LAST GAME FOR CARLETON:

Forward Sarah Lincoln notched her second double-double of the season with 12 points and a dozen rebounds to propel Carleton to a 60-52 victory over visiting Macalester College. It was the Knights fifth consecutive triumph. Hannah Oken-Berg added a team-best 18 points and now has 999 over her career.

The victory keeps Carleton in a tie with Concordia for fourth in the conference. The Knights hold the tie-breaker, however, after sweeping the season series from the Cobbers.

Lincoln’s double-double was her eighth of the career, but it wasn’t the only one in the game.

Macalester’s Ann Baltzer tallied a game high 22 points and 11 rebounds for her ninth double-double of the year. Trina PaStarr added 19 points and eight rebounds.

Macalester’s Ann Baltzer tallied a game high 22 points and 11 rebounds for her ninth double-double of the year. Trina PaStarr added 19 points and eight rebounds.

Carleton made 11-of-12 free throws in the first half to build a 34-25 lead at the break. Macalester trimmed the deficit to two at 48-46 midway through the second half, but would get no closer.

Both teams did the bulk of their scoring down low with Carleton holding a slight 36-34 in points in the paint. Neither team found much success beyond the arc as the Scots shot 1-for-10 (10%

Carleton was able to exploit its advantage in depth, building a 24-0 edge in bench scoring. That included a 12-point effort by Amber Connor.

Knights News and Notes

- Carleton head coach Tammy Metcalf-Filzen will be recognized tonight by St. Olaf as part of the "Celebrating 25 Years of Women’s Athletics in the MIAC." Metcalf-Filzen, a 1983 graduate and Athletics Hall of Famer at St. Olaf, is in her 11th season as head women’s basketball coach at Carleton. As a student-athlete at St. Olaf, Metcalf-Filzen was a four-time letterwinner and two-time All-MIAC honoree in basketball. In 1982-83, she led the country in free-throw percentage. She was inducted to the St. Olaf Hall of Fame in 1999. She spent two seasons as the head coach at St. Olaf before becoming an assistant at Division I Temple and the University of Minnesota.

- Since landing the job at Carleton in 1992, she has become winningest women’s basketball coach in school history (206-86, .705). Metcalf-Filzen has been named the MIAC’s Coach of the Year and the Region Coach of the Year three times. Her teams have averaged 20 wins or more over the past six seasons, gained three regular-season titles and collected four straight MIAC Tournament Championships from 2001-2004. She reached the 200-win plateau for her career last season and notched her 200th victory with Carleton earlier this season.

- The Knights have already secured their eighth consecutive berth in the MIAC Playoffs and have qualified for the conference post-season tournament each year during the event’s history. Only Carleton, St. Benedict and Gustavus have qualified for every conference tournament. Carleton advanced to the MIAC Playoffs title game the first six seasons before losing to St. Benedict’s in the semifinals a year ago.

- PLAYOFF TIE BREAKERS -- In the event that Carleton finishes the regular season tied with another team in the conference standings, the tie-breakers kick in beginning with #1 and progressing to subsequent steps then needed. The Knights cannot finish higher than third as they can’t catch St. Ben’s and lose the first tie-breaker to St. Thomas. Here are the six tie-breakers in order:
  1. Head to head competition (Carleton currently holds this tie breaker with Concordia and trails Gustavus 1-0 with one game left.)
  2. Results against all teams above those tied
  3. Results against all teams beginning in rank order.
  4. Order of losses beginning with the 12th seed and moving up to the tied teams.
  5. Best road record.
  6. Coin flip.

- Carleton is ranked 62nd among Division III teams with a 42.5 team field-goal percentage. The squad’s 74.5 perfect free-throw rate is 16th in the nation.

Scouting the Oles:

After winning three straight road games in late January, St. Olaf has gone 1-6 over its last seven contests.

At 57.4 points per game, the Oles are the lowest scoring squad among MIAC teams this season. One factor is a league-low 38.5 field-goal percentage. They have also struggled at the free-throw line, making only 63.7 percent (11th in the league) of their attempts.

Elyse Erickson leads the team with 16.9 points per game. The Oles are getting 10.6 ppg from Jamie Erdahl and Kristina Stoerner.

Erdahl and Kelsey Oja are the Oles only major threats from beyond the arc, knocking down 77 of the team’s 94 triples this season.

Previous Meeting--

vs. St. Olaf, Jan. 16, 2008: Carleton 75, St. Olaf 51

Carleton maintained possession of the President’s Cup with a 75-51 victory over crosstown rival St. Olaf College. Ally Weaver came off the bench to lead all scorers with 16 points, matching her career high. Carleton shot 60 percent in the second half to pull away.

Weaver had 14 points in the second half and was a perfect 9-for-9 at the free-throw line on the night.

All 12 Knights that saw game action scored this evening.

Sarah Lincoln barely missed a double-double, collecting 11 points and 9 rebounds for Carleton. Sarah Kunelius added 12 points off the bench, including a pair of three-pointers.

Point guard Annie Isler contributed seven points, three assists and three rebounds to go along with her career hightying six steals.

As expected, this contest between crosstown rivals was hard fought on both ends of the floor. Neither team shot especially well in the opening half, going a combined 2 for 10 from beyond the arc over the first 20 minutes.

The Oles only lead of the game came on Jamie Erdahl’s early three-pointer, giving the Oles a 3-2 advantage at the 18:23 mark of the first half. Carleton responded with an 11-2 run and never looked back.

The Knights possessed a 27-20 lead at the break but caught fire after halftime, hitting 12 of 20 shots (60%) from the field and 22 of 28 (78.6%) free throws during a 48-point second half.

Foul trouble played a factor in the second half as St. Olaf’s leading scorers, Erdahl and Elyse Erickson, fouled out after scoring nine points apiece.

Carleton had a decided advantage in free throws, knocking down 28 of 38 overall. The Oles got to the line only 14 times, making eight tries.
