Monday’s Riddle
Three people check into a hotel. They pay $30 to the manager and go to their room. The manager finds out that the room rate is $25 and gives the bellboy $5 to return to the guests. On the way to the room, the bellboy reasons that $5 would be difficult to split among three people, so he pockets $2 and gives $1 to each person. Now each person paid $10 and got back $1. So they paid $9 each, totaling $27. The bellboy has another $2, adding up to $29. Where is the remaining dollar?

Answer:
Each person paid $9, totaling $27. The manager has $25 and the bellboy has $2. The bellboy’s $2 should be added to the manager’s $25 or subtracted from the tenants’ $27, not added to the tenants’ $27.

Riddle of the Day
You draw a line. Without altering it, how do you make the line longer?
~ Answer in Friday’s NNB ~

Global Commodities Trading

Wednesday, April 19

If you’re interested in business, or want to know more about what it’s like to work in global commodities trading, sign up on the Tunnel to connect one-on-one with Anthony Tancredi ’85. In addition to 30 Minutes, Anthony will be hosting a talk about commodities training and his own path to the role of Global Head of Sugar at Dreyfus. Join us for either event – or both!

30 Minutes
Wednesday, April 19, 2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m., Career Center

Commodities Trading Talk
Wednesday, April 19, 5:30 – 6:30 p.m., Leighton 202

Anthony Tancredi ’85, who graduated from Carleton with a Latin American studies degree, is now a commodities trader currently serving as head of the sugar platform for Louis Dreyfus Company. Anthony built his 30-year career within the cotton industry, working first for Allenberg Cotton Co. and then Louis Dreyfus Company. He held various key roles over the years, including President of Allenberg Cotton Co. and later Head of the Cotton Platform at Louis Dreyfus Company, until his appointment to his current role in 2015.
