The Knights are looking to break out of a bit of a February malaise, as they are 3-4 over the last three weeks. The Knights are also attempting to reverse a trend of road conference tournament playoff woes, as they’ve lost all nine MIC Playoff road games they’ve played. The Royals, meanwhile, rebounded from a January stretch which saw them lose four of seven games to win five of their final seven contests.

This marks the second time in three seasons Carleton and Bethel have met in the MICA playoffs. In 2002, the Royals beat the Knights at the Robertson Center, 72-73.

Broadcast Information
Tuesday’s game will be carried live on Northfield’s KYMN 1080 AM. Carleton SID Eric Sieger will be on the call. The game can also be heard live on the internet on Knights Online at www.carleton.edu/athletics/broadcasts/

Knights return to MICA Playoffs
Carleton is making its 12th MICA Playoff appearance, the fourth-most of any MICA school. St. Thomas leads with 17 appearances. Gustavus is second with 16, while Hamline and the Knights are tied with 12 MICA playoffs appearances each. The Knights are 10-0 when holding the opposition to less than 50 percent from 3-point range, which would rank him third on Carleton’s single season list.

Knights open MICA Playoffs against Royals
Carleton College makes its 12th MICA Playoff appearance and its 11th in the last 15 seasons when the Knights travel to Bethel College for the MICA Playoff quarterfinals.

• Tanner Schieck enters the final games of his career ranked eighth in career points and sixth in career rebounds. He’s also in the all-time top 10 in blocked shots (6th, 46) and steals (4th, 134).

• Jake Phillips is shooting 50 percent from 3-point range, which would rank him third on Carleton’s single season list.

• Gunnar Stapp will be making his 100th career appearance on Tuesday. That’s the most among any current Carleton player.

• Kyle Beste’s 20-point game against Hamline last Wednesday was the fifth of his career, but the first this season.

• Anthony Baquero needs one more three-pointer for 50 on the season. Only four other Carleton players have made 50 three’s and shot better than 40 percent in the same season.

• Andrew Knapp made his third career start on Saturday as part of Senior Day.

Team Notes
• The Knights are 10-0 when holding the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting.
• Carleton has finished above 500 in MICA play 13 times in 19 years in the league.

Earlier this season in Arden Hills - Carleton 69, Bethel 60
Kyle Beste tallied a then season-best 19 points in his career total on Saturday, leaving him with 1,174 career points. The total places him eighth on the Carleton career scoring chart, 32 points shy of moving past Roy Hanson for seventh. Beste also nabbed his 700th career rebound on Wednesday at St. John’s, making him the only player in Carleton history with 1,000 points and 700 rebounds in a career. He joins Mark Wandmacher ‘84, Josh Wilhelm ‘99, Gerrick Monroe ‘93, Roy Hanson ‘79 and Laurie Slocum ‘55 in the exclusive club. Schieck and Wilhelm are the only two players to score 1,000 points, grab 700 rebounds and tally 100 steals in a career.

Individual Player Notes

Tanner Schieck added 10 points to his career total on Saturday, leaving him with 1,174 career points. The total places him eighth on the Carleton career scoring chart, 32 points shy of moving past Roy Hanson for seventh. Schieck also nabbed his 700th career rebound on Wednesday at St. John’s, making him the only player in Carleton history with 1,000 points and 700 rebounds in a career. Earlier this season in Arden Hills - Carleton 69, Bethel 60
Kyle Beste tallied a then season-best 19 points, including a key jumper with 1:53 remaining, as Carleton held off Bethel in the MIAC opener for both squads on Dec. 3, 2003.

Anthony Baquero added 11 points, including a clutch turnaround jumper in the final 1:30 to secure the win for the Knights. Khalid Lakanwal added a career-high 10 points, eight coming in the first half, and canned two free throws with 45 seconds remaining.

John Jacobs paced Bethel with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Travis Jones added 11 points and eight boards and Tim Gilbert chipped in with 11 points and four assists for the Royals.

The Knights shot 50 percent from the field and canned 10-of-20 three-point tries as the Royals focused much of their defensive attention on Carleton’s leading scorer, Tanner Schieck. The Carleton co-capitan was limited to five points on 2-of-3 shooting, but his presence opened up the arc for his teammates.

Earlier this season in Northfield – Bethel 72, Carleton 63

John Jacobs scored 19 points and grabbed 11 rebounds and Tim Gilbert added 19 points as visiting Bethel opened the second half with a 12-3 spurt, rallying past Carleton on Jan. 21, 2004.

Anthony Baquero paced Carleton with 14 points, making 3-for-6 from behind the arc. Dan Forkrud added 13 points, six rebounds and five assists, but scored only two points in the second half. Kyle Beste chipped in with 12 points and Tanner Schieck tallied 11 points and six boards.

Travis Jones posted 15 points, six rebounds and three blocked shots for Bethel, which ended a three-game losing streak to Carleton.

