Knights Set to Defend MIAC Playoff Title
Carleton, the defending MIAC Playoff champion, faces old conference tournament nemesis Gustavus Adolphus College. The Gusties, the fifth seed, drubbed #4 seed St. Olaf on Wednesday to advance to the semifinals, while the top-seeded Knights received a bye into the semifinals. This marks the eighth time the Knights and Gusties have met in the MIAC Playoffs, with Gustavus taking five of the previous seven match-ups.

The winner of the MIAC Playoffs receives the conference's NCAA Championships automatic bid. The 61-team NCAA Tournament field will be announced on Monday, Feb. 28 at noon CST on ncaa.com.

Jonker, Sutherland Power Knights To Fifth MIAC Title
Seth Jonker matched his career high for the second time in as many games, scoring 26 points, and Jeremy Sutherland added 21 points, six rebounds and four assists, scoring 10 points in the final four minutes of regulation and hitting two free throws to give the Knights a one-point lead with eight seconds left, as Carleton rallied from an eight-point deficit with four minutes left in regulation to beat rival St. Olaf in overtime, 84-73.

The win gives the Knights a share of the MIAC's regular-season title with St. Thomas. The title marks Carleton's 20th overall conference crown, its fifth MIAC regular-season title and second in the last six years.

Getting Defensive
The Knights allowed a league-low 59.4 points per game in MIAC play this season, and in the process became only the ninth team in the last 20 MIAC seasons to hold opponents under 60.0 points per game. Five of those nine teams have won the MIAC's regular-season title.

Carleton has limited opponents to less than 70 points in 24 of 25 games this season and 47 of 54 games over the last two seasons. The only team to break the 70-point barrier against the Knights this season was St. Olaf, and the Oles needed overtime to accomplish the feat. The Knights currently rank 20th in the country in points allowed, through games of last weekend.

• 9th in MIAC in scoring (14.1 ppg) and 12th in rebounding (5.7 rpg)
• Shooting 54.5 percent (102-187) over last 13 games

>> Jonker Wins MIAC Honor

Seth Jonker won the MIAC's player of the week honor for the second straight week after surpassing the 1,000-point mark for his career last Wednesday and matching his career high in points twice in three games. For the week, the forward averaged 23.3 points and 7.0 rebounds. He tallied 15 points, three rebounds and three assists in a 72-60 win at Bethel Monday. He totaled 1,000th career point in Wednesday's 72-68 win at Macalester, equaling a career high with 26 points, to go along with 10 rebounds for a double-double. In Saturday's title-clinching win over St. Olaf, he posted 26 points and eight rebounds.

>> Kalland In Elite Company

Carleton's 20th overall conference crown, its fifth MIAC regular-season title and second in the last six years, puts head coach Guy Kalland in a special group among Carleton basketball coaches. The Knights won three straight MIAC titles from 1920-23, captured 15 Midwest Conference titles as a member of that conference from 1923-83, and now have taken the 2006 and 2011 MIAC regular-season crowns, both in Kalland's tenure. He joins legendary Carleton basketball coaches Everett Dean, Ozzie Cowles, Marshall Diebold and Mel Taube in winning multiple conference titles.

>> Streaking on Campus

Since the midway point in last year's campaign, Carleton is 29-4 overall against MIAC opponents (including regular season and playoff contests). Carleton is 11-0 at home this season and owns a 17-game home win streak, dating back to January 23, 2010. The mark ties for the sixth-longest streak in 101 years of program history and is the longest since an 18-game run between Jan. 5, 1954 and March 5, 1955.

>> Scouting the Gusties

Gustavus was all but left for dead after a stretch that saw it lose six straight and seven of its final nine games. The Gusties, though, found the magic on Wednesday night, shooting better than 70 percent in the second half and hanging 90 points on the Oles to win a MIAC Playoff game for the ninth consecutive year and make it to the semifinals for the 11th consecutive time.

The recent Gustie slide has not impacted the play of junior guard Seth Anderson. He tallied 22 points on 9-of-13 shooting on Wednesday and has averaged 24.0 ppg over the last five. Bobby Johnson notched his best performance of the year, going 10-of-14 from the floor for a season-best 22 points.

Gustavus is without post James Hill, who missed the last six games with an apparent broken foot. The Gusties, though, feature perhaps the most solid and reliable perimeter players in the MIAC in terms of accurate shooting and passing. Phil Wirtjes, Dan Schmidtke and Tyler Grey are all extremely capable three-point shooters and Schmidtke led the MIAC with 6.2 assists per game.

>> Tidbits

Carleton's 18 victories are tied for sixth most in school history. The 2005-06 team notched 21 wins, the school standard. The senior class notched their 72nd overall win, the most in school history.
