Knights hold off Gusties, advance to title game for second time

Dan Forkrud scored 26 points, 18 in the first half, as Carleton built a 19-point lead early in the second half and withstood a Gustavus comeback, as the second-seeded Knights advanced to the MIAC Playoff title game with a 55-48 win over fourth-seeded Gustavus.

It marks only the second time in school history the Knights have advanced to the conference championship game and the first time Carleton has beaten Gustavus in the MIAC Playoffs in four tries.

Phil Sowden paced Gustavus with 17 points and 10 rebounds, including 10 points and five rebounds in the second half as the Gusties used a 21-5 spurt over an 11-minute span to claw within three in the final minute.

Jake Phillips and Jay Melson each made two free throws in the final 30 seconds to seal Carleton’s 12th consecutive win, Division III’s fourth-longest string. Phillips added 12 points for Carleton.

The Knights led 35-20 at the break and extended the margin to 19, but the Knights would score only two field goals over the final 13 minutes as the Gusties pulled within three with 48 seconds left, but the Knights converted four free throws down the stretch.

Knight Notes 'n Trends

- Carleton head coach Guy Kalland is one win away from notchting his 300th victory.
- Dan Forkru needs only eight points to pass Ivan Grimm '60 and Kyle Besle '05 on Carleton's all-time scoring list, which would leave him third on the school's career scoring list behind only John Wilhelm '99 and Gerrick Monroe '03.
- Carleton won in the MICAC Playoffs semifinals for only the second time in 11 tries with its win over Gustavus.
- The Knights current 17-game win streak is the longest in school history and the fourth-longest in Division III, including games of Feb. 23.
- The Knights have averaged 71.6 points per game during the win streak, and have been very good defensively, holding foes to 59.2 points and 40.9 percent shooting while making 48.9 percent of their own shots.
- The free-throw line has also been key for Carleton during the stretch, as the Knights have made more free throws (213) than their opponents have attempted (175). Carleton has averaged five more assists and almost three less turnovers than its opponents during the win streak as well.
- The Knights have not lost a game this season (18-0) when hold their opponents under the 70 points plateau.
- With their victory over Concordia, the Knights clinched a MICAC Playoff berth for the fifth consecutive season, and the 14th time in the last 20 seasons.
- Junior guard Jake Phillips is averaging around 3.2 3-pt field goals per game during the current 17-game winning streak.

St. Thomas, co-champions along with Carleton of the MIAAC regular-season title, enter coming off a 45-point thrashing of Hamline in the MIAAC Playoff semifinals despite having not played in more than a week.

The Tommies have dominated nearly all statistical facets of the game. They are the second-highest scoring team in the conference and rank first overall in the MIAAC and 20th in Division III in scoring defense, allowing only 61 points per game. They're one of best shooting teams in the country, ranking eighth in the nation in field-goal accuracy and sixth in three-point accuracy.

Conference most valuable player candidate Isaac Rosefelt led the conference in scoring (20.0 ppg) and rebounding (10.4 rpg), as well as blocked shots (2.1 bpg). Junior sharpshooter Bryan Schnettler averages 17.7 points per game and is 11th in the nation in three-pointers made per game. He netted a game-high 29 points in Thursday's win over Hamline. Junior transfer Mike Keating is third on the club at 101 points per game and senior Sean Sweeney runs the attack, averaging a team-best 4.3 assists per game and has the ability to knock down the big shot when needed.

Since losing at home to last-place Augsburg on Jan. 2, the Toms have won nine straight at home, posting an average winning margin of 34 points.

Earlier this season at St. Thomas 80, Carleton 67
Tommy Drake scored a career-high 22 points and Dan Forakrud added 17 points and Jake Phillips 16 points, but St. Thomas shot 57 percent from the floor in beating the Carleton, 80-67. The Tommies were paced by Isaac Rosefelt's 24 points and 12 rebounds. Mike Keating added 21 points and eight rebounds as the forward combination was a combined 20-for-29 from the floor. Bryan Schnettler added 12 points, eight rebounds and four assists and Sean Sweeney picked up 11 points and six assists.

at Carleton 75, St. Thomas 64
Dan Forakrud scored 24 points and grabbed 15 rebounds and Zach Johnson added a career-high 25 points as Carleton posted its biggest home win ever over St. Olaf, 75-44. Forakrud keyed a huge first half for the Knights, scoring 20 points and grabbing 11 rebounds while Johnson had 25 of his 25 in the first 20 minutes as the hosts claimed a 41-27 lead at the break. Carleton 56 percent from the floor and finished the half on a 16-6 spurt. The Knights outscored UST 25-8 over the final 10 minutes of the first half. The Knights extended the lead to 21 in the first six minutes as Johnson scored five straight points to push Carleton's advantage to 50-29. Bryan Schnettler paced UST with 12 points and Mike Keating added 11.
