the Muskies went ice-cold the remainder of the game, going 3-for-22 over the final 17:30. Lakeland had one, final turn. Lakeland broke to an early six-point lead at 12-6. The Knights responded with a quick 7-0 spurt, only to see Carleton used a 14-0 spurt in the opening moments of the second half to build a double-digit lead and held the Muskies to one field goal and only four points over the final seven minutes after the visitors pulled within five points with seven minutes left. Lineha Engel tallied 12 points and three steals, setting a new Carleton single-season steals record with 79. Lakeland trailed 27-22 at the break but outscored the hosts 8-2 out of the locker room, hitting on its first four shots of the second half to grab a 30-29 lead. It would be its last of the game, as the Muskies went ice-cold the remainder of the game, going 3-for-22 over the final 17:30. Lakeland had one, final run, rattling off eight consecutive points to get within five with 7:20 left. The Knights responded with an 11-0 run.

Knights into NCAA's second round, clash with high-scoring Beavers

For the third consecutive year, Carleton College has advanced to the NCAA Tournament's second round where the west region's top-ranked team, Buena Vista University, awaits.

Carleton advanced by downing Lakeland College (Wis.), 58-42, in Wednesday's first round game. Buena Vista received a first-round bye.

The Beavers are the Iowa Conference regular season and conference tournament champions. They're riding a 16-game winning streak heading into Saturday's contest. The Beavers bring the nation's second-highest scoring offense at 80.3 points per game. BUV is making their seventh overall NCAA Tournament appearance but their first since 1997.

Carleton is ranked 11th in the nation by the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA coaches poll and 13th by d3hoops.com. Buena Vista is ranked 20th by d3hoops.com and 25th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA coaches poll.

broadcast Information

Saturday's game can be heard in Northfield and the surrounding area on KRDS 95.5 FM, with pregame beginning at 3:40 p.m. It will also be broadcast worldwide on the web via Knights Online (www.carleton.edu/athletics/broadcasts/).

Last time out – Carleton 58, Lakeland 42

Megan Vig scored 21 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, powering Carleton past visiting Lakeland, 58-42, in the NCAA Tournament's first round Wednesday at West Gym.

Carleton used a 14-0 spurt in the opening moments of the second half to build a double-digit lead and held the Muskies to one field goal and only four points over the final seven minutes after the visitors pulled within five points with seven minutes left. Lineha Engel tallied 12 points and three steals, setting a new Carleton single-season steals record with 79.

Lakeland trailed 27-22 at the break but outscored the hosts 8-2 out of the locker room, hitting on its first four shots of the second half to grab a 30-29 lead. It would be its last of the game, as the Muskies went ice-cold the remainder of the game, going 3-for-22 over the final 17:30. Lakeland had one, final run, rattling off eight consecutive points to get within five with 7:20 left. The Knights responded with an 11-0 run, highlighted by Vig’s three and driving lay-up and a triple from Katie Freeman.

Lakeland broke to an early six-point lead at 12-6. The Knights responded with a quick 7-0 spurt, only to see Carleton answer with six consecutive points to grab its largest lead of the game, 20-13. Carleton scored 10 unanswered points, regaining the lead they’d never relinquish.

Carleton turned the ball over only 10 times and forced 16 Lakeland turnovers, holding a 20-8 edge in points off turnovers. The Muskies outscored Carleton 26-18 in points in the paint and 7-4 in second-chance points. Neither team shot the ball well, as Carleton was at 37 percent compared to 33 percent for the Muskies. Carleton owned an 18-9 edge in free throw points, going 18-for-26, compared to 9-of-15 for Lakeland.

Knights' Season Ends in NCAA Sweet Sixteen

The University of Northwestern St. Paul defeated Carleton College 79-61 Thursday night in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet Sixteen in St. Paul.

Trio of Knights, Metcalf-Filzen honors with MIAC honors

Linnea Engel, Beth Freeman and Megan Vig were all named to the All-MIAC team and head coach Tammy Metcalf-Filzen repeated as MIAC Coach of the Year in post-season honors announced on Friday.

