CARLETON, AUGSBURG LOOK TO SNAP LOSING SKIDS

Carleton College and Augsburg College, seeking to snap a three- and six-game losing streak, respectively, meet in Minneapolis in the final home game for the Auggies.

The Knights, after winning their first three games, have lost their next three contests by a combined 19 points. Last week was particularly heartbreaking, as the Knights fell to St. Thomas last week, 47-21, and allowed 60+ points to St. John’s and St. Olaf. They took Concordia to overtime three weeks ago, though. The Auggies have lost 10 straight games, dating back to last year.

FRANK HAS MONSTER DAY AGAINST PIPPERS

Sophomore wide receiver Matt Frank (Caledonia, Minn.) posted his best day as a Knight, catching 11 passes for 139 yards in Carleton’s loss to Hamline. The 11 receptions is tied for the second-most in school history, two behind three-time All-American Jim Bradford’s ‘92 13 catches against St. Thomas in 1990. He is the seventh different Carleton receiver to notch 10 or more catches in a single game and only two—Bradford and Erik Miller ‘01–have done it more than once. Frank’s 11 receptions are the most by a Knight since Bradford’s record-setting effort.

Frank is the MIAC’s leading receiver, both in terms of yardage and receptions. He ranks fifth in Division III with 113.7 yards receiving per game and is the only sophomore to rank in the top 10. His 7.0 receptions per game is 11th-best in Division III.

CASPERS NEARS CAREER COMPLETIONS RECORD

Senior Darren Caspers (Bemidji, Minn.) completed 25 passes on 51 attempts in Saturday’s loss to Hamline. The 25 completions are tied for fifth on Carleton’s single-game list and the 51 attempts is the third-most in school history. Only Ted Kluender ’94 (54) and John Nielson ’91 (52) have thrown more times in a game in Carleton history, and those two and Caspers are the only three players to throw the ball 50 or more times in a single game at Carleton. It marked the first time all season Caspers hasn’t completed at least 50 percent of his passes, and one of his attempts was a spike at the end of the game to stop the clock.

The totals left him with 391 career completions, tying him for second on Carleton’s all-time list with C.G. Shoap ’98. He needs only 11 more completions to pass Jon Groteboer ‘02 on the all-time list.

NOTES ON CARLETON-AUGSBURG MATCH-UP

The Knights have won six times in 12 trips as a MIAC member to Edor Nelson Field. That is the best MIAC road record for Carleton in regards to conference games only. This game features the team leading the conference in turnover margin (+10) in Carleton against the one with the worst (-10) in Augsburg. The Augsburg defense ranks last in scoring defense (46.3 ppg allowed) rush defense (242.8 ypg allowed) and in total defense (460.7 ypg allowed). By contrast, Carleton's defense ranks fourth overall (278.3 ypg allowed) third in rush defense (242.8 ypg allowed) and in total defense (460.7 ypg allowed). Carleton ranks seventh in rushing yards per game in the MIAC at 64.3 yards per game allowed. By contrast, Carleton's defense ranks fourth overall (278.3 ypg allowed) third in rush defense (242.8 ypg allowed) and in total defense (460.7 ypg allowed). Carleton ranks seventh in rushing yards per game in the MIAC at 64.3 yards per game allowed. By contrast, Carleton's defense ranks fourth overall (278.3 ypg allowed) third in rush defense (242.8 ypg allowed) and in total defense (460.7 ypg allowed). Carleton's defense allows its opponents to convert only 25 percent of third-down conversions while Augsburg converts only 25 percent of its third-down opportunities on offense. In 39 trips to the red zone, Augsburg opponents have 34 touchdowns and one field goal. Carleton, meanwhile, has allowed only eight touchdowns to its foes in 18 red-zone trips. Augsburg ranks last in the MIAC with only two sacks through the first six games. Carleton, meanwhile, has allowed a league-high 22 sacks on offense. Carleton's 1,601 passing yards through the first six games are more than they have thrown for in a season since 2001.

CASPERS POSTS RARE CAREER DAY AGAINST JOHNNIE DEFENSE

Darren Caspers (Sr./Bemidji, Minn.) threw for a career-high 314 yards in Carleton's loss at St. John's. It marked the second time in his career that Caspers has surpassed the 300-yard passing mark and the first time since the 2003 NCAA Playoffs the Johnnies had allowed a 300-yard passer, a span of 28 games.

KNIGHTS NOW FIFTH IN DIVISION III IN TURNOVER MARGIN

Saturday's loss to Hamline was the first time all season that Carleton lost the turnover battle. The Knights were –2 in the turnover margin, but they still rank fifth in the country in that category at +2.0 per game. The nation's top-ranked team, Mount Union, is first at +3.2. The Knights' passing offense is ranked 20th in the country at 266.8 yards.

