KNIGHTS, ROYALS PUT WRAPS ON REGULAR SEASON, LOOK TO PLAYOFFS

Carleton College and Bethel University meet in the regular-season finale for both clubs as each prepares for the start of the MIAC Playoffs on Monday.

The conference tournament picture is clear for seeds four through six. Carleton will be the fourth seed and host fifth-seeded Hamline, as the Pipers held off Bethel, 61-60, on Wednesday. The Royals will be the sixth seed. St. Benedict, which plays at Gustavus on Saturday, can clinch the outright MIAC regular-season title and top seed in the conference tournament with a win. The Gusties could force a two- or three-way tie for the title with a win. If Gustavus beats St. Benedict and Concordia beats Hamline, the Cobbers would be the top seed, followed by Gustavus in second and St. Benedict in third. If Gustavus wins and Concordia loses, the Gusties will be the top seed, followed by St. Benedict and Concordia. The top two seeds receive a bye and host the semifinal games.

LAST TIME OUT: CARLETON 68, ST. MARY'S 40, FEB. 15, 2006

Megan Vig scored 15 points, 13 in the first half, as Carleton used an 18-0 run late in the first half to race past St. Mary's, 68-40. The Knights, who shot 50 percent in the first half, broke from a slim 20-19 margin to lead at the half, 38-21.

Annie Isler added 12 points and four assists as Carleton won for the ninth time in its last 11 games. SMU was eliminated from the MIAC Playoff chase with the loss. The Cardinals shot only 26 percent for the game and turned the ball over 22 times, leading to 22 Carleton points.

The game was close for the first 14 minutes as SMU made four of their five 3-pointers in the game's first nine minutes. The visitors, though, went more than 10 minutes without a field goal, scoring only one point over that stretch. Carleton stretched the lead as many as 38 points in beating the Cardinals for the 10th straight time overall.

Knight Notes 'n Trends

- Carleton has held its last 12 opponents to less than 40 percent shooting. Four times over the last 12 games and six times overall the Knights have held their foe to less than 30 percent shooting from the field. Seventeen times in 24 games opponents have failed to shoot better than 40 percent against the Knights; Carleton is 14-3 in those games.
- Bethel leads the all-time series, dating back to Feb. 18, 1974, 34-20, but Carleton has won the last 16 meetings and the last eight at the Robertson Center. Carleton head coach Tammy Metcalf-Filzen is a perfect 16-0 on the Knights' bench against Bethel.
- Carleton will be the fourth seed in the upcoming MAC Playoffs, the lowest seed the Knights have had since the MAC Playoffs started six seasons ago. The Knights have been the conference tournament's top seed twice (2003, 2005), the second seed twice (2001, 2004) and the three seed once (2002). No fourth seed has ever won the MAC playoff title, although the third seed has won twice (Carleton in 2002, St. Benedict in 2005).
- Carleton will face Hamline University in the MAC Playoff quarterfinals. It marks Hamline's first conference tournament appearance in the six-year history of the event. The Knights, meanwhile, are 10-1 all-time in the conference tournament and are one of only three teams to make it to the MAC Playoffs every time (Gustavus and St. Benedict are the other two).
- Carleton is 8-2 at home this season 68-8 over the last six seasons in West Gym.
- Carleton has averaged three of its five MAC losses in the last 12 games by beating Gustavus, Concordia and St. Catherine.
- Carleton is but 2-8 when allowing 60 or more points in a game, but both of the wins have come in the MAC's second half against Hamline (Jan. 18) and Concordia (Feb. 2).
- The Knights are only 4-5 this season when trailing at the half, but three of those four wins have come in the last month. The Knights trailed St. Thomas by one at the half (W 72-65) and Gustavus by 14 (W 57-53).
- Carleton overcame a 14-point halftime deficit for the second time in the last three years against Gustavus. In the 2004 MAC Playoff semifinals, Carleton trailed Gustavus 39-25 at the half but rallied for a 55-72 victory, in that game the Knights held Gustavus to 13 second-half points; in its Feb. 1 win Carleton allowed only 18 second-half points to the Gusties.
- Carleton blocked a conference season-high 10 shots against Augsburg on Monday night and had nine on Jan. 21 against St. Thomas. The MIAC record for most blocked shots in a single game is 13. Carleton's 4.8 blocks per game is on pace to shatter the team record of 3.3 blocks per game, set in 2003-04.
- Carleton allowed 80 points in its Jan. 28 loss at St. Benedict, marking the first time in 110 MAC contests a Carleton opponent has scored 80 or more points in a regulation contest. St. Thomas beat the Knights, 80-62, on Jan. 17, 2001, prompting a 10-game win streak for the Knights. That season ended with Carleton upsetting the Tommies in the MAC Playoff title game and earning the school's first NCAA Tournament bid.
- Carleton scored 70 or more points for the fourth time this season by topping exactly 70 against Concordia. The Knights are 4-0 when scoring 70 or more points.
- Carleton notched 300th program win with its Jan. 16 victory at St. Mary's.
- The Knights allowed only 53.6 points per game during their five-game winning streak and are allowing only 55.0 points per game over the last 12 games.
- Carleton ranks first in the MIAC in field-goal percentage (44.1%) and first in field-goal percentage defense (36.2%).