Vig, Carleton’s leading scorer and rebounder for the second consecutive season with 15.9 points and 7.0 rebounds per game, was a repeat selection on the first team. She ranks seventh in the MIAC in scoring, ninth in rebounding, fourth in free-throw percentage (81.0%) and eighth in blocked shots (1.00 bpg). She scored in double figures in 24 of Carleton’s 28 games and has scored 20 or more points six times this season. She was the MIAC’s sixth-year person of the last season.

Engel, who ranked third in the MIAC in steals with 2.81 per game, was named to the MIAC’s all-defensive team for the fourth consecutive season. Her selection to the all-conference first team marked the first in her career. She posted 11.0 points and 5.4 rebounds this season, her highest totals of her career.

Junior Beth Freeman was a first-time selection to the All-MIAC squad. She posted a break-out season with 12.4 points and 6.4 rebounds, finishing third in the MIAC scoring race and posting the second-best field goal percentage in the MIAC at 58.1 percent.

Metcalf-Filzen was a repeat selection as MIAC Coach of the Year after sharing the award with Gustavus’ Mickey Haller. Metcalf-Filzen has been named the conference’s coach of the year three times in the last four years. Despite losing four starters off last year’s MIAC tri-championship team, Metcalf-Filzen led the Knights to the MIAC’s regular-season and MIAC Playoff championships. Prior to her head-coaching tenure, the Knights had a program winning percentage of 323. Since Metcalf-Filzen assumed the head coaching position, the program has winning percentage of .715 and has posted a 72-12 record over the last three seasons and 95-17 over the last four. Metcalf-Filzen owns a 161-79 record in nine seasons overall and 135-53 in seven seasons at Carleton.

Katie Freeman fourth Knight to win MIAC Player of the Week honors

Katie Freeman has been named the MIAC’s player of the week after leading the Knights to their fourth consecutive MIAC Playoff title last week. Freeman posted her first career double-double in Saturday’s conference championship game, scoring 12 points and grabbing 10 rebounds to power Carleton past Concordia-Moorhead, 62-40. Freeman was 5-for-7 from the field, including a perfect 3-for-3 from three-point range. Her defensive efforts were a major reason Carleton held the Cobbers to a mere 10 first-half points and 175 percent shooting overall. In Carleton’s 55-52 semifinal win over Gustavus, she blanketed the Gusties’ top scorer, Angie Peterson, forcing her into a 6-for-16 shooting performance, including 1-for-5 from three-point range, and forced her into five turnovers. Peterson was 2-for-9 in the second half and scored only five points as Carleton held the Gusties to 13 second-half points in erasing a 16-point, second-half deficit. For the week Katie Freeman made 50 percent of her field-goal attempts, 60 percent of her three-point attempts and averaged 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.5 steals per game. She is the fourth different Knight to earn conference player of the week honors, joining twin sister Beth Freeman, senior Linnea Engel and sophomore Megan Vig as winners of the award.

Engel reaches 1,000 career points, breaks steals record

Senior Linnea Engel’s three steals in Carleton’s NCAA Tournament victory over Lakeland gave her 79 for the season, breaking the previous single-season record of 77, set by Katherine Frewing in 1991-92. She is Carleton’s all-time leader in steals with 256. Her 12 points against Lakeland let her pass Dennell Downum ‘94 to move into sixth place on Carleton’s all-time scoring list, as she now has scored 1,019 career points. In last week’s MIAC Playoff semifinal she became the seventh Carleton player in program history to reach 1,000 points. She is the first Carleton player ever with at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 steals, 200 assists and 50 blocked shots in a career. Engel ranks in Carleton’s all-time top 10 in points, field goals, free throws, assists, blocked shots and steals. The senior forward is averaging a career-high 11.0 points and 5.4 rebounds per game this season. Her 112 games played is also a school record.