CASPERS PASSES 4,000 YARD MARK IN TOTAL OFFENSE, PASSING

Darren Caspers became only the sixth Carleton player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a career with his 203 yards passing against St. Thomas. He heads into this week's contest with 4,354 yards passing in his four-year career. Caspers has also passed the 4,000-yard mark in total offense in 2004 and 2007. He trails Jon Groteboer '02 by only 113 yards and needs 515 yards to pass 5,000 yards of total offense. Caspers has 1,362 yards passing midway through the season. At his current pace he could become only the second person to pass for more than 2,000 yards in a season. John Nielson '91 did it twice, passing for 2,237 yards in 1989 and 2,197 yards in 1990. If Caspers continued at his current rate he could set a new Carleton single-season record for most pass completions, as Nielson's 100 completions in 1990 is the current standard.

JACKSON CLOSING IN ON SINGLE-SEASON SCORING RECORD

Junior R.J. Jackson (Roseville, Minn./DeLaSalle) scored two more touchdowns in Carleton's loss at St. John's, moving his season scoring total to 54 points through five games. He ranks 22nd in Division III with 9.0 points scored per game, which also ranks him first in the MIAC. He needs to score 41 more points to pass Skye Flanagan's school record of 94 points scored in the 1996 season, and five more touchdowns to break Jim Bradford's 1990 record of 13 touchdowns scored in a single season. Jackson has scored seven rushing touchdowns, one receiving touchdown and one via a kick return.

MORE ON CARLETON’S BETHEL WIN

The Knights’ win over Bethel on Sept. 23 marked their biggest upset since the Knights beat top-ranked St. Thomas during the 1986 season, which put the Knights on the proverbial MIAC map. The Royals were ranked 31st in the Football Gazette Division III poll at the time and were also receiving votes in the D3Football.com top 25 poll. The Royals were picked to finish fourth in the MIAC coaches’ preseason poll while the Knights were slotted ninth.

KOOTSIKAS, TOPEFF KEEP KNIGHT TREND AS PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Carleton senior offensive tackle Matt Topeff (Andover, Minn./Blaine) and senior free safety Mike Kootsikas (Rosemount, Minn.) were named the MIAC’s offensive and defensive players of the week after Carleton’s upset of Bethel.

Topeff, a former tight end, caught a key pass that set up Carleton’s first touchdown and then threw the eventual game-winning touchdown pass of 53 yards as Carleton upset Bethel, 17-14. With the Knights trailing, 7-3, midway through the second quarter, Topeff took a lateral from Darren Caspers, rumbling down to the 2-yard line. Carleton eventually scored to take a 10-7 at halftime. With the Knights trailing midway through the fourth quarter, Topeff took a lateral from Caspers and hit wide receiver Matt Frank for a 53-yard TD. Topeff was part of an offensive effort that had only one turnover.

Kootsikas, who had started his previous 22 career games at wide receiver, tallied six tackles, two pass breakups and an interception in his second career start at free safety. Kootsikas, who didn’t play football his rookie season, ranks in Carleton’s all-time top 10 in tackles, two pass breakups and an interception in his second career start at free safety. He broke up a key third-down pass on Bethel’s last drive from the Carleton 25-yard line and intercepted a pass late in the fourth quarter, Topeff took a lateral from Caspers and hit wide receiver Matt Frank for a 53-yard TD. Topeff was part of an offensive effort that had only one turnover.

Kootsikas was an all-metro defensive player of the week after Carleton’s upset of Bethel.

CASPERS MIAC’S CO-OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior Darren Caspers was named the conference co-offensive player of the week after throwing for a career-high five touchdowns in Carleton’s victory over Macalester.

Caspers finished the game 10-of-15 for 248 yards with scoring passes of 5, 19, 7, 72 and 60 yards. All of his action came in the first half, allowing Carleton to try a 48-yard field goal at the end of the half. The Knights’ defense held Bethel to 233 total yards and only 77 yards rushing, including 36 yards on 19 carries by pre-season All-American Phil Porta. Porta had averaged 141 yards rushing in his three previous career games against the Knights. Kootsikas was an all-metro defensive back during his prep career at Rosemount High School.

RAMLER’S COACHING START ONE OF BEST EVER AT CARLETON

A search of the Carleton football archives by student assistant Adam Rossow ’07 revealed that rookie head coach Kurt Ramler’s 3-0 start is the best in 72 years. George Gibson started his Carleton 5-0 in 1934 and led the Knights to a 6-1 overall record that season.

LAST TIME OUT: WASTED CHANCES HAUNT KNIGHTS IN LOSS TO PIPERS

Matt Frank tallied 11 catches for 139 yards, but host Carleton had four turnovers and drove to the Hamline 2-yard line on three occasions without scoring as the Pipers upset the Knights, 16-11.

James Leary paced Hamline (3-3, 1-3 MIAC) by throwing for 175 yards on 19-of-25 passing, including a 12-yard TD pass to Andrew Seymour with 3:32 left in the third that proved to be the game winner. Hamline won despite going 0-for-11 on third-down conversions.

