News consumers today face a flood of fake news and alternative information. The Liberal Arts Consortium for Online Learning host this online meet-up with journalism ethics Professor Aly Colón and others. The purpose of this forum is to explore forces of change in the new media landscape, as we become responsible for deciding how we filter what’s news and what’s not. Professor Colón will frame the conversation with historical examples and point to emerging trends in the digital age of news where Velocity + Volume = Volatility. Tuesday, April 4 from 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm.

Student Leadership
& Involvement Grant

What is it?
The grant strives to provide partial funding in support of “outside the classroom” leadership development experiences throughout fall, winter, and spring terms.
Leadership and involvement grants may also be used to aid in funding workshops or speakers at Carleton that will provide multiple students with knowledge and experience that will be applied to a student organization or initiative.

Where do I apply?

Grant Writing for Nonprofits: The Basics

Interested in learning about grant writing? Attend this two-part workshop on the fundamentals of seeking grants for nonprofit organizations. Especially germane to anyone interested in working at a nonprofit organization, or in starting a nonprofit, this workshop will help you learn how to research grant opportunities, to write grant proposal narratives, to develop budgets, and to create project timelines. Christopher Tassava, Associate Director of Corporate and Foundation Relations, will lead the sessions, which will be highly interactive.

Session I: Wednesday, April 12, 4:30 – 6:30 p.m.
Session II: Monday, May 1, 12:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Apply through the Tunnel by Friday, April 7.
