Carleton ends regular season, hosts Gustavus

Carleton College ends its 2003-04 regular season with Senior Day, hosting MIAC leader Gustavus Adolphus College.

The Knights, 61-60 winner at St. John’s University on Wednesday, need a victory to earn the fourth seed and a home game in the upcoming MIAC Playoffs’ first round. The Gusties, meanwhile, wrapped up the outright MIAC title with a 65-49 win over Bethel College on Wednesday. The Gusties will be the first seed in the conference post-season tournament regardless of Saturday’s outcome.

Broadcast Information

Saturday’s game will be carried live on KYMN 1080 AM in Northfield and surrounding communities. Jeff Johnson will be on the call. The game can also be heard live on the internet on Knights Online at www.carleton.edu/athletics/broadcasts/.

Seniors to be honored

Carleton trio of senior captains – Andrew Knap, Tanner Schieck and Gunnar Stapp – will be honored in pre-game festivities on Saturday. The trio has helped lead to the Knights to three consecutive MIAC Playoff bids in their career, including a third-place finish last year. They’ve amassed 50 victories over the last four seasons. Schieck ranks in Carleton’s all-time top 10 in scoring, rebounding, steals and blocked shots. Knap has battled injuries throughout his career but has 41 career appearances to his credit. Stapp, meanwhile, enters Saturday’s game with 98 career games played, meaning he could reach 100 by playing on Saturday and in the MIAC Playoffs.

MIAC Playoff picture clear for Knights

Carleton’s mandate heading into Saturday’s contest is fairly simple: win and earn the fourth seed and the home game that comes with it or lose and take the fifth seed and hit the road. No matter Saturday’s outcome, Carleton will face off against Bethel College in conference tournament’s quarterfinals.

Knights return to MIAC Playoffs

Carleton claimed its 12th MIAC Playoff berth with last Wednesday’s win over Hamline. Carleton’s 12 conference tournament appearances is the fourth-most of any MIAC school. St. Thomas leads with 17 appearances. Gustavus will be making its 14 appearance this year, while St. John’s entered the season with 13. Other 2004 MIAC Playoff qualifiers Macalester will be making its second appearance next week and Concordia-Moorhead, will be appearing in the post-season event for the fourth time. Gustavus leads all schools with seven titles, followed by St. Thomas and St. John’s (5) and Bethel and Concordia with one each.

Schieck eighth on scoring chart, grabs 700th career rebound

Tanner Schieck scored 13 points in Wednesday’s win over St. John’s, moving his career total to 1,164 points. The total places him eighth on the Carleton career scoring chart, 42 points shy of moving past Roy Hanson for seventh. Schieck also nabbed his 700th career rebound on Wednesday, making him the sixth player in Carleton history with 1,000 points and 700 rebounds in a career. He joins Mark Wandmacher ’84, Josh Wilhelm ’99, Gerrick Monroe ’93, Roy Hanson ’79 and Laurie Slocum ’85 in the exclusive club. Schieck and Wilhelm are the only two players to score 1,000 points, grab 700 rebounds and tally 100 steals in a career.

Knights notes & trends

Individual Player Notes

• Andrew Knap has career highs of 12 points, 6 rebounds and 4 blocks

• Tanner Schieck enters the final three games of his career ranked eighth in career points and sixth in career rebounds. He’s also in the all-time top 10 in blocked shots (6th, 46) and steals (4th, 132).

• Gunnar Stapp’s career highlight may be scoring 19 points in a Jan. 20, 2001 game at St. Olaf. Stapp canned four 3-pointers in the game, also a career best for him.

• Kyle Beste’s 20-point game against Hamline last Wednesday was the fifth of his career, but the first this season.

• Anthony Baquero canned 4-of-5 three-pointers on Wednesday, marking the eighth time this season he’s made three or more 3-pointers in a single game.

Team Notes

• Carleton’s last three opponents have failed to score more than 63 points.

• The Knights are 10-0 when holding the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting.

• Carleton, which has clinched a winning MIAC record, has finished above .500 in MIAC play 13 times in 19 years in the league.

• The Knights have committed fewer personal fouls than their opponents in the last nine consecutive games and in 21 of 24 games this season.
Carleton beat host St. John’s University, 61-60, on Wednesday. Forkrud fills stat sheet
Dan Forkrud’s 15 rebounds in Wednesday’s win was the second-highest by any single MIAC player this season. Forkrud has put up MIAC single-game highs with seven steals against St. Olaf College earlier in the season, while his five blocked shots two weeks ago at Macalester is the second-highest single game total in the MIAC this year.