Knights win unprecedented fourth consecutive MIAC Playoff title

Carleton captured its fourth consecutive MIAC Playoff title, the longest such conference post-season streak in a team sport. The University of St. Thomas baseball team captured three consecute MIAC Playoff titles from 2000-02 and the St. Olaf College volleyball team captured three consecutive MIAC Tournament crowns from 1993-95. The Gustavus Adolphus College men’s basketball team won three consecutive MIAC Playoff titles from 1997-99, as did the University of St. Thomas in men’s basketball from 1993-95. The Knights won the inaugural post-season event as the second seed in 2001, edging St. Benedict in overtime in the semifinals and upsetting St. Thomas in the finals. Two years ago the Knights won as the third seed, beating St. Olaf at home, winning at St. Thomas in the semifinals and at St. Benedict in the finals. Last year the Knights were the top seed and beat St. Thomas (semifinals) and Gustavus (finals) at West Gym.

Knights unbeaten at home

Carleton moved its home record to 16-0 with Wednesday’s NCAA Tournament first round victory over Lakeland. Over the last four seasons the Knights are 50-4 at home, 43-3 in MIAC play.

Beth Freeman named MIAC Player of the Week

Junior Beth Freeman earned MIAC co-player of the week last week after delivering one of the best performances in Carleton history in a Feb. 18 victory over St. Benedict. She scored 30 points on 14-21 shooting and added eight rebounds, four assists and three steals to lead the Knights to the victory that clinched them a share of the MIAC title. The 30 points were the most by a Carleton player since Bridget Seegers ’01 scored 32 points against St. Benedict in the 2001 MIAC Semifinals. The point total came on 14 field goals, which is the second most field goals made in a single game in Carleton history. Carleton’s all-time leading scorer, Katherine Frewing ’92, made 16 field goals in scoring 35 points against St. Mary’s on Feb. 15, 1992. For the week she averaged 19 points, six rebounds and four assists, shooting 64 percent from the field and 75 percent from the free-throw line. It marked the first time in Freeman’s career she’s been named MIAC player of the week. She shared the award with St. Olaf’s Molly Simon, who led the Oles to an upset of St. Thomas on Wednesday night.

Super sophomore leads Knights in scoring for second straight season

Sophomore Megan Vig is leading the Knights in scoring and rebounding for the second consecutive year, averaging 15.9 points and 7.0 rebounds per game. She scored her 400th point of the season in last Saturday’s season finale, becoming only the fourth Carleton player to accomplish the feat. Katherine Frewing ’92 and Lisa Nordeen ’90 did it three times and Laurie Peterson ’00 reached the mark once. Her 446 points pushed her past Frewing’s 1989-90 total of 444 points and into fourth on Carleton’s single-season list. Frewing scored a nearly unbelievable 580 points her senior year in only 22 games, a 26.4 points per game average.

Buena Vista Series

This match-up marks the first between Buena Vista and Carleton in women’s basketball.

About Buena Vista

The Beavers bring one of the nation’s highest-scoring offenses into the 2004 NCAA Tournament, averaging 80.3 points per game and holding opponents to 61.0 points per game. Over their last 25 games, the Beavers have scored 70 or more points 22 times.

The Beavers are led by senior Amy Meggers, the two-time most valuable player of the Iowa Conference. The athletic forward is averaging 20.4 points and 10.5 rebounds per game. She shot 46.0 percent from the floor and can also shoot the three-pointer. Sophomore point guard Katie Maguire is the team’s second-leading scorer at 13.6 points per game. Her 5.9 assists per game was tops in the IAIC this season, while her assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.21 was also tops in the conference. She ranked third in three-point shooting (40.2 percent). She, along with Meggers, were named to the all-conference first team. Junior Kristina Kapler was a second team pick after averaging 12.9 points and 6.9 rebounds per game. She’s also fourth in the IAIC in offensive rebounding. Joining Kapler on the second team was senior Kelly Taylor. She was the conference’s top three-point shooter, canning 42.9 percent of her long-range attempts, and ranked third in triples made at 1.88 per game.

The Beavers own a +9.0 rebound margin and a +6.4 turnover margin. They hold opponents to 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

The Beavers are coached by Janet Berry, the Iowa Conference coach of the year this season. She brings a 180-122 career record and has led the Beavers to four conference titles.

