Google is returning to Carleton! Google engineers and Carleton alumni Hailey Jones ’17 and Emily Johnston ’15 will be back second Wednesday through Friday, September 19 through 21, to host a collection of events and one-on-one time on campus for you to learn more about life at Google, as well as specific job and internship opportunities we for students. We will have food and swag while they last – hope to see you there!

Check out the details and register for events at bit.ly/2vxVDlz.

Come work with us!

Are you a graphic designer or videographer interested in completing a project this term? We are hiring two students for part-time positions in the Career Center this fall! The graphic designer will be charged with creating a comprehensive and visually compelling book used for marketing the internship program. The videographer will have the opportunity to film and produce some short videos about the internship program. If you’re interested, we want to hear from you! Please see both postings on the Student Employment website. We also welcome your questions! Reach out to Sarah Rechtzigel (srechtzi@carleton.edu) to learn more.

Please fill out your Summer Experiences Survey!

What did you do this summer? We want to hear about it – no matter what! Please spend a few minutes (or less!) filling out your Summer Experiences Survey. Your response helps us better support Carleton students as they undertake future summer job, internship, and research experiences. To fill out the survey, find your personalized link in your inbox in an e-mail from Rachel Leatham. All students who complete the survey can register to win a case of LaCroix. A total of 50 will be given out!

30 Minutes
Gain knowledge. Make connections.

30 Minutes brings students interested in a specific job or industry face-to-face with alumni experienced in that field. In just half an hour, Carleton networking magic happens.