The game was a bizarre affair, as it was tied at 2-2 for much of the first half. Hamline fumbled in their own end zone with two minutes left in the first quarter, but Robert Thompson sacked Darren Caspers in the end zone early in the second quarter. Carleton grabbed a 9-2 lead when Caspers hit Frank on a 10-yard fade, capping a 13-play, 88-yard drive with 5:10 left in the half, but Hamline drove 79 yards in a little more than a minute before the half, capped by a Ben Dahmes 1-yard burst, to leave the score 9-9 at the break.
Carleton had an excellent chance to score on the second half’s first possession, as Caspers hit Frank for 16 and 20 yards, putting the Knights at the Hamline 2-yard line, but Caspers fumbled the ball trying to get into the end zone and Jordan Below recovered for Hamline. The Piper defense forced another Carleton turnover on the Knights’ next possession, as Adam Hespen intercepted Caspers and returned it to midfield. Six plays later Leary lofted a pass into the left corner of the end zone and Hamline led, 16-11.

The Knights had two chances from point-blank range in the final six minutes. They took over at Hamline’s 39-yard line after a 15-yard Piper punt and quickly moved the ball to the 2-yard line. An incomplete pass, fumble on a failed option pitch and another incomplete pass left the Knights with fourth down from the Hamline 12. Greg Siers sacked Caspers, giving the ball back to Hamline.

The Knights defense, though, forced a punt and Hamline snapped the ball over the punter’s head and out of the end zone for a safety. Chris Gardner returned the free kick 62 yards and into Hamline territory. With 2 minutes, 18 seconds left, the Knights marched right back, using a Jackson 26-yard burst up the middle on the drive’s first play and a 46-yard screen pass and a 93-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He broke the previous Carleton record of five touchdowns and 30 points scored in one game, held jointly by Skye Flanagan ’98, set against St. Thomas in 1996, and Jim Bradford ’92, set against Gustavus in 1990. Jackson played only one series in the second half as Carleton scored on its first five possessions of the game in taking a 41-7 lead at halftime. For the game he tallied 69 yards rushing on only 10 carries, 46 yards receiving and 93 yards on the kickoff return, leaving him with 208 all-purpose yards. He was named the MIAC offensive player of the week and to D3Football.com’s national “Team of the Week.”

JACKSON SETS SCHOOL RECORD WITH 6 TDS IN VICTORY

Junior running back R.J. Jackson had an unbelievable record-setting performance in Carleton’s season opener, scoring six touchdowns in the first half in leading the Knights past UM-Morris, 50-14. Jackson set a new Carleton single-game record by scoring six touchdowns (on only 12 touches) in leading Carleton to a victory in new head coach Kurt Ramler’s debut. Jackson’s scores came on touchdowns runs of 11, 30, 2 and 1 yards, a 46-yard screen pass and a 93-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He broke the previous Carleton record of five touchdowns and 30 points scored in one game, held jointly by Skye Flanagan ’98, set against St. Thomas in 1996, and Jim Bradford ’92, set against Gustavus in 1990. Jackson played only one series in the second half as Carleton scored on its first five possessions of the game in taking a 41-7 lead at halftime. For the game he tallied 69 yards rushing on only 10 carries, 46 yards receiving and 93 yards on the kickoff return, leaving him with 208 all-purpose yards. He was named the MIAC offensive player of the week and to D3Football.com’s national “Team of the Week.”

LAST TIME, OCT. 1, 2005: JACKSON, KNIGHTS FINALLY SOLVE AUGGIES

R.J. Jackson rushed for 79 yards and turned a swing pass into a game-winning 41-yard touchdown as Carleton picked up its first conference win of the season, beating host Gustavus 21-19.

Nick Brokke ’06 picked off two passes and forced a fumble to pace a Carleton defense that forced five Auggie turnovers. Carleton (2-2, 1-2 MIAC) turned those five turnovers into 14 points in snapping an eight-game losing skid to the Auggies.

The Knights raced to a 14-0 lead, but the hosts battled back to 14-12 and looked to be going in for the go-ahead score. Gustavus quarterback Keith Hagen overthrew a receiver on a first-down play from the Carleton 23-yard line right into the waiting arms of Brokke, who returned it 49 yards to the Auggie 34.

After an incompletion and sack, quarterback John Hollowed (Mercer Island, Wash.) swung the ball out in the flats to Jackson. He picked up a couple of blocks and turned the jets on down the far side, racing in for the score to put Carleton ahead 21-12.

The Auggies answered, embarking on a 17-play, 8:01 drive to pulled within two at 21-19. Carleton drove right back, using a Jackson 26-yard burst up the middle on the drive’s first play to get inside the Auggie 30. The drive stalled and the Knights were stopped on fourth-and-one from the Auggie 28. The Knights defense rose to the occasion again, as Tim Blaha