MIAC Playoff Finals - Carleton 62, Concordia-Moorhead 40

Katie Freeman scored 13 points and grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds and Megan Vig scored 13 points, grabbed seven boards and tallied six steals and Carleton College Limited visiting Concordia College, Moorhead to two first-half field goals en route to a 62-40 victory in the MIAC Playoff Championship game.

The Knights won the conference’s post-season tournament for the fourth consecutive time, holding the Cobbers to 2-of-31 shooting (6.5 percent) and 10 points in the first half. Kristi Colbenson added 10 points for the Knights and Beth Freeman added nine points, eight rebounds and three assists. The win gave Carleton the MIAC’s automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament.

Carleton scored the game’s first 13 points, holding the visitors scoreless for the first eight minutes of the game. The Knights couldn’t really get on track offensively either, as they shot 29 percent in the first half and led only 20-10 at the break.
Carleton pushed the lead to 16 out of the locker room, but the Cobbers put together a 10-2 spurt, getting a three-pointers to pull with eight, 33-25. Concordia trailed 39-29 but Carleton used a 13-3 spurt to put the Cobbers away, as Vig's three-pointer highlighted the spurt.

MIAC Playoff Semifinals - Carleton 55, Gustavus 52

Beth Freeman scored 16 points and scored the go-ahead basket with 1:41 left as Carleton rallied from a 16-point, second-half deficit to beat visiting Gustavus, 55-52, in the MIAC Playoff semifinals. Carleton trailed 39-25 at the break but held the Gusties to 13 second-half points.

Linnea Engel scored 14 points and added five steals for the Knights. The Knights used a 13-2 spurt, capped by a Kate Krueger three-pointer and two Beth Freeman free throws, to pull with five. Trailing 47-40, Carleton rattled off nine straight points, as Kristi Colbenson's three-pointer gave the Knights their first lead since midway through the first half.

Gustavus tied the game with 2:21 left, but Beth Freeman scored inside and Megan Vig canned two free throws after a Carleton defensive stop. The Gusties made it 53-45 with 45 seconds left, but Beth Freeman scored inside off a perfect feed from twin sister Katie Freeman and two Gustie three-point attempts missed in the final 15 seconds.

In the polls

Carleton rose one spot in both the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA top 25 coaches’ poll and the D3Hoops.com poll. The Knights are 11th in the coaches poll and 13th in the D3Hoops.com poll.

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen moves into her seventh season as head coach at Carleton. In only six seasons she has turned the program into a conference contender, leading them to four consecutive MIAC Playoff titles, 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament bids in 2000-01, 2001-02, 2002-03 and 2003-04. The Knights have won the MIAC’s regular-season title in 2002-03 and 2003-04. She was named the 2003-04 MIAC coach of the year, a year after she was named the MIAC co-coach of the year and WBCA Region Coach of the Year, leading the Knights to a school-record 25 victories. She earned the same honors in 2000-01. She previously served as head coach at St. Olaf and as an assistant at Temple and Minnesota. She is Carleton’s all-time winningest coach.

Metcalf-Filzen has presided over one of the most remarkable turnarounds in all of NCAA Division III women’s basketball. When she took over prior to the 1997-98 season, the Knights had a program winning percentage of .323. Since Metcalf-Filzen assumed the head coaching position, the program has winning percentage of .715 and has posted its first 20-win seasons. Metcalf-Filzen has led Carleton to a 72-12 record over the last three seasons and 95-17 over the last four.

Carleton has improved its record in each of Metcalf-Filzen’s first six seasons and her .688 winning percentage is the best in school history. A 1983 St. Olaf graduate, Metcalf-Filzen earned her M.S. from the University of Minnesota in 1987. She won four varsity letters as a point guard for the Oles, twice earned All-MIAC honors, led the NCAA Division III in free-throw percentage in 1982-83, and was inducted into the St. Olaf Hall of Fame in 1999 and the Northfield Hall of Fame in 1992.

Metcalf-Filzen owns a 161-79 record in nine seasons overall and 135-53 in seven seasons at Carleton.
