CARLETON GUNS FOR FIFTH MIAC PLAYOFF TITLE AT CONCORDIA

Upstart and fourth seeded Carleton College, the lowest seed remaining in the MIAC Playoffs in either men’s or women’s basketball, travels to Moorhead, Minn., to face the second seeded Concordia College, Moorhead, with the MIAC Playoff title and an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament on the line.

The Knights, who have qualified for the MIAC Playoff title game every single season in the event’s six-year history, brings a 12-1 record in the conference tournament into the game, including 4-1 in the championship game. Carleton and Concordia last met in the MIAC Playoffs in the 2004 title game, a 62-40 Knight victory.

The two teams split the regular season meetings, with each winning on the other’s home court. The Cobbers won on Jan. 4, 65-53, as they made 10-of-19 from three-point range. The second contest on Feb. 4 was a 70-64 Carleton victory as the Knights shot 49 percent from the floor and held the Cobbers to 38 percent.

LAST TIME OUT: CARLETON 74, ST. BENEDICT 73 OT, FEB. 22, 2006

Megan Vig scored 25 points and Andrea Korb’s jumper in the lane with 6.5 second left in overtime lifted Carleton College past top seed St. Benedict, 74-73, in overtime in the MIAC Playoff semifinals.

Sarah Kuneuis tallied a career-high 18 points, going 6-for-8 from three-point range, including three straight triples during a 21-3 run midway through the second half as the Knights erased a 15-point, second half deficit in advancing to the MIAC Playoff title game. Vig was a monster over the final six minutes of regulation, scoring 13 points, and her two free throws with 11 seconds left forced overtime. There were two ties and five lead changes in the extra session. St. Benedict’s Darby Noreen made two free throws with 17 seconds left for a 73-72 Blazer lead, setting up Korb’s heroics.

