of runs in the second half. As the game slipped under the three-minute mark and Carleton holding a slim 65-62 lead, Johnson scored eight of Carleton’s final 11 points.
