The Gusties, who utilized stifling defensive pressure that didn’t allow Carleton to get the ball inside, seemingly had an answer for every Carleton basket. In the first half, only twice was Carleton able to score consecutive points. Despite that fact, the Knights stayed close over the first 20 minutes, never trailing by more than seven points.

The Knights shot 47 percent for the game compared to an even 50 percent for the Gusties.

Engel closes in on 1,000 career points

With her 23-point output in Saturday’s final regular season game, senior Lineae Engel moved within nine points of 1,000 for her career. Her 991 points ranks her eighth on Carleton’s all-time list, 13 behind Anna Bandick for seventh. Engel ranks in points, 500 rebounds, 200 steals, 200 assists and 50 blocked shots in a career. The senior forward is averaging a career-high 11.2 points and 5.8 rebounds per game this season. Her 109 games played is also a school record.

Knights three-time playoff champions

Carleton is the three-time defending MIAC Playoff champ and is seeded second in this year’s tournament. The Knights won the inaugural post-season event as the second seed in 2001, edging St. Benedict in overtime in the semifinals and upsetting St. Thomas in the finals. Two years ago the Knights won as the third seed, winning at St. Thomas in the semifinals and at St. Benedict in the finals. Last year the Knights were the top seed and beat St. Thomas (semifinals) and Gustavus (finals) at West Gym.

Knights unbeaten at home
Carleton ended the regular season home schedule with a perfect 13-0 home record. In fact, the other two of the MIAC's top three teams are also unbeaten at home this season. Over the last four seasons the Knights are 47-4 at home, 43-3 in MIAC play. The top three seeds in the MIAC Playoffs are all undefeated at home, while fourth seed Concordia only lost to Carleton at home this year.

Beth Freeman named MIAC Player of the Week
Junior Beth Freeman earned the MIAC co-player of the week after delivering one of the best performances in Carleton history in Wednesday's victory over St. Benedict. She scored 30 points on 14-of-21 shooting and added eight rebounds, four assists and three steals to lead the Knights to the victory that clinched them a share of the MIAC title. The 30 points were the most by a Carleton player since Bridget Seegers ’01 scored 32 points against St. Benedict in the 2001 MIAC Playoff Semifinals. The point total came on 14 field goals, which is the second most field goals made in a single game in Carleton history. Carleton’s all-time leading scorer, Katherine Frewing ’92, made 16 field goals in scoring 35 points against St. Mary’s on Feb. 15, 1992. For the week she averaged 19 points, six rebounds and four assists, shooting 64 percent from the field and 75 percent from the free-throw line. It marked the first time in Freeman’s career she’s been named MIAC player of the week. She shared the award with St. Olaf’s Molly Simon, who led the Oles to an upset of St. Thomas on Wednesday night.

Gustavus Adolphus Series
Carleton trails in the Gustavus series, 18-33. Carleton has won eight of the last 10 games against the Gusties, including last year’s MIAC championship game. The teams split the season series in each of the last two years. This marks the second consecutive season the Knights have met the Gusties in the MIAC Playoffs.

About Gustavus Adolphus
Five Gustavus seniors have been the core of Coach Mickey Haller’s squad this season. Kate Sandvig, Laura Haugen, Angie Peterson, Jen Klohs and Kelly Van Norman have helped the Gusties compile a record of 79-27 including last year’s MIAC championship game. The teams split the season series in each of the last two years.

Gustavus's top scorer is senior Angie Peterson, who is poised to break her own school single-season scoring record. She’s averaging 17.6 points per game and shooting a very solid 46 percent from the floor. She’s also one of the top three-point shooters in the conference at 41 percent. The team’s second-leading scorer is junior post Kristin Kachelmyer, who comes off the bench to tally 10.8 points per game on 53 percent shooting. Senior front-line standout Jennifer Klohs is the third player averaging double figures at 10.5 points per game.

Metcalf-Filzen earned her M.S. from the University of Minnesota in 1987. She won four varsity letters as a point guard for the Oles, twice earned All-MIAC honors, led the NCAA Division III in free-throw percentage in 1982-83, and was inducted into the St. Olaf Hall of Fame in 1999 and the Northfield Hall of Fame in 1992.

In only six seasons she has turned the program into a conference contender, leading them to three consecutive MIAC Playoff titles, 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament bids in 2000-01, 2001-02 and 2002-03. In 2002-03 she was named the MIAC co-coach of the year and WBCA Region Coach of the Year, leading the Knights to a school-record 25 victories. She earned the same honors in 2000-01. She previously served as head coach at St. Olaf and as an assistant at Temple and Minnesota. She is Carleton’s all-time winningest coach.

Metcalf-Filzen has presided over one of the most remarkable turnarounds in all of NCAA Division III women’s basketball. When she took over prior to the 1997-98 season, the Knights had a program winning percentage of .323. Since Metcalf-Filzen assumed the head coaching position, the program has winning percentage of .688 and has posted its first 20-win seasons. Metcalf-Filzen has led Carleton to a 71-12 record over the last three seasons and 93-17 over the last four.

In the overtime, Carleton converted 9-for-10 from the free-throw line and was 2-for-4 from the floor while holding the visitors to 2-for-6 and forcing two turnovers.

Last Season in the MIAC Championship – Carleton 65, Gustavus Adolphus 54

Linnea Engel scored a career-high 24 points as Carleton College used a 13-4 second-half run to beat Gustavus Adolphus College, 65-54, in the MIAC Playoff championship game in front of a standing-room only crowd of 1,600 at Carleton’s West Gym on March 1, 2003.

Beth Freeman tallied 34 points and a career-best 12 rebounds off the bench for the Knights, who earned their third straight MIAC Playoff title and NCAA Tournament bid with the victory. Megan Vig added 11 points for the Knights, who held a 36-34 edge on points in the paint. Carleton’s bench owned a 28-10 scoring advantage.

Angie Peterson paced Gustavus with 21 points, 16 in the first half, on 8-for-11 shooting, including 3-of-6 from three-point range, before fouling out with 3:23 remaining.

In the polls

Carleton dropped four more spots to 11th in the latest USA Today/ESPN/WBCA top 25 coaches’ poll. The Knights fell three spots to 14th in this week’s D3Hoops.com poll. Carleton has now been ranked in either or both polls a school-record 32 consecutive times.
