Prefect Data Report Winter 2010

A substantial portion of Carleton students utilize the prefect program
- Prefects were assigned to 19 science and social science courses during winter term, and held over 320 sessions
- 400 students attended prefect sessions during winter term, which is approximately 20% of enrolled students
- 71% of students enrolled in a prefect course attended at least one session.
- Of students that attended, 17% went to more than half of the offered prefect sessions.
- The average student enrolled in a prefect course attended 4 sessions.
- The average prefect session had 23% of the class in attendance.

Students of all class years worked with prefects
- Of students enrolled in prefect courses 49% of freshmen, 30% of sophomores, 14% of juniors, and 7% of seniors attended at least one prefect session.
- On average freshmen attended 4 prefect sessions (21.5%), sophomores attended 4 sessions (21%), and juniors/seniors attended 3 (14.8%).

Students met with prefects for introductory and advance science and social science courses
- Students in science courses attended an average of 3.4 sessions (20%), while those in social science courses attended an average of 3.57 sessions (21%)
- Students enrolled in introductory courses attended an average of 3 sessions (20%).
- Students enrolled in upper level courses an average of 4 sessions (24%).

Students who attended the first prefect session were more likely to attend future sessions
- 19% of students attended their first offered prefect sessions.
- Students that attended the first prefect session attended an average of 8 sessions over the whole term (45%), while students that did not attended an average of 2 (14%).
A substantial portion of Carleton students utilize the prefect program

Total Students Enrollment in Prefect Courses

Students enrolled in prefect courses, by class year (out of 400 total)
Shows the enrollment rates in prefect courses for each class year. The percentage that attended at least one session is shown at the bottom.
Shows the average percentage of sessions attended, categorized by class year.
Shows the frequency of attendance by quartile. Most Students attend at least one session.
Students met with prefects for introductory and advance science and social science courses

Shows the average attendance percentage by course type.
Students who attended the first prefect session were more likely to attend future sessions.

Students that attended the first session

Shows the percentage of students that attended the first session, delineated by class year.
Students that attended the first session attended many more afterward. Shows the average attendance percentage of students that attended the first and did not attend the first (does not include students that did not attend any).
Average Attendance Percentage

A similar figure, delineated by class year.