The Knights zoomed to an early 23-11 advantage, with six of their field goals being lay-ups in the first 10 minutes. The Royals answered back by closing the half with a flurry of three-point buckets, as the visitors tallied four consecutive possessions with made three-pointers, going 5-for-8 beyond the arc in the final 3:35 of the first half. The sharp-shooting exhibition turned an 11-point deficit into a 36-36 tie at the break. The Royals opened the second half with a bang, outscoring the hosts 12-3. All told, the Royals outscored the Knights 27-7 over the final four minutes of the first half and first three minutes of the second. The Knights tried to rally back, getting within five minutes left, but the Royals had an answer each time.

The Royals made 8-of-16 three-pointers in the first half, but cooled to 1-for-10 in the second half to finish 9-for-26. The visitors shot 47.3 percent from the floor compared to 39.0 percent for the hosts.

Last time out – Gustavus 66, Carleton 46

Tanner Schieck scored 10 points in what proved to be his final home game as Carleton fell to league-leading Gustavus, 66-46.

The Gusties shot a red-hot 56 percent from the floor, including a mind-boggling 8-for-11 from three-point range. The Knights fell behind early, 22-6. Carleton showed resolve coming back with a 17-5 run to trail 27-23 at the break. The Gusties scored the first eight points of the second half and pushed the lead to 38-26 less than four minutes into the stanza. Carleton answered back, getting within eight points with 9:12 left on three-pointers by Jake Phillips and Kyle Beste. Gustavus held the Knights without a field goal over the next seven-plus minutes, outscoring the hosts 17-6 during this stretch.

Baquero’s magical touch carries Knights past Oles

Anthony Baquero set a new school record for three-point shooting percentage in a game, going 5-for-5 from beyond the arc in the Jan. 31, 2004, 59-57 win over St. Olaf College. The performance broke his own school record for three-point percentage in a game, a mark he shared with Scott Krohn, as both players had gone 7-for-9 (77.8%) in game. (The minimum number of attempts to qualify for the record is five.) He scored a season-high 18 points in the victory, including a clutch basket with 39 seconds left which proved to be the game winner.

Defense continues as strength for Knights

Carleton finished second in the MIAC in scoring defense with a 57.2 points-per-game average. This ranks Carleton fourth nationally, through games of Feb. 15, 2004. The Knights have held opponents to 42.4 percent shooting on the season. This marks a major improvement over last season when Carleton opponents scored 68.3 points per game and connected on 46.5 percent of their field-goal attempts. Carleton is 10-0 when holding the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting and only three MIAC teams have managed to score 70 or more points against the Knights.
Assistant Larson to miss rest of season

Long-time assistant coach Dan Larson will miss the remainder of the 2003-04 season after undergoing successful quadruple by-pass surgery in the beginning of February. His impact on the program has been more than evident, as 18 of Carleton’s 23 All-MIAC players over the past 20 seasons have worked under his tutelage. Larson, a member of Carleton’s staff for the last 21 years, is also an elementary school teacher in Northfield.

Bethel Series

Carleton leads the overall series against Bethel 30-26. The Royals have won seven out of the last 10 meetings, but the Knights have won three of the last four meetings and the last two times they’ve traveled to the Robertson Center. The Knights are 13-15 all-time at Bethel, marking one of their better road records against MIAC teams.

About Bethel

The Royals, who finished one game ahead of the Knights in the MIAC standings, bring one of the most explosive offensive attacks in the MIAC into this playoff match-up. The Royals rank third in points scored per game (73.3 ppg) and first in three-pointers made per game (8.7/g), as they’ve made a league-high 217 long-range shots in 25 games this season. On the flip side, however, the Royals allow nearly 70 points per game, the second-worst defensive average in the conference. Like the Knights, the Royals take care of the basketball, sporting a +2.3 turnover margin, ranking right behind Carleton in the MIAC statistical rankings.

Individually, the Royals are paced by a trio of players who all rank in the top 10 in the MIAC scoring race. Junior Tim Gilbert tallies 16.6 points per game, followed by fellow wing Travis Jones at 16.2 points per game and post John Jacobs at 15.2 points per game. Jacobs is one of the league’s top rebounders at 8.4 boards per game while also leading the MIAC in steals with 2.2 thefts a game. Jones, meanwhile, paces the MIAC in blocked shots with 59, 20 more than any other conference player.

Guy Kalland

Guy Kalland enters his 20th year at the helm of the Carleton men’s basketball program as one of the most successful coaches in the MIAC. A 1974 graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Kalland has led his team to the MIAC playoffs 11 times in the past 15 seasons and 12 times overall. The 2002-03 season marked another milestone in his storied career, as he passed his predecessor, Jack Thurnblad, as Carleton’s all-time winningest coach. He also reached a coaching milestone with his 250th win on Dec. 6, 2003, against Augsburg College. Kalland, a former assistant men’s basketball coach at the University of Minnesota from 1979-80, spent four years at Inver Hills (Minn.) Community College, leading the team to a 1982 state championship and runner-up honors in Region XIII. Kalland also coached for three years at Eagle Bend (Minn.) High School and Cannon Falls (Minn.) High School. He runs numerous successful basketball camps during the summer, and is a professor of physical education, athletics and recreation at Carleton. Kalland and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Abby, a senior on Carleton’s women’s basketball and softball teams.

Kalland is 261-242 in his 20th season at Carleton and overall. He is one of only four MIAC coaches with 250 or more wins at his respective school.
