30 MINUTES

The 30 Minutes program brings students interested in a specific job or industry face-to-face with alumni experienced in that field. In just half an hour, Carleton networking magic happens. As the academic year begins to wind down, 30 Minutes is a great way for you to keep up your career exploration momentum. Alumni working in all career fields are excited about connecting with students, and students consistently make discoveries and glean insights through these conversations. This spring, consider connecting with:

Suneet Dewan ’16 (major: economics)
Data Analyst, Flexport
Friday, May 12, 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Wondering what the first year of life after Carleton is like? Curious about careers in data analytics? Connect with Suneet.

Laura Clise ’01 (major: political science/ international relations)
Director of Sustainability & Corporate Responsibility, Weyerhaeuser
Thursday, May 18, 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Do you care about sustainability and want to know more about career options in the field? Join Laura to learn about her fascinating work in sustainability and corporate social responsibility.

Eric Carlson ’66 (major: economics)
Dean’s Professor of Entrepreneurship Emeritus, Santa Clara University
Thursday, May 18, 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Interested in entrepreneurship, social entrepreneurship, or local government? Connect with Eric to learn more about how he blended all of these interests to build his unique career.

Please sign up on the Tunnel to reserve a 30 Minutes spot with Suneet, Laura, or Eric. If you’d like to participate in 30 Minutes but don’t know where to begin, a student career assistant can help you generate questions and prepare for the conversation.

Still Searching? You’re not alone! There are hundreds of full-time job and summer job and internship postings live on the Tunnel and the Liberal Arts Career Network. SCAs and career counselors are available for walk-ins every day to help you with the job search from start to finish. You can also adjust your Tunnel profile to receive e-mails tailored to your career field and geographic preferences. Log in to the Tunnel or stop by to get started.

Carls with Creative Careers in Theater
Wednesday, May 10, 4:30 – 6:00 p.m | Little Nourse Theater
Join Professor Megan Sarno of the Music Department and a panel of Carleton alumni for a conversation about creative careers. Learn more about how these alumni have built careers in theater, and find out about how their time at Carleton has informed their lives after Carleton. Panelists are the co-founders of Chicago’s Underscore Theatre Company, and include Alex Higgin-Houser ’10 (biology), David Kornfeld ’11 (music), and Laura Stratford ’09 (English). Refreshments will be served. Questions? Contact Professor Sarno. This event is sponsored by the Career Center, the Music Department, the English Department, and the Department of Theater and Dance.
