SPRING BREAK SCHOLARS PROGRAMS — Biomedical Research & Law

Application deadline: Monday, February 4, 2019

Scholars is an experiential learning opportunity for students to explore career options, make connections with alumni, and hone networking and professionalism skills. Scholars incorporates a career readiness component leading up to an on-campus symposium, site visits to a variety of organizations, and an alumni networking event during spring break. The 2019 programs are: Biomedical Research Scholars in the Twin Cities and Rochester and Law Scholars in the Twin Cities. To learn more about the programs and how to apply, please view the virtual information session video series at go.carleton.edu/career.

WEITZ FELLOWS PROGRAM

Application deadline: Sunday, January 20, 11:59 p.m.

About the Fellowship: The Weitz Fellows Program will provide one-year jobs for nine Carleton 2019 graduates at nonprofit organizations in Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska. Positions are paid, include benefits and funding for professional development, and will provide exposure to all aspects of the organization. This is an unmatched opportunity for anyone interested in beginning a career in arts management, non-profit management, or social change.

Participating organizations: Film Streams, Girls Inc., Joslyn Art Museum, Nebraska Appleseed Center for Law in the Public Interest, OpenSky Policy Institute, Opera Omaha, University of Nebraska Omaha Service Learning Academy, Urban League, and Women's Fund of Omaha.

How to Apply: Take full advantage of the Career Center as you work on your application materials! We are here to help you with your resume and cover letter, so drop in to meet one-on-one with a student career assistant any time. Submit your application on the Tunnel no later than Sunday, January 20, at 11:59 p.m.

30 Minutes

Gain knowledge. Make connections.

30 Minutes brings students interested in a specific job or industry face-to-face with alumni experienced in that field. This is a great opportunity to meet alumni working in careers that interest you, get advice about how to enter a given field, and gain knowledge about some next steps you might like to take. Participating in 30 Minutes is a wonderful way to begin building your professional network. Sign up on the Tunnel, and learn more at go.carleton.edu/30minutes.