Last time out - Carleton 61, St. John’s 60
Anthony Baquero scored 14 points and drilled the game-winning three-pointer with 17 seconds left as Carleton beat host St. John’s University, 61-60, on Wednesday.
Tanner Schieck added 13 points for Carleton, while Dan Forkrud and Kyle Beste were also in double figures with 12 and 11 points, respectively. The Knights build a nine-point second-half advantage on the strength of a 10-2 run. Carleton led 57-52 with 5:22 remaining on a Schieck rebound bucket, but scored only one point over the next five minutes. The Johnnies tied the game on a pair of free throws with 28 seconds remaining. Carleton took a time-out with 20 seconds left and set up a play for Baquero. The junior delivered with his fourth three-pointer of the game, giving Carleton a 61-60 lead. The Johnnies had one last chance, but a three at the horn was no good.

Baquero’s magical touch carries Knights past Oles
Anthony Baquero set a new school record for three-point shooting percentage in a game, going 5-for-5 from beyond the arc in the Jan. 31, 2004, 59-57 win over St. Olaf College. The performance broke his own school record for three-point percentage in a game, a mark he shared with Scott Krohn, as both players had gone 7-for-9 (77.8%) in game. He scored a season-high 19 points and can still say 49.5 percent from long-range. Junior Doug Espenson, who comes off the bench, is the team’s assist leader.

Defense continues as strength for Knights
Carleton still leads the MIAC in scoring defense with a 56.9 points-per-game allowed average. This ranks the Knights fourth nationally, through games of Feb. 15, 2004. The Knights have held opponents to 41.9 percent shooting on the season. This marks a major improvement over last season when Carleton opponents scored 68.3 points per game and connected on 46.5 percent of their field-goal attempts. Carleton is 10-0 when holding the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting and only three MIAC teams have managed to score 70 or more points against the Knights this season.

Assistant Larson to miss rest of season
Long-time assistant coach Dan Larson will miss the remainder of the 2003-04 season after undergoing successful quadruple by-pass surgery in the beginning of February. His impact on the program has been more than evident, as 18 of Carleton’s 23 All-MIAC players over the past 20 seasons have worked under his tutelage. Larson, a member of Carleton’s staff for the last 21 years, is also an elementary school teacher in Northfield.

Gustavus Series
The Gusties lead the all-time series 38-22, although 13 of Carleton’s 22 series victories have come at home. Carleton won the last match-up between the two schools at West Gym, 78-64 on Jan. 20, 2003. The Gusties have beaten the Knights in 17 of the last 19 meetings.

About Gustavus
The Gusties, coming off last year’s national runner-up finish, earned their first MIAC regular-season title by thumping Bethel College on Wednesday. It was the Gusties’ 13th win in their last 14 games. Gustavus shoots the ball extremely well (50 percent) and force other teams to shoot it poorly (39.6 percent). The simplicity of this formula has allowed the Gusties to win games by an average margin of 12 points, the largest in the conference. Gustavus is paced by All-American forward Tim Brown, a senior who averages 14.9 points and cans 49.5 percent from long-range. Junior Doug Espenson, who comes off the bench, is the team’s top three-point shooter.

Forkrud fills stat sheet
Dan Forkrud’s 15 rebounds in Wednesday’s win was the second-highest by any single MIAC player this season. Forkrud has put up MIAC single-game highs with seven steals against St. Olaf College earlier in the season, while his five blocked shots two weeks ago at Macalester is the second-highest single game total in the MIAC this year.

Earlier this season in St. Peter – Gustavus 59, Carleton 51

Kyle Beste led all scorers with 18 points but Gustavus shot 50 percent from the field in beating Carleton, 59-51. The Gusties broke to a 33-39 halftime lead by canning 13-of-25 shots, including 4-for-10 from beyond the arc. The hosts built the lead to as many as 18 before Carleton tried to rally. Trailing 50-32 in the first half, the Knights embarked on a 17-7 spurt to pull within eight on a Dan Forkrud three-pointer with 1:51 remaining. Carleton got a stop on its next defensive possession, but missed on two chances the next time down the floor, essentially ending any comeback hopes. Doug Espenson paced the hosts with 36 points, while Eric Nelson chipped in with 12 and Tim Brown tallied 10. Jake Phillips scored a career-high nine points for Carleton.
