SMU-Carleton Recap:

Zach Johnson scored 17 points, grabbed seven rebounds and added four assists to pace four Knights in double figures as Carleton broke the school record with its 19th win of the season, beating Saint Mary's, 65-46.

Tommy Drake added 14 points and five rebounds; Dan Foruk had 13 points, five rebounds, three assists, three steals and a pair of blocked shots and Jake Phillips tallied 11 points, seven rebounds and four assists for Carleton. It marked Carleton's 15th consecutive win, matching the 1955-6 squad for consecutive wins in a season. It was Carleton's 16th straight conference win as well.

SMU was paced by Michael Batterman's 16 points and six rebounds. Michael Rohr added 11 points, six rebounds and three steals. The loss eliminated the Cardinals from the MIAC Playoff chase and put both Hamline and Bethel into the conference tournament. Bethel will be the fifth seed after beating Hamline tonight.

The Knights can clinch a tie for their first conference title in 41 seasons by winning at Bethel on Saturday. St. Thomas, which beat Concordia tonight, clinched at least a share of the MIAC title.

The Knights forced 19 turnovers and held a 25-13 spread in points off turnovers. They held the Cardinals to 35 percent shooting, including 3-for-19 from three-point range.

Carleton started quickly, leading 26-11 on the strength of a quick 10-2 spurt, with Phillips nailing two triples during the run. The Knights took a 36-21 lead at the break but watched the Cardinals score the first four of the second half, pulling within nine. Carleton quickly bumped the lead back to 15, capped by a pair of Forukd lay-ups. Batterman personally scored six consecutive points to cut the hosts' lead to nine, but the Knights scored the next 12 points, starting with a Mike Kootskis three and capped by a Phillips triple.

Scouting the Royals:

The Royals have been a madly inconsistent team this season, as they have played like a top team in the MIAC, but have also looked like one of the worst teams in the conference. Sitting at 9-9 in the MIAC, the Royals have to win just one of their last two contests to make the playoffs for the fifth consecutive year.

Trent Perry and Tyson Bjorklund start in the Royal backcourt. Bjorklund is averaging 10.2 points per game, which is third-best on the team, and Perry is averaging 8.2 points per game. Perry also leads the team in assists with 3.0 per game. Charles Meadowcroft and Isaac Hinrichs have started every game in the frontcourt for the Royals, and recently Steve Strom has rounded out the starting five for Bethel. Meadowcroft is the team's leading scorer, as he is averaging 15.8 points per game, and Hinrichs leads the team in rebounding, as he is pulling down 6.5 boards per game. Hinrichs is the ninth-leading rebounder in the MIAC. The 6'3 Strom is the team's second leading rebounder, as he is averaging 4.9 rebounds per game. Matt Fredrickson has come off the bench to average 14.3 points per game, second best on the team.

The Royals have struggled defensively in conference play, as they are giving up 73.0 points per game, which is second-worst in the conference.

Bethel is coached by Bob Bjorklund, who is in his ninth year leading the Royals. He has a career record of 145-87. On Feb. 14, Bethel announced that Bjorklund will step down as head coach at the end of this season to become the full-time Athletic Director at Bethel. He will be replaced by associate head coach Jeff Westlund.

Earlier this season:

at West Gym: Carleton 83, Bethel 82

Tommy Drake capped a career-high 32-point performance by nailing 35-foot baseline jumper with three seconds left as host Carleton scored the final 10 points to rally past Bethel, 83-82. Drake took the pass on the left wing, drove baseline and pulled from 15 feet, burying the jumper with two defenders hanging on him to give the Knights their first lead of the game.

Jake Phillips added 17 points, six assists and four rebounds and Zach Johnson added 14 points, nine rebounds and four assists for the Knights.

Charles Meadowcroft paced the Royals with 30 points and eight rebounds. Matt Fredrickson added 19 points and five assists for Bethel and Trent Perry added 12 points and four assists.