Carleton's head coach, Tammy Metcalf-Filzen, displayed his starting lineup with senior Andrea Korb. Rookie Hannah Oken-Berg has started all 24 games with Megan Vig while Emily Strandmark (G), Sarah Kunelius (G), Andrea Dahl (G), Sarah Lincoln (G) and Anna Biewen (F) have also started.

Carleton is using its fifth different starting line-up of the season with the insertion of rookie Anna Biewen into the starting line-up.

Carleton has failed in its attempt to become the first MIAC team to win four consecutive MIAC

Scouting Bethel

The Royals, despite losing a tough 62-60 decision at Hamline on Wednesday night, clinched its first MIAC Playoff berth when SMU and St. Kate’s lost on Wednesday night.

The Royals bring an interesting dichotomy to the table, as they rank second in scoring offense but second-to-last in scoring defense. The Royals and Knights have traded spots all season in terms of field-goal shooting percentage, but the Royals allow their opponents to shoot a league-worst 42.7 percent from the floor.

Jen Ahlborg is the Royals’ leading scorer at 13.0 points per game, while sharpshooter Jolynn Thielen scored nearly 11 points per game and knocked down 47.5 percent from three-point range and ranking in the top three in long-range shots made per game. Guard Emily Usen gets the ball to her shooters and post players and leads the MIAC in assists at 4.4 per game. Heather Davis and Sarah Cotter form the inside combination, with Cotter nearly averaging double doubles at 9.9 points per game and shooting 57 percent from the floor.

Last Time Out: Carleton 65, Bethel 50

Anna Bloemen scored a career-high 21 points on 10-of-14 shooting and Megan Vig added her 15th career double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds as host Carleton beat Belhel, 67-50.

The Knights (8-7, 6-4 MIAC) shot 50 percent from the field in winning for the third straight time and for the 16th straight time over the Royals (5-9, 5-5 MIAC). Jolynn Thielen paced Bethel with 15 points and five rebounds and Heather Davis added 14 points, six rebounds and four steals. The Royals shot 39 percent from the floor, including 4-of-19 (21 percent) from three-point range and 4-of-14 from the free-throw line.

The Knights started fast, grabbing a 12-2 lead and extended it to 21-4 as Bethel missed nine of its first 10 shots in the first 11 minutes and committed four turnovers.

The Royals opened the second half on a 20-10 run, cutting Carleton’s advantage to 45-38 on a Sarah Cotter lay-up. Bloemen scored on consecutive baselines to stem the tide and finished the game on a 14-6 spurt.