Knight Notes & Trends

- Carleton is making its sixth appearance in the MIAC Playoff title game in the event’s sixth year of existence. The Knights are 12-1 all-time in the conference tournament, with titles in 2001, 2003 and 2004.
- The Knights are the fourth seed to make it to the conference championship game. It marks the first time the Knights have been seeded lower than third in the MIAC Playoffs.
- The Knights have won or shared the MIAC Playoff title three times (2003, 2005), the second seed twice (2001, 2002) and the three seed once (2002). No fourth seed has ever won the MIAC Playoff title, although the three seed has won twice (Carleton in 2002, St. Benedict in 2005).
- The Knights are one of only three teams to make it to the MIAC Playoffs every time (Gustavus and St. Benedict are the other two).
- The Knights have won 13 of their last 15 games, dating back to Jan. 14 win at St. Olaf. The Carleton men’s and women’s basketball teams have won 27 of their last 29 games combined since the sweep of St. Olaf. The men’s team is also playing in the MIAC Playoff title game, marking the second time in MIAC Basketball Playoff history one school has both teams in the title game. Gustavus did it in 2003.
- Only once in the last 15 games has an opponent scored more than 40 percent against Carleton, as Bethel connected on 44 percent of its shots on Feb. 18. Prior to that game, Carleton held 12 straight foes to less than 40 percent shooting. Nineteen times in 27 games opponents have failed to shoot better than 40 percent against the Knights; Carleton is 16-3 in those games. Four times over the last 14 games and six times overall the Knights have held their foe to less than 30 percent shooting from the field, with Carleton winning all of those contests.
- Concordia leads the all-time series, 38-11, but the Knights have won 11 of the last 13 and the last six meetings at Memorial Auditorium. The Cobbers started the series by winning the first 36 meetings from 1987-2000, but the Knights have won 11 of the last 13 games.
- Carleton’s win at St. Benedict was the Knights’ first conference tournament road win since Feb. 23, 2002, when the Knights beat St. Benedict, 79-63, to win the conference tournament title game. No current Knights’ player was a member of that team, although assistant coach Abby Kalland ‘04 was a sophomore that season. Prior to Wednesday, Carleton had played seven straight games at home in the MIAC Playoffs.
- Carleton scored 70 or more points for the sixth time with Wednesday’s 74-point outburst in overtime. The Knights are 6-0 when scoring 70 or more points.
- Carleton is 9-2 at home this season and 69-8 over the last six seasons in West Gym. In the MIAC Playoffs, the Knights are 8-1 all-time on their home floor and have never lost a quarterfinal or semifinal contest at West Gym. The Knights are 10-2 all-time in the postseason at West Gym but only 4-3 on the road. All three losses have come in the NCAA Tournament, as Carleton is 4-0 in MIAC Playoff road games.
- Carleton is 8-8 when allowing 60 or more points in a game, but all five of those wins have come in either the MIAC’s second half or in the MIAC Playoffs against Hamline (Feb. 20 and Jan. 18), Concordia (Feb. 4), Bethel (Feb. 18) and St. Benedict (Feb. 22).
- The Knights are only 5-5 since trailing at the half, but four of those five wins have come in the last month. The Knights trailed St. Thomas by one at the half (W 57-55), Hamline by three (W 72-65), Gustavus by 14 (W 57-53) and St. Benedict by 10 (W 74-73 OT).
- Carleton has overcome two big deficits in big victories this season. In Wednesday’s semifinal game the Knights erased a 15-point, second-half deficit in winning in overtime. Against Gustavus on Feb. 1, they knocked out a 14-point halftime deficit for the second time in the last three years against Gustavus. In the 2004 MIAC Playoff semifinals, Carleton trailed Gustavus 39-25 at the half but rallied for a 55-52 victory. In that game the Knights held Gustavus to 13 second-half points; in its Feb. 1 win Carleton allowed only 15 second-half points to the Gusties.
- Carleton blocked a conference season-high 10 shots against Augsburg on Jan. 30 and had nine on Jan. 21 against St. Thomas. The MIAC record for most blocked shots in a single game is 13. Carleton’s 4.9 blocks per game is on pace to shatter the team record of 3.3 blocks per game, set in 2003-04.
- Carleton allowed 80 points in its Jan. 28 loss at St. Benedict, marking the first time in 110 MIAC contests a Carleton opponent has scored 80 or more points in a regulation contest. St. Thomas beat the Knights, 80-62, Jan. 17, 2001, prompting a 10-game win streak for the Knights. That streak ended with Carleton upping the tempo in the MIAC Playoff title game and earning the school’s first NCAA Tournament bid.
- Carleton notchted its 100th program win with its Jan. 16 victory at St. Mary’s.
- Carleton ended the season ranked first in the MIAC in field-goal percentage (44.4%) and first in field-goal percentage defense (36.7%).
- The Knights are featuring four new starters this season, with last year’s MIAC sixth person of the year, Karl Christianson sliding into the starting lineup with senior Andrea Korb. Rookie Hannah Oken-Berg has started all 24 games with Megan Vig while Emily Strandmark (6), Sarah Kneuliens (3), Andrea Dahl (1), Sarah Lincoln (4) and Anna Biween (7) have also started.
- Carleton is using its fifth different starting lineup of the season with the insertion of rookie Anna Biween into the starting lineup. The Knights are 6-1 when Biween starts.

* Carleton has failed in its attempt to become the first MIAC team to win four consecutive MIAC regular-season titles. St. Thomas won three straight from 1995-98, St. Benedict took three straight from 2001-04 (sharing a title with Carleton in 2002-03 and 2003-04), but neither squad was able to win four straight MIAC titles.

Scouting Concordia
Carlin has returned to the MIAC Playoff title game for the second time by holding off a late comeback attempt by Gustavus, 65-55. The Cobbers led by nine at the break but had to rally with a 21-11 surge over the final 10 minutes to claim their third win this season over the Gusties. Melanie Hageman and Tori Ehler paced Concordia, as Hageman scored a team-high 18 points on 9-of-13 shooting while grabbing nine rebounds. Ehler scored 14 points and hauled in 11 rebounds to record her fifth double-double of the season.

Hageman and guard Anne Kleeley are the Cobbers’ two leading scorers at 16.3 points and 12.2 points per game, respectively. Kleeley hurt the Knights in the first contest, a Cobber win, scoring 17 points and nailing four-3 pointers, while Hageman notched 22 points and 14 rebounds in the second meeting.

Six of the Cobbers’ eight points came from the three-line point. The Cobbers drained 10 three-pointers in the Jan. 4 win, but made only 3-of-13 from beyond the arc in the Feb. 4 contest.

The Cobbers mirror the Knights in the sense they shoot the ball fairly well (42 percent) and don’t allow the opposition to do the same (39 percent). Concordia is a good rebounding team (+3.9 rebounding margin) and force 39 turnovers a game.
