Prefect Data Report Fall 2009

A substantial portion of Carleton students utilize the prefect program
- Prefects were assigned to 16 science and social science courses during fall term, and held over 250 sessions.
- 370 students attended prefect sessions during fall term, which is approximately 20% of enrolled students.
- 74% of students enrolled in a prefect course attended at least one session.
- Of students that attended, 48% went to more than half of the offered prefect sessions.
- The average student enrolled in a prefect course attended 3 sessions.
- The average prefect session had 23% of the class in attendance.

Students of all class years worked with prefects
- Of students enrolled in prefect courses 30% of freshmen, 25% of sophomores, 10% of juniors, and 8% of seniors attended at least one prefect session.
- On average freshmen attended 5 prefect sessions (32%), sophomores and juniors attended 3 (18%), and seniors attended 2 (15%).

Students met with prefects for introductory and advance science and social science courses
- Students in science courses attended an average of 3.5 sessions (24%), while those in social science courses attended an average of 3 sessions (21%)
- Students in introductory and upper level courses attended an average of 3 sessions (23% and 17% respectively).

Male and female students attended sessions equally
- Out of those who attended, men went to an average of 4 sessions (29%), while women went to an average of 3 (33%).
- The gender of the prefect did not significantly affect attendance.

Students who attended the first prefect session were more likely to attend future sessions
- 28% of students attended their first offered prefect sessions.
- Students that attended the first prefect session attended an average of 6 sessions over the whole term (42%), while students that did not attended an average of 2 (13%).
Students of all class years worked with prefects

Class Year Total

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2010</td>
<td>13%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2011</td>
<td>17%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2012</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2013</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Shows the percentage of class years enrolled in prefect courses.
Shows the average percent of prefect sessions attended.
74% of students who were enrolled in prefect courses attended at least one session. Shows the percent of sessions attended.
Students met with prefects for introductory and advance science and social science courses

Shows the average percentage attendance of students from varying course types

---

Average Attendance % by Course Type

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Type</th>
<th>Average Attendance %</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Science</td>
<td>24%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social Science</td>
<td>21%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intro</td>
<td>23%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Upper Level</td>
<td>17%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Shows the average percentage attendance of students from varying course types
Male and female students attended sessions equally

The male/female ratio of students enrolled in prefect courses.

Male: 54%
Female: 46%
Shows the average percent of prefect sessions attended.
Shows the average percent of prefect sessions attended by students with the same and different gender from the prefect.
Students who attended the first prefect session were more likely to attend future sessions.

Out of all students that attended prefect sessions, 34% attended the first session.
Shows the average percent of prefect sessions attended. Students that attended the first session went to significantly more subsequent sessions.
Shows the average percent of prefect sessions attended. For those students that attended the first session, freshmen and seniors had the highest return percentage.
Total Student Attendance

Shows total student attendance.