Isabel "Izzy" Rodriguez ’12 from Freedom Preparatory Academy will be on-campus to talk about their open opportunity for Elementary/Middle/High School Teachers. She also has a couple spots open for a 30 Minutes session. A teaching degree is not required.

At Freedom Preparatory Academy, they look for smart, problem-solving, self-reflective, and passionate teachers who want to close the achievement gap by preparing each of our students for success in college and life. They seek teachers who want to be part of a dynamic, hard-working team at the best charter schools in Memphis.

She will also be tabling on Fri. April 18th from 11-1 outside Sayles-Hill Great Sp.

Friday, April 18th – 10:50am – Sayles-Hill 253
Join Jon Gallop, parent of Carleton senior as he talks about: Who hasn’t heard the question, “can I sue for that?” Well . . . the correct answer is, anyone can sue for anything. The real question is “will you win the lawsuit.”

We will explore who is at fault for what and how to protect yourself in your business and personal life. In today’s society, it is not enough to do the right thing, you have to PROVE you did the right thing.